It is a great privilege for me to present these records to you - most of which were so generously and lovingly given to me by "Cousins" who had recorded all that they knew or were able to find on the Wetherall or Weatherall Family. I shall not attempt to name them here as there are so many - and as I have shown them as my "Source" of information under each family record. I do, however, say "THANK YOU" to each and every one of them.

You have heard it said that "Behind every successful man there is a woman" - well, I want to say that behind me in this effort is my wonderful husband, Bob. He has driven many a mile, lifted many a heavy Court House record book, and trudged through many a cemetery with me - and without him this book would never have been written - so, THANK YOU, BOB!

I have, of course, made every effort to have no errors - but we know that it is impossible...I just hope there are few. Please use this as a beginning for your own research and record of your branch of the family. I have had to leave many blanks - but it would take a lifetime or two to fill it all in.

Sincerely,

Christine Virginia Weatherall Damon

KEY TO NUMBERING SYSTEM

The key to the method of tracing ones ancestry back to 1-JOHN WETHERALL[1] is as follows:

Refer to the Index of Names to find the page number of the desired person. This entry will show a number before the name of his direct ancestor, (father or mother as the case may be). Turning back to this number it will show another number and name of his grandparents and so on.

The descendants of sons and daughters, having issue, can, in a similar manner be traced forward to their respective numbers.

The names and records now available of Wetherall/Weatherall descendants listed in this section of the book who are unmarried or married and having no children, will appear under their Wetherall or Weatherall parent's name and number.

The large number preceding a persons name is his family number and the small number following his name indicates the generation he lived in, starting with the first ancestor we have found, viz, 1-JOHN WETHERALL[1] who alone constitutes the first generation. His son 2-George Wetherall[2] and daughter 3-Sarah Wetherall[2] and 4-Col John Weatherall[2] make the second generation. (I would normally not have given a family number to Sarah as we know nothing about her issue - but had quite a bit of information about her to record so thought it best to give that under her number in her generation.)

Using this method, once the desired name is located in the Index, any line can be traced backward or forward entirely by the numbers.

WETHERAL

In "THE STORY OF WETHERAL", Mrs. Margaret Kirkpatrick has set down the story of her native Village, Wetheral - printed for the Wetheral Women's Institute by Howe of Brampton, Cumberland (profits donated to the Cancer Research Fund). Following is some information from this book I thought you would enjoy:

Wederhall, Wetherhala, Wedderell, Wetherhal - there are many ways of spelling the name which was derived from the Anglo Saxon "Weder" - a wether sheep and "Health" a steep, grassy slope or bank. It is still spoken of as "Wedderal" by those of its inhabitants who use the local dialect.

In the ancient churchyard in the hollow near the river Eden, within sight of the old Priory stands the Parish Church - which is much the same as it was five hundred years ago. That the monks, under their Priors WILLIAM THORNTON and RICHARD WEDDERHALL (1530?) repaired or rebuilt it is almost certain. Over the small doorway are the words: "ORATE P. ANIMA RICHARDI WEDDERHALL" who evidently hailed from Wetheral.

This 48-page booklet would be of interest to you - and you might also like to have an aerial picture of Village Wetherall which can be ordered from:

I do not have Mrs. Kirkpatrick's address, but perhaps Mrs. Thomson can give it to you.

THE WITHERELL/WETHERALL/WITHERILL
FAMILY OF NEW ENGLAND
By Peter C. Witherell and Edwin Ralph Witherell (10th cousins, once removed.

After considerable discussion of the source of our surname, these cousins have established that ours is a "surname of place of origin". No doubt it is the Village Wetheral in Cumbria, England. Peter C. Witherell has given me permission to quote the following (purely hypothetical, but logical) paragraph from the above book:

"The First Wetheral"

"But the subject of this chapter lived centuries earlier. The old Norseman, his fierce, conquering blood thinned by generations of settlement in his adopted country, wanted to choose a surname to set him apart from the other Williams in the parish Wetheral. His neighbors had already chosen to be called William Smith, William Peterson and William Goodman. Then one day, standing amongst his bleating sheep, high on the slope above the Eden River, he cast about toward the Village clustered nearby and said quietly to himself,

"I'm William de Wetheral, William from the parish Wetheral."

* * * * * *

WEATHERALL

The name is variously spelled. It originated from the village Wetheral, County Cumberland, England. The population of the parishnow is about 3200. Records go back to 1093 A.D. The name means "a place where sheep are kept". In 1400 the family name was spelled "de Wederhale" or "de Wederhall." By 1600 different branches were spelling it Wethereld, Weatherall, Weatherill, etc.

The Weatherall Coat of Arms is confirmed in Burkes' General Armory, the official roll of British Arms. It consists of a silver shield with a red chief or band with two black lions surmounted by a steel helmet which indicates that the original bearer was a knight. The crest is a gold communion cup. There is no record of a motto.

Our Weatherall ancestors were early settlers of Virginia. In the book "Cavaliers and Pioneers of Virginia 1623-1800 Land Patents and Grants" Robert Weatherall, Gentleman, was listed as receiving a grant of 1000 acres in James City County. Robert Weatherall served in the House of Burgesses in Williamsburg in the year 1645 and also in 1652.

My personal researches in the Isle of Wight County Court House which is near Williamsburg and James City Parish, located a number of records of a weatherall family. John Weatherall, Jr., died there in 1706. Another John Weatherall was listed as an appraiser of an estate in 1710. William Weatherall's estate was appraised in 1719.

I have not been able to establish a link between this family and that of our ancestor, John Wetherall of Culpeper County, Va., but it is reasonable to assume that they were related.

The boundaries of Culpeper Co., in 1749 were indefinite. It was formed from Orange Co. in 1748. John Wetherall was a witness in the first will recorded after the county was formed. He was listed as an ensign in the Orange County Militia in 1749. He died in Culpeper County, Va., in Mar. 1763. His will names his wife Margaret, his grown son George, and two small children, Sarah and John. The little boy, John was born July 28, 1762. Margaret was probably a second wife and it is evident that she remarried a year or two after her husband's death.

When her son John was 16 years old he enlisted in the Continental Army to fight against the British. His younger half-sister, Elizabeth Long, wrote a letter many years later about how grieved their mother was at his enlistment. He enlisted in Richmond, Va., in Dec. 1778 in the 1st Regiment Light Dragoons. He served his 3 years in the states of Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, and South Carolina and in December, 1781 was discharged in Richmond, Va. He left his horse with the proper officers there and walked to his home in Culpeper County. The record of his discharge is in the State Library in Richmond spelling his name erroneously as Wetherall, but other papers are in the National Archives with the correct spelling.

REUNIONS

The first "Gathering of the Clan" - of the descendants of George Washington Weatherall and his wife, Harriett Rebecca Jane Smallwood (No. 24) was held October 12, 1974 in Memphis, Tennessee.

We all had a "crying good time" as each cousin arrived - many had never met and those that had, had not seen each other in a good many years.

After visiting all day on friday, some took the cruise down the Mississippi River on Saturday morning and then we met at the home of Ruth Nelson Robinson and her sister, Margaret Nelson. They and their sister Frances Bettis had prepared many delicious salads and deserts and everyone brought a sack lunch - mainly of fried chicken from the Colonel's. Saturday night we had a seated dinner at which there were 65 in attendance. We had a wonderful program, emceed by cousin Rae Weatherall Brown of Oklahoma City, Ok. Rae introduced cousin Boyce Nelson, a Presbyterian Minister, and said "Boyce, please come and give us 'our spiritual heritage." When he came to the podium, he said: "Rae, I can't give you a spiritual heritage...if you don't (already) have any, you ain't got it!" His message following that was "Classic" and following are some quotes that I believe you will enjoy:

"Speaking of the Weatheralls and the Smallwoods and their heritage, you will understand that the things I shall mention will be altogether, probably, what you would mention. This is as it should be. Each of us would simply report the things we have heard, we have seen, the things that we have tasted, smelled, and experienced across the years as we have associated with members of our family. You all understand, I am sure, if I refer to my own mother rather frequently, as I shall,,,this is because she was the one I knew best, loved the most, and she was to me the top person on our totem pole.

When I first started thinking about this occasion and the subject assigned to me, it became apparent that my problem would not be in finding something to say, but rather what not to say - a problem of being selective.

One of the things that I regard as a great spiritual heritage is this: Our ancestors have given to us a unique individualism, and tonight has been a classic demonstration of that. Someone might say that this could be claimed of any family, or any individual. Yes, up to a certain limit, or extent, but I think not to the limits or extent that it can be said of the Weatheralls. I was tempted to use the word "RUGGED" individualists, but the word "RUGGED" is too smooth for Weatheralls, because even a Weatherall couldn't tell another Weatherall where to go, though I'm sure some of them have been tempted to do that. What I'm suggesting is that we are a BUCK-HEADED people, and if you want to take exception to that, just remember that this is one of the greatest compliments that could be paid a family or individual. We're supposed to be individualistic, and buck-headed enough to be what we are supposed to be - individual. We are not supposed to look alike, speak alike, hear alike, taste alike, or even believe like any other person in the universe. Otherwise we would cease to be persons and become puppets.

Another heritage is the tremendous musical talent of the Weatherall family. It's incredible. From my earliest days in Yell County, Arkansas, this is one of the pleasant memories - the many different ways in which the Weatheralls could create music - from playing anything from a blade of grass to a Jew's harp, or a harmonica, or a banjo, violin, piano, or organ - and such beautiful voices. And some of these Weatherall boys still have pretty good voices. I especially remember two kids I used to run around with - RAY and ROY WEATHERALL. How popular they were because of their perfect pitch and close harmony - always in demand at all-day dinners and singing on the ground. The melody lingers on to this late date.

THEN - maybe we'd better get a hold on our chairs because the next item in the heritage I want to mention is this: THE WEATHERALLS WERE LOVERS OF MERCY. Now, according to the grapevine, not all the Weatheralls were church goers. They didn't all pay their tithe or read the Bible; but the ones I knew best were lovers of mercy. Now our Lord was not anti-church. Indeed He was ardently pro-church, the Church was His own creation - with His blood He bought her and for her life He died; yet, some of the hardest words He ever uttered were directed toward the church--members who never missed a service, paid the tithe, were famous for their long prayers - but knew nothing of compassion, forgiveness, understanding and tolerance. MAMMA was not always in church and was criticized for her absence. Then I discovered that when others were faithful in church, etc., as above, she was on some errand of mercy, like standing over a hot wood stove cooking a meal for a sick neighbor...I know that she is one who had the help of He who literally fed thousands with the little boy's picnic lunch of ho-cake and fishes. What greater tribute could be paid one's ancestors than to say they loved mercy? E. C. Stubbs has written of mercy with entirely different words when he penned this line:

> "Some want to work within the sound > of church or chapel bell;
> I want to run a rescue shop > within a yard of Hell."

Finally, the sweetest and most precious heritage our ancestors have given us is this...I am of you who are in this room - not only you who are seen and heard, but those of our number who are unseen and unheard. I have you and you are to me a mighty spiritual heritage. And, think of this; I have you and you have me...you didn't ask for me and I didn't ask for you - we weren't asked, but had we been asked, could we have made a more desirable choice of so grand a family? I THINK NOT!

On this glad occasion, compassed about as we are with such a great cloud of witnesses, including those of our ancestors who, looking down upon us, I'm sure, are glad. Our's is a goodly heritage. It's the kind of heritage that knocks the foundation from under arrogance, or pride, intolerance, the kind of heritage that makes one humbly thankful to be a member of such a family...and this I am.

You know what? I think I love you!"

Following this, we were privileged to see that wonderful film of VILLAGE WETHERAL in England which Mildred and Euel Forrest had taken on their trip the Spring of 1974. It was like being there with them. Euel, it was more professional than the professionals could have made it.

THUS ENDED THE FIRST GATHERING OF THE CLAN (WEATHERALL REUNION)

Yearly reunions were held in Memphis until 1977 when the first HOMECOMING TO PONTOTOC (MISSISSIPPI) was held. Four Weatherall brothers (sons of Col. John Weatherall) had come from Abbeville District, South Carolina in the early 1830's to Pontotoc County, Mississippi, where their children were born and raised and then migrated to all parts of the United States. We have greatly enjoyed the hospitality of the Pontotoc Weatherall cousins and enjoyed seeing the old home places that are still standing. As the years have gone by, new cousins have been found and many attended the reunions. We are from many states-California to Florida and all in between. Do plan to attend a reunion. Others than these mentioned have been held in various parts of the country. It is great to renew family ties and stay in touch.

Clan's Reunion Has A History

By JAMES CORTESE

THE tongues wagged, they slapped backs, kin met who hadn't met in 40 years and some greeted kin they had never greeted before — all in all it was a mighty fine gathering of the well-scattered clan of George Washington Weatherall and Harriet Rebecca Jane Smallwood.

And behind it all was Margaret Nelson of 4914 Dianne Drive.

A lovely little white-haired lady in an aqua gown, she told me all about it as I sat in a chair alongside her bed (she's a victim of arthritis)

"How are you?" I said.

"Just fine, just fine. And don't you listen to all that Ann Colbrunn (the neighbor who told me about Margaret Nelson and the clan gathering) says. She's a good friend but she's prejudiced."

Then she turned to the big event of last weekend.

"I come from a family of Presbyterian ministers and school teachers," she began, "all born in Yell County, Ark., at the foot of Magazine Mountain. Of the six brothers, four became ministers and one (Doug, also known as Robert) would have but he died as a result of World War I. The three sisters all became teachers."

How about that sixth brother, Margaret Nelson?

"Well, that was Alvah; he was the oldest and he went to Chillicothe, Ohio, and studied telegraphy. I just don't know what happened to him."

THE THREE sisters all live in Memphis now. Margaret Nelson, Mrs. Ruth Robinson and Mrs. Frances Bettis.

"The Weatheralls are our mother's family," Margaret Nelson returned to the gathering of the clan. "She was one of 13 children, all dead now, and their families are scattered all over. But about a year ago, three of them happened to come by to visit us here and they said, 'This is so much fun, let's do it on a bigger scale.' "

It was a lot of work: All members had to be contacted, a program featuring the family tree and the Weatherall coat-of-arms was printed, and Ed Lee Valentine of Los Angeles even wrote a history.

And it all came together when 55 members gathered in Memphis Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The families of all the 13 Weatherall children except one were represented.

Special guests were Aunt Loeva (Mrs. Lee Weatherall) of Havana, Ark., and Aunt Edna (Mrs. Ed Weatherall) of Santa Maria, Calif. — widows of two of the original 13. Master of ceremonies was Rae (Mrs. John) Brown of Oklahoma City, because "of her personality."

Then there were tales of the clan, according to the program, by "Any who will tell!" And they told . . . too many to be retold here.

And there was music.

"We've got a lot of talent in our family," said Ruth Robinson who stuck her head into the room to see how the story of the reunion of the clan was going. It was going so well, she came in and sat down to listen to Margaret Nelson recall all the chitter-chatter and backslapping and "Do you remember?" and "So this is cousin Frances?"

As Ed Lee Valentine said in his history of the clan:

"I feel that I have been drawn a little bit closer to those that I have never seen as a result of this endeavor . . . . I think I can safely say that the Weatheralls met the challenge of frontier life in the colonies and young nation well. I'm sure we can all be proud of our heritage."

I chuckled one of my wickedest chuckles and asked, "Margaret Nelson, didn't you by any chance find any horse thieves on a back limb of the family tree?"

MARGARET NELSON looked at her sister, Ruth Robinson, and they both giggled a little and Margaret Nelson said, "Well, we did find one 'way back up the line who was so mean to his wife and children she had to divorce him — but we decided not to talk about that one."

And so it was a great reunion of the George Washington Weatherall and Harriet Rebecca Jane Smallwood clan.

Thank you, Ann Colbrunn, for telling me about such a delightful bunch. You may be prejudiced, but I do believe every word you said.

Homecoming to Pontotoc

[By Callie B. Young]

"We are really happy to be in Pontotoc. I feel like I have at long last come home, and am treading on holy ground, for we all have our roots in Pontotoc."

Mrs. Christine Weatherall Damon spoke these words at the barbecue held on Saturday evening, October 13, 1979, at the Pontotoc Country Club. The occasion was the gathering of the Weatherall families from nine states—Alabama, Arkansas, California, Florida, Illinois, Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, and Texas—for the sixth Weatherall reunion.

And truly, the Weatheralls had come full circle, for it was to these Pontotoc hills that four brothers from Abbeville District, South Carolina, came in the 1830's to make their home. The four brothers— Adam Crain Jones, James L., George M., and Marshall Weatherall— are all listed as heads of families in the Pontotoc County 1840 census.

The first reference to a Weatherall in Pontotoc County was in 1832 in the Monroe Presbyterian Church Minutes which stated that Mr. and Mrs. A. C. J. Weatherall joined the church by letter from Palmyra Presybterian Church on March third. Their infant daughter, Martha Jane, was baptized April 29, 1832, with Reverend Thomas C. Stuart, Pastor, officiating. Later, A. C. J. Weatherall was a trustee in the Providence (Pontotoc Presbyterian) Church. One son, John, a school teacher by profession, still lived in the Pontotoc area in 1850, for he, his wife Susan, and three children, William, Georgia, and Permelia were listed in the census for that year.

One of the brothers, George M., married Martha Ligon, and they were the parents of nine children. He and his family are listed in both the 1840 and the 1850 census. He was a member and an Elder in Pontotoc Presbyterian Church. He must have lived out his life in Pontotoc County for his will was probated in 1852 in Pontotoc, Mississippi. None of the descendants of George M. Weatherall live in this area, however there are some living in Jackson, Winona, Eupora, Leland, and Starkville. Relatives from these cities have attended the Weatherall Reunion, as well as some from other states; Texas, Georgia, Alabama, and Florida.

Another of the four brothers, James L., who married Francis Elvina Hodges, served as the first Tax Assessor / Collector when Pontotoc County was organized in 1836. He owned a large plantation about twenty miles north of Pontotoc. James L. was listed in the 1840 census, but he, his wife and eleven children are on the Tippah County census roll in 1850. (Tippah County joined Pontotoc County at that time.) Members of the James L. family moved to Arkansas, Oklahoma, and Texas, then to other states. Some of his descendants still live in New Albany, Sherman, and Tupelo. These relatives have attended the Weatherall Reunions, as well as some from the states of Arkansas, California, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Tennessee, and Texas. This year there were eight who came from Oregon.

The fourth Weatherall brother who came to Pontotoc when the county was first organized was Marshall. He was born November 22, 1792 in Abbeville District, South Carolina. His family sent him to Phildelphia, Pennsylvania for medical training. He returned to his home in South Carolina to practice medicine and marry Jane Belgan Watt, daughter of Samuel Watt. When Marshall Weatherall brought his family to Pontotoc in the 1830's Samuel Watt and family came, also. (It was Samuel Watt that Davy Crockett visited in Pontotoc on his way to Texas to fight in the Battle of the Alamo in 1836.) Dr. Marshall's tenth child was born in Pontotoc and the family were members of the Monroe Presbyterian Church. In later years, Dr. Marshall was a member of the building committee of the First Presbyterian Church, and was also an Elder in the church. Dr. Marshall made a great contribution to Pontotoc County during the years of its early growth as he served as a practicing physician.

Even though the descendants of Dr. Marshall Weatherall are scattered throughout many other states, there are still enough of them left for Pontotoc County to claim this family. Many of the relations of two of Dr. Marshall's sons, John Theodore and Samuel Watt are in this area.

Captain John Theodore was Captain of Company A. Pontotoc Mounted Men in the War Between the States. He married Mary Elizabeth Adams, and two of their children were Watt Adams and Mary Miller. Mary Miller married Dr. Alonzo Jackson, and was the step-mother of the late Albert Sidney Johnson and Lula Johnson Galloway. Watt Adams married Margaret Barr, and they were parents of four children, Susan, Josephine, Watt Adams, Jr., and Herbert (Hub) Lesley, all deceased. Watt Adams, Jr., married Berine Hardin, and she and her daughter Nora Sue live in Pontotoc. Herbert Lesley's widow, Velma Wood Weatherall lives in Pontotoc, and so does his daughter Alice Jean Magee and her children.

The old family Bible printed in 1850 by The American Bible Society with the Weatherall record of births, deaths, and marriages, is now the property of Mrs. Velma Weatherall. It originally belonged to her husband's grandfather, Captain John Theodore Weatherall, and was given to Herbert by his aunt Mrs. Mary Miller Weatherall Johnson.

Dr. Marshall's son, Samuel Watt, (named for his grandfather), married Mariah Ann Hasseltine Ware, daughter of Dr. James A. Ware. One of their three sons, John T., married Annie Caroline Thomason and they moved to Vernon, Texas in 1891. The other two sons were Mark Crocker and William Ware.

Mark Crocker married Sallie Stark. Their children were Stark, Ida, Marshall Hearne, and Mark A., all deceased, and Mary A. who married Kendall Robinson and now lives in the Jackson area. Stark married Lois Knox who is living in Pontotoc at this time. They had one daughter, Marguerite. (Stark Weatherall was founder and owner of Weatherall's Inc.). Ida who married Claude Hardin, Sr., was the mother of five children; Claude Jr., Elizabeth, Sarah, Mark, and Kenneth. Claude Hardin, Sr., Claude Hardin, Jr., with his wife, Dot, and their daughter, Cindy are the only members of this family who live in Pontotoc.

William Ware married Julia Lowry who lived to be 96 years old, and they were the parents of seven children. Three of these, Homer, Samuel, and John are deceased. Three of them live in other places; Carrie (Mrs. Coleman Walters) in Byhalia; Lowry in Sarasota, Florida, and Martah (Mrs. Dunn) in California. George Henry, the youngest, lives in Pontotoc with his wife Mattie Holloway Weatherall. One of his two daughters, Mrs. Jimmy Munn and a step-daughter, Mrs. Larry Young and their families also live in Pontotoc. George Henry is the only living descendant who bears the Weatherall name living in Pontotoc at this time.

The idea for the Weatherall Reunion began with the great great grandchildren of James L. Weatherall. Four cousins— Christine Weatherall Damon, Mildred Forrest (deceased), Ruth Robinson, and Margaret Nelson (deceased) planned to get some of their relatives together for a reunion. This was held on October 11, 1974 at 4914 Dianne Drive in Memphis, Tennessee. Edward Lee Valentine, a cousin from Seal Beach California wrote the history of the family and distributed copies to the fifty-five people who attend. Boyce Nelson, a Presbyterian minister, inspired the group with his stirring message on the Weatherall family spiritual heritage.

This activity was called to the attention of a local reporter who wrote a feature article for The Commercial Appeal entitled, "Clan's Reunion has a History". Mrs. Carmen Weatherall, Eupora, Mississippi, whose husband was a descendant of the pioneer settler George M. Weatherall, wrote a letter to Margaret Nelson. This began a correspondence between several of the cousins, and some members of this family attended the 1975 reunion in Memphis. Then they learned of their Pontotoc "kin" and in 1976 members of the George Weatherall and Claude Hardin familes from Pontotoc attended the third reunion in Memphis.

Plans were made at that time to hold the 1977 reunion in Pontotoc. They came back again in 1978, and then again in 1979. Weatherall cousins by the dozens came from almost everywhere. The Pontotoc Inn was headquarters for the group with visits to the homes of local relatives from time to time. The big event was the barbecue on Saturday night at the Country Club with the meat contributed by Claude Hardin, Sr., and all the other "goodies" which made up the feast brought by local relatives. Visits were made to the courthouse, churches in the area, the library, old homes, and even cemeteries for those interested in the family history. Little by little, through letters, tombstone inscriptions, census records, land deeds, marriage certificates, and family Bibles, they began to pull the family history together.

The name Weatherall was first spelled Wetheral, for it originated from the "Village Wetheral" on the Eden River in County Cumberland, England, where family historians believe the first members of this family lived. The names means "a place where sheep are kept."

The Weatherall ancestors were early Virginia settlers. A John Weatherall lived in Culpepper County, and in 1749 was a witness to the first will recorded in that county. His wife was named Margaret and their three children were George, Sarah, and John, Jr., The son, John, joined the Regiment of The Light Dragoons in 1778 when he was 16 years old, and attained the rank of Colonel in the Revoluntionary War!

At the end of the war, Colonel John Weatherall and some of his relatives moved to the Abbeville District to South Carolina. In 1787 he married Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Adam Crain Jones. He purchased a plantation on Matthews Road from Patrick Duncken. John was a representative to the South Carolina Legislature from the Saluda District. He also joined the Greenville Presbyterian Church, where Hugh Dixon, pastor of this church at this time, reconded that he served as the Ruling Elder until his death in 1824. John and Elziabeth were the parents of 13 children. Four of them— James L., George M., Adam Crain Jones, and Marshall were the ones who came to Pontotoc Mississippi in the early 1820's.

Reverend Hugh Dickson was sent to Pontotoc, Mississippi to visit the Monroe Mission by the Mission Society of the Synod of South Carolina, and to make a report on his return. Reverend Dickson was a close friend of the Reverend Thomas C. Stuart, pastor of the Monroe Church in Pontotoc County, and was also a close friend of the Weatherall family in South Carolina. It is believed that Hugh Dixon was instrumental in getting the four brothers to come to the Pontotoc area.

Mrs. Christine Damon, Amarillo, Texas has compiled the family genealogy and plans to publish it in book form. It will be called "Weatherall".

There are also plans for a Weatherall cookbook, the "brainchild" of Cindy Hardin, Pontotoc. Old Recipes which have come down through generations will be included, as well as favorite recipes of the contributors. There will even be recipes from residents of the Village Wetheral, England. With her friend Clair Duff assisting with the art work, Cindy is busy compiling her material with the intention of getting it published in book form as soon as possible. Cindy is the great-great-great-granddaughter of Dr. Marshall Weatherall.

Ed Valentine said at the first reunion in 1974 that as he worked on the family history he had been drawn closer to those he had never known, and felt the Weatheralls could be justly proud of their heritage.

The Weatheralls are proud of their heritage, and have been drawn closer together through their annual reunions. Even now, all the Weatheralls are looking forward to October, 1980, when once again there will be a homecoming in Pontotoc.

Mr. Purdie,

The people who have unfortunately lost all, or a great part of their fortune, by the destruction of Norfolk, and bear their loss with fortitude and complacency, appear in the most glorious light. They will be for ever remembered, with love and admiration, by every generous mind, and friend to the liberties of mankind, to the latest ages. . . . Our enemies will now see their folly in attempting to terrify us into submission by threatening to burn our houses and towns. The world will laugh at their folly, detest their cruelty, and applaud our virtue.

2-16-1776 A VIRGINIAN

It is not uncommon to hear some men boast of the excellence of our constitution; that it is no less the glory and security of those who enjoy it than the envy and admiration of strangers. Its re-establishment is the chief subject of their prayers for reconciliation, and its demolition the chief cause of their execration and abhorrence of an independency. Such a noble equilibrium between the several branches of the legislative powers! The executive so placed, in the hands of one, as to give it all the dignity and dispatch of an absolute monarchy, without the power to oppress! The judicial power delegated to judges, who are supposed to be independent of, and thereby uninfluenced by, the executive! E.F. 5-17-1776

The copy of the original Will was obtained by my cousin, Mrs. Mildred Forrest when she visited England. Of course the above is not a perfect translation - just a good try- It seems to me that this name could be WETHERALD - I just can't decipher the old English script very well.

ENGLAND AND IRELAND

JOHN WETHERALL, who lived in North Great George Street, DUBLIN, was an "Armiger" holding a Civil Service appointment - BUT HOW LONG THE FAMILY HAD BEEN IN IRELAND, HISTORY DOES NOT RELATE: however, it is known that Wetheralls, who had lived at WETHERALL PRIORY in the Village of Wetheral, near to Carlisle in Cumberland, migrated to IRELAND.

The family is said to be the descendants of an officer in the Army of William III (who reigned from 1689 to 1702). This officer had a grant from the forfeited lands given to him after the Battle of the Boyne in 1690.

Thus begins Major Frederick Bradford McCrea in his book:

TREE AND SERVICES
OF THE WETHERALL FAMILY

This book was published in March, 1912. Major McCrea lived at 137 Ebury Street, London, S. W. - and I am indeed indebted to Miss Eileen Wetherall of Little Rock, Arkansas, and her aunt, Miss Madeleine Wetherall of Dublin, Ireland, who allowed me to copy their book.

Major McCrea compiled "Trees" on two branches of the above Wetherall family of England. He has given dates and details of promotions in their Military Service, together with places of service. However, I shall not attempt to give this much detail...I have arranged the genealogical information on the individuals as to their branch of the family which I believe will better suit this book and yet give you the most interesting things about each individual.

Major McCrea also refers to Chapters 35 and 41 of Sir Walter Scott's "Ivanhoe" in which one reads of a STEPHEN WETHERALL (called "Stephen Steel-heart" because of his cruelty), who was a trusted knight, selected by Waldemar Fitzurse as one of a body of trusty men to waylay and slay Prince Richard - in which event Stephen was slain.

I would urge you to read Major McCrea's book should you be able to locate a copy...it is most interesting.

The above JOHN WETHERALL, the Armiger, had two sons and a daughter. Maj. McCrea examined some 33 Wetherall wills and marriage bonds, dating from "far back" and selected the two quoted herein for his book.

THE WEATHERALLS OF AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

Their traditional family story is that four brothers left England - two went to America and two went on to Australia...one of whom came on later to the New Zealand gold mines and helped write a book on the early days Southland.

On the following pages is information on two branches of the family in New Zealand.

Mr. Kevin Weatherall (35 Clarendon Street, Dunedin NTH New Zealand) compiled an 80-page book:

"JOHN WEATHERALL OF BLUE SPUR AND HIS DESCENDANTS"

This was written especially for distribution at their most successful re-union which was held Labour Weekend of 1980. Mr. Weatherall sent me a copy - and I found it to be one of the best books on the history of a family that I have found - and extremely well written. He has given me permission to include his address in order that you may contact him about ordering a copy.

I am sure you will find the family pictures, newspaper article on the reunion and copies of their reunion memoriabilia to be of interest.

Following this is a record and family pictures - which were furnished by Mrs. Ruth Weatherall - on her husband's branch of the family.

We appreciate very much the cooperation and willingness of these two to share their information so graciously.

(Ruth and I met through the Cumbria Family History Society in England - of which we were both members. We corresponded for a while and she was responsible for my meeting Mr. Kevin Weatherall - and here you see the results...just thought I would share this joyful experience with you.)

250 expected at Weatherall reunion

Descendants of John Weatherall are expected to converge on Lawrence for a family reunion during Labour Weekend.

John Weatherall, the son of a Liverpool baker, left England in his youth to seek his fortune on the Australian goldfields.

In 1863, he decided there were better prospects on the goldfields of Otago and left Bendigo with his wife Eliza Ann and their three young children. They settled at Waipori and added a further three children to their family.

Eliza Ann died in childbirth, and some time later, John Weatherall married Elizabeth Ann Stephens.

John Weatherall and his second wife had two children before they decided to move to Blur Spur, near Lawrence, where they worked at the Cornishmen's claim.

The couple had another five children, and in 1899 decided to forsake the goldfields for a grocery and confectionery shop adjacent to the present site of the Lawrence Town Hall.

Unfortunately, John Weatherall died a year later, but his wife continued to run the shop for another 10 years.

John Weatherall was also a lay preacher for the Wesleyan Church and used to walk from Waipori to Lawrence every Sunday to give sermons.

The reunion has been largely organised by Mr Kevin Weatherall, one of the 20 descendants of John Weatherall living in Milton.

There are 1200 living descendants and 250 will travel to the reunion from all parts of New Zealand. Ten are also expected from Australia for the occasion.

The celebrations will begin on Friday, October 24, with a social get-together, and the programme will continue with registrations in the Lawrence Methodist Church Hall on Saturday afternoon.

At noon, the participants will travel to Blur Spur for a picnic lunch on the site of John Weatherall's homestead, and this will be followed by a tour of sites at Gabriels Gully and Lawrence.

The evening's programme includes a banquet followed by a ball.

On Sunday, a church service will be held in the Lawrence Methodist Church, followed by a tour of sites of interest to the Weatherall descendants, in Central Otago. (Many of John Weatherall's descendants settled in Roxburgh).

A barbecue tea at Ettrick is planned for Sunday evening, and a sports meeting at Lawrence on Monday afternoon will conclude the celebrations.

All catering will be carried out by local Lawrence organisations.

Hymn:

O for a thousand tongues to sing
My great Redeemer's praise,
The glories of my God and King,
The triumphs of His grace.

My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad
The honours of Thy name.

Jesus, the name that charms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease;
'Tis music to the sinners' ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.

He speaks, and, listening to His voice,
New life the dead receive,
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.

He breaks the power of cancelled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood availed for me.

See all your sins on Jesus laid:
The Lamb of God was slain,
His soul was once an offering made
For every soul of man.

Prayer: Of Confession and Supplication

Children's Address:

Hymn:

Jesus loves me! this I know,
For the Bible tells me so;
Little ones to Him belong;
They are weak, but He is strong.

Yes! Jesus loves me
The Bible tells me so

Jesus loves me! He who died
Heaven's gate to open wide;
He will wash away my sin
Let His little child come in.

Jesus loves me! He will stay
Close beside me all the way;
Then His little child will take Up to heaven for His dear sake.

Reading: Mark 12: 28-34.

Prayer: Thanksgiving and Intercession.

Hymn:

And can it be that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died He for me, who caused His pain?
For me, who Him to death pursued?
Amazing love! how can it be
That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me!

'Tis mystery all! The immortal dies:
Who can explore His strange design?
In vain the first-born seraph tries
To sound the depths of love divine.
'Tis mercy all! let earth adore,
Let angel minds inquire no more.

So free, so infinite His grace.
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race.
'Tis mercy all, immense and free;
For, O my God, it found out me!

Long my imprisoned spirit lay
Fast bound in sin and nature's night;
Thine eye diffused a quickening ray
I woke, the dungeon flamed with light;
My chains fell off, my heart was free,
I rose, went forth, and followed Thee.

No condemnation now I dread;
Jesus, and all in Him is mine!
Alive in Him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach the eternal throne,
And claim the crown, through Christ,
my own.

WEATHERALL REUNION-HELD 25-26 OCTOBER, 1980 - IN LAWRENCE, NEW ZEALAND

Weatherall family revisits goldfields

The population of Lawrence was boosted at Labour Weekend when 250 descendants and relatives of goldminer John Weatherall converged on the town for a family reunion.

The successful reunion was organised chiefly by Kevin Weatherall, one of 33 descendants living in Milton, with assistance from a committee especially set up for the occasion.

Kevin Weatherall, a keen family historian, was responsible for researching the family history, tracing the 1500 descendants of his great-grandfather, and planning the different events held during the weekend.

All those present at the gathering received a comprehensive booklet about their ancestry, the culmination of 15 years' work by Kevin Weatherall.

The reunion at Lawrence, Blue Spur and Ettrick, began on Friday evening with a social function in Lawrence, when many descendants met their relatives for the first time, or were reunited after a long period.

It continued on Saturday morning with registrations in the Lawrence Methodist hall, followed by morning tea.

For the occasion, the descendants and relatives were able to see special displays of family photographs, old family Bibles, and items of historic interest to the family.

Of special interest were John Weatherall's original indenture of apprenticeship as a tinplate worker, dated 1846, the baptism certificate of his second wife, Elizabeth Ann Stephens, dated 1839, and their marriage certificate of 1870.

The family then travelled to Blue Spur for a picnic lunch near the site of John Weatherall's original homestead and family photographs were taken.

After a visit to the House of Treasures, a small museum of goldmining relics, the family returned to Lawrence for afternoon tea. A highlight for the children was a special party.

More than 200 people attended the banquet held in the Lawrence Town Hall on Saturday evening, where a speech of welcome was delivered by the mayor of Lawrence (Mr G.L. Smith), and the grace was given by George Strachan, a missionary in New Guinea, another great-grandson of John Weatherall.

A special highlight of the banquet was the presentation of three wines especially brewed for the occasion by Colin Weatherall, of Milton, a keen amateur wine-maker.

The commemorative cake, featuring the Weatherall coat of arms, was cut by Mr Arthur Weatherall (Lawrence) and Mrs Norma Walker (Australia), the oldest male and female descendants present.

A cabaret followed the banquet.

Sunday morning's church service was conducted by the Rev R.A. Simpson, of Milton, and was based on the original service conducted at Blue Spur in the early 20th century by the Rev David Weatherall, John Weatherall's seventh son.

The original Bible at the Blue Spur church was used for the occasion and readings were given by Merton Weatherall, the Rev David's son, and George Strachan, who also gave the children's address.

After lunching in the Lawrence Town Hall, the family party made tours around places of family interest in Central Otago, culminating in a barbeque tea at Ettrick.

Thus ended a very successful and busy weekend for the descendants and relatives of John Weatherall.

History.

John Weatherall was born in Liverpool, England, in 1832, the son of a baker.

In 1846, aged 14, he was indentured as an apprentice tinplate worker for seven years. His wage during the first year was 2s 6d a week, rising to eight shillings a week in the seventh year of his apprenticeship. He worked from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. each day.

After completing his apprenticeship and hearing many stories about the fortunes being made in the goldfields of California in the late 1840s and Australia in the 1850s, John Weatherall headed for Australia.

He married Eliza Ann Kelshaw in Sydney in 1855, and the couple headed for the goldfields around Bendigo.

Their first child, Eliza, was born in 1856, but died 14 months later.

Their first son, John, was born in 1858, three months after his sister's death and their second and third sons, William and George were born in 1861 and 1862.

By this time, the dwindling returns from the Australian goldfields and the discovery of gold in New Zealand, were drawing thousands of Australian miners across the Tasman.

John and Eliza Ann Weatherall travelled to Waipori with their three sons, and their next two children, Eliza Ann and Henry, were born in Dunedin in 1864 and 1866.

Waipori township had developed into a permanent town by the time their seventh child, Joseph, was born in 1867.

Less than two years later, Eliza Ann died giving birth to a stillborn male child.

Left with six children to bring up in those harsh times was a formidable task and John Weatherall was at first assisted by friends and neighbours.

He then employed Elizabeth Ann Stephens as a housekeeper and married her in 1870, 13 months after his first wife's death.

John and Elizabeth Ann Weatherall's first children, Jane and Edith were born at Waipori in 1871 and 1872.

Around 1870 the Cornishmen established a claim at Munroe's gully, close to Blue Spur, and the Weatherall family moved to the area about three years later.

Their next five children — Thomas (1875), David (1876), Simon (1878), Daniel (1880) and Mary (1882) — were born at Blue Spur.

During his lifetime, John Weatherall was a very ardent member and lay preacher of the Wesleyan church in Waipori and Lawrence, and in the earlier days of his life in New Zealand, journeyed by foot from Waipori to Lawrence every weekend to preach.

In 1900, John and Elizabeth Ann Weatherall opened a fruit and confectionery shop on the present site of the Lawrence Town Hall, but John died soon after from bronchitis.

His wife carried on the business after his death, but in 1904 she fractured a hip while disembarking from a moving train at Lawrence, and died four months later of cardiac failure.

The oldest descendant of John Weatherall, 79-year-old Arthur Weatherall (Lawrence) with the youngest descendant at the reunion, 8-week-old Adam Gilchrist (Roxburgh).

SHOT IN PATH OF ROYAL PROCESSION

A FEW inches lower and the bullet which struck a woman on the arm while waiting to see the Queen Mother pass on Sunday would have struck her 6-year-old son in the head, possibly with fatal consequences.

"I think it was just as well it did get me in the arm. It was the best place for it," said Mrs R. E. Weatherall, of 15 Chelsea Street to-day.

She was struck by the spent .22 bullet on the left forearm as she waited for the Queen Mother to pass in Linwood Avenue. The missile pierced her forearm, entering one side and being extracted from the other at the hospital.

"I heard the whirr of the bullet and then an awful smack. I said to a traffic officer, 'I've been shot,' but he didn't believe me at first. I wrapped a handkerchief around my arm and saw the Queen Mother drive by."

A pilot car in the Royal cortege had driven by but the Queen Mother was several minutes away at the time.

Four boys, aged between 13 and 16, who had been playing in the backyard of a house in Mackworth Street, some 600 yards away, were later interviewed by the police, who took possession of a .22 rifle.

Rumours

Rumours that a shot had been fired at the Queen Mother quickly spread, and even reached the Governor-General (Sir Bernard Fergusson), in Auckland.

To-day it was housework as though she admitted to being a "bit slower," with her arm heavily bandaged and still in a sling.

"But I can move the fingers all right. I had my hand across my stomach at the time, or it could have been more serious. An inch or two lower and it would have hit my little boy Graeme on the head too. I was pretty lucky really.

"And I'll certainly remember the Royal visit. Maybe I won't be so keen to go to see the Queen Mother again," she laughed.

Dear Mrs Damon

Just a short note before Xmas.
Your letter is most interesting for although I have not done much early research I seem to come in contact with the different Weatheralls & Wetherells and have been told the family Story. by the Christchurch Wetherells) They say that four Boys left England two went to America and two to South Australia one coming on later to N.Z. Gold mining helped write a book on early days Southland. Your one that went North and lost I presume would be the Canadian Ones that I was given photo Copies from of Coat of Arms Weatherall Motto and Story of the Town of Wetherall in Cumberland England near the Border of Scotland on the Banks of the River Eden not far from Hadrians Roman Wall. Have asked Mr Lester Wetherall to get me the Canadian address when he has time for you. every one is busy just now. They say the (a) got left off a Mortage Cert, & I'm always getting phone calls as there is a Robert Wetherall & I'm R Weatherall There are Weatheralls down South at Milton a small town on way to Invercargill & the town of Dunedin all related one has a Jewellers shop in Dunedin & opened another here in Christchurch. I am trying to get hold of one Noreen Weatherall who has I believe ~~4~~ four Volumes of Books on Weatheralls history family. Hes been down Antactic and teaching at training college so guess he is one of those busy people I've written to him.
I am connected to the Adelaide South Australia ones and dont know very much about them so far It seems as if there is some great connection between them all by the stories so far. Had an enquiry about an Amanda Weatherall who come from Yorkshire & lived in Auckland died 1940. Also in Old History of Adelaide is the Story of The first mob of Cattle brought overland from N.S Wales in 1838 mentions a Mr Weatherall one of the Stockmen who was struck by lightning though drought after bullocks were killed Will send a Photo Copy of Pages. I wondered if he stayed I dont & did not go Back to N.S.W. Seasons Greetings for now until this Xmas

"THE HISTORY OF SOUTH AUSTRALIA" by Rev. John Blacket, published in 1911 - found in the Mitchell Public Library in Sydney, Australia is the source for this record:

Chapeter VIII of the above book concerns the first overland trip, a 3-month's journey across the unknown wilds of Australia, which began 13 January 1838, the hotest month in Australia. JOSEPH HAWDON organized this cattle drive through the heart of the Australian bush to a little settlement on the Torrens. Among the men chosen for this endeavor was a MR. WEATHERALL. He is mentioned several times in the article and must have been quite hardy to have survived the extreme heat and severe electrical storms and other hardships encountered. Although we do not know just which Mr. Weatherall this was, we know he played a part in this memorable event in the early days of Australia.

Chapter VIII of "LET THE GREAT STORY BE TOLD", by Vivian Ward, tells of the competition between the English East India Company and the Dutch East India Company on the nutmeg island of Amboyna in the Spice Islands. In a description of the AMBOYNA MASSACRE in 1623, JOHN WETHERAL is mentioned has having been tortured and put to death:

> "JOHN WETHERALL had to be 'tied up' four times until, his remaining strength completely exhausted, he answered yea to all".

He and ten other Englishmen had endured "The Water Torment" and the "Fire Torment" (unspeakably cruel tortures which were described in detail in this book but which shall not be described herein).

It is further stated in the book that when news of these cruelties became known both in England and in Holland, both countries were appalled.

JAMES WEATHERALL
NEW ZEALAND

JAMES WEATHERALL was born in the year 1859 in Kent, England. He received his education in "the old country" and came to Lyttelton, New Zealand in 1882 in the "FLORIDA." He entered into business as a wood and coal merchant in Christchurch, where he continued for 5 years. After disposing of his business he went to the old country for a pleasure trip. Kent, as is well known, is a noted place for its fruits, and during his visit to England, Mr. Weatherall gained considerable experience in fruit growing. Upon returning to New Zealand by the "Tongariro" in 1894, he came direct to Wanganui and established himself in the wholesale business of Fruiterer and Confectioner, the Wanganui Fruit Depot, Victoria Avenue, Wanganui - a branch at Messrs. Cummins and Co's new buildings, Ridgway Street. The very best of chocolates and confectionery are stocked in both shops, including the newest and choicest brands from such makers as Cadbury, Rountree, etc, He has met with much success in his undertaking in Wanganui and has now the satisfaction of having the principal establishment of its kind in the town, enjoying, moreover, a large portion of the business of the Wanganui District. He has a number of employes, who are regularly employed, and supplies several shops with confectionery and fruit. Cordials of all kinds are kept on the premises, and in a refreshment room at each shop a splendid cup of afternoon tea may always be obtained, likewise strawberries and cream in season, and all the dlicious fruits so much sought after during the hot summer months; while during the winter every provision is made for the comfort of those whose business or pleasure has led them to town. (This information is from "THE CYCLOPEDIA OF NEW ZEALAND".) He married (_____) and they were the parents of three sons and a daughter. One son died after the 1918 war. Two sons are shows as follows:

Their 'open house' meant merriment for Heathcote

One of the largest families to be brought up in Heathcote Valley was that of Robert John and Robina Wetherall, who lived there for more than 50 years.

They had 12 children and also raised a nephew. In addition, grandmother Sutherland and two bachelor uncles lived with them.

Mr Wetherall, a carrier, moved from the Halswell area in about 1862 to live in Hills Rd, Green Hammerton, which was one of two districts that divided the valley — the other being St Kildas.

When the licence was transferred from the original valley inn to the present one in 1874, the 14-room, old building was an ideal home for the Wetherall family and there they lived for 38 years. The four younger children were born there.

Although "mine host" was changed, Bob and Robina Wetherall kept open house. As night drew in over the valley, laughter and merriment rang out from the old building.

By HETTY TURNER

Wherever, and with whom, they played, when it grew dark the Wetherall children would arrive home with their friends and the old bar, turned into a sitting room, gave ample scope for frolics.

The baby of the family, Mrs Jessie Trott of Opawa, recalls the floor easily held three sets of dancers and her sister, Jane, played the piano for these impromptu, but regular, parties which just "happened."

'WONDERFUL TIME'

Although there was electric lighting in three of the downstairs rooms, the rest were lit by kerosene lamps.

It is easy to believe Mrs Trott when she says "as children we had a wonderful time."

Underneath the huge bar was the stock cellar and her brothers loved to get down there and explore . . . looking for "ghosties" and mysteries they never found.

Rosina Wetherall, now Mrs Burberry of Linwood, remembers a wonderful "train" the stairs made. "All aboard for far off places," they'd cry.

The railway tunnel passed immediately beneath the house and when they heard a train coming the children would run for home, because they loved to feel the ground vibrate as the train rumbled below.

The old stables housed their father's horses. There were always 10 or 12 "and what a howling match there was when father sold one." said Mrs Trott.

The trough and drinking fountain erected halfway up the Bridle Path in memory of Lady Godley was taken up there by Mr Wetherall; using a sled pulled by his favourite horse.

EPIDEMIC

Suddenly the happy life style closed in when the 1918 'flu epidemic struck. Mrs Trott's mother, a married sister, and her 16-year-old brother were taken within two days. Also, of four brothers who had gone overseas in the 1914-18 war, only two returned.

One of the two surviving boys, Frank Allon Wetherall had joined the artillery in 1912 and was wounded in Gallipoli in the 1914-18 war.

In 1920, as a corporal, he was a member of the bodyguard when the Prince of Wales visited New Zealand. Again, as RSM he was in charge of the bodyguard for the Duke and Duchess of York in 1927.

In 1940, during World War 2, he was awarded the MBE. He retired with the rank of Captain and died in Auckland aged 73.

DELIGHT

At the Heathcote School Centenary in 1960 an old Heathcotian, with delight, recognised the Wetherall sisters, Ada, Olive and Jessie, and told them she would never forget the hospitality of the Wetheralls, for "no matter how many were seated round the table, your mother would always find room for one more."

Today, Mrs Trott has one prized possession: The key to the heavy pannelled double doors that led into the 7 metre long and very wide hall.

That, and the tumbled down old trap shed still standing high on the hillside in Bridle Path Road opposite the domain, are all that remain of the old Inn, for sadly, it was demolished in 1937.

The Records of the Virginia Company of London, Vol 1, p. 372 shows that THOMAS WETHERALL had one share.

ROBERT WETHERALL - could have been born about 1624, as he was a grown man in 1644 when we have our first record of him - as a member of the House of Burgesses. He lived in James City County, Virginia and was probably an Attorney, as he was shown as Attorney of THOMAS LUDWELL on 18 Dec 1650. (Could have been his Attorney in Fact?)

I have found no record of Robert Wetherall's family - have found no will or administration of his estate. Quoted below are the records I have found in hopes they will help some future researcher.

From "THE COLONIAL VIRGINIA REGISTER" by Wm. G. & Mary Newton Stanard, published in 1965, pages 68-69 - and from HENNINGS STATUTES OF VIRGINIA, Volume 1, Page 298:

Note: The Clerk of James City County, Virginia advised that most of their records prior to 1865 have been either lost or destroyed by fire. The few remaining ones are in the Virginia State Library - Archives Division. They also referred me to the Virginia Historical Soc, 428 North Boulevard, Richmond, Virginia.

YORK COUNTY, VIRGINIA

These are records found in the Virginia State Archives - and this is a transcription of some hastily scribbled notes - some in shorthand - on the last day of our research in the Archives. Some of the names may not be correct as the records were difficult to read. However, just this gives us a pretty good picture of this William Weatherall who lived in York County, Virginia:

William Wetherall apparently had no children as his will left all of his property to his stepson, Robert Shield.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA

I have found three Weatherall families in this county - and all of the information is from their Will and Estate Records. They are listed below in date order of said Estates.

I.

JOHN WEATHERALL, JR.

The first item is "eight head of cattle", next "3 ewes & one ram", etc. and this is all we know for sure about this man.

From WILLS & ADMINISTRATIONS OF ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY, VIRGINIA, 1647-1800, by Chapman, Page 70:

The Estate of RICHARD WILLIAMS was appraised by JOHN WEATHERALL, JAMES HOUSE & JAMES BROWN in 1710. It is possible that this was a relative - either father or son? of the above John Weatherall, Jr.

It is interesting to note here that JAMES HOUSE' Will dated 23 March 1727-28, rec. 28 Oct 1728 in Will Book 3 page 129 mentions ANN HOUSE WEATHERALL. In this will he identifies family members but only mentions Ann so we don't know the relationship. This is how it reads:

HOUSE, JAMES: leg son James; son Thomas; to my daughter in law MARY HOUSE the wife of son Thomas; son John, daughter Esther; to Ann House Wetherall, grandaughter Cleary House, daughter Hester. William Hawkins and my son John to divide my estate, exec son John House.

AQUILLA WEATHERALL

Aquilla Weatherall and his wife CHARITY lived in Isle of Wight County, Virginia. Aquilla's Estate was appraised 24 Feb 1745 and Charity was his Administratrix. There were children, but they were not named in the settlement of the Estate dated 12 June 1754...it only refers to "The Widow's Part' and "The children's Part." The Appraisal is recorded in Vol. 5, 1745-1752, pages 11 & 12 (Copy from Microfilm Reel No. 24).

These records are beautifully written, and a joy to read. Looks to me like they were well off and probably lived comfortably.

THE WETHERALL FAMILY OF PENNSYLVANIA

THOMAS WETHERALL was b. ca 1795, in England. He married ISABELLA APPLEBY, b. 11 Aug 1897, in England. They came to America about 1850 or 1851. Mrs. Evelyn Weber wrote that to her knowledge Thomas and Isabella had only two children, Thomas W. and James who are shown below; but they could have had older children living in England as they both were old when Thomas and James were born.

CHILDREN:

I. THOMAS W. WETHERALL, b. 14 Feb 1848, Kendall, Westmoreland County, England, d. 26 Dec 1925, Erie, Pa. He came to America at about age 2...enlisted in the Civil War when he was 15. "Among the houses engaged in the iron trade of Baltimore at present is that of WILLIAM G. and WILLIAM G. WETHERALL, JR. William G. Wetherall, Sr., was in Baltimore County on the 23rd of February ___. His ancestors on the paternal side were of pure English stock, while on the maternal side he is of Irish descent. His mother's maiden name was MAY BEDEL PRESBURY. Both his paternal and maternal ancestors settled in Harford County in the seventeenth century where they became large landholders. His father, William Wetherall, was an officer in the Union Bank of Maryland for thirty-seven years, and his own business career began at an early age, when he entered the counting room of Hollins (Rollins?) & McBlair who are large importers of East India goods. In _____, Mr. Wetherall went to Mexico in one of THOMAS TENNANT's clipper schooners as a Clerk in the House of D'Arbel & Co., of Tampico, D'Arcy and Didier being the principal partners in the firm, and in a few years he was admitted into the partnership. About 1830 he returned to Baltimore. He again visited Mexico in 1835-36 but returned home in impaired health and fortune. In 1846 he commenced the business of importer and dealer in iron and steel in connection

Mr. Frank S. Read
Fort Smith, Arkansas

Dear Cousin:

Your letter of the 14th received. I will give you the best history I can from the memoranda and records in my possession. My office was destroyed by fire Mar. 1895, and all the written history that I had was lost. In Oct. of that year I gathered up such information as I could from published histories of the family and from letters from relatives from which I wrote a genealogical statement of the family from which I now write this letter. We are descendents of the Culpepper Co., Va family whose ancester was ANTHONY GARNETT, who went from Essex Co. He was Vestryman, Church warden, and lay reader at St. Marks Parish from 1758 until his death. He had three sons, ROBERT, called Slaughter in history, ROBIN, JAMES and JOHN. This ROBERT GARNETT was our ancester; he was born Dec 31, 1736 in Essex Co. He married Miss Towles. He had ten children: 1st, WILLIAM who was a Rev. soldier, was killed in battle, never married. 2nd ANTHONY, I think he was a soldier in war of 1812, the information about him is very conflicting, some say he committed suicide, others that he died on a tract of land received for his services as a soldier, near Circleville, O. 3rd OLIVER, my grandfather. 4th ELIZABETH who married JAMES WAGGENER. 5th SALLIE who married JOHN W-. 6th MARY WHO MARRIED THOMAS W-, they are your grandparents, I suppose you have seen their graves as you send the inscription upon their stones. 7th NANCY who m. RUBEN WILLIS. 8th AVA or AVEE who m. MR. PAYNE. 9th LUCY who m. MR. WHITE. 10th MELISSA who m. a MR. JONES. They all m. in Va; the WAGGENERS and WILLISes moved to Ky; Mr. Payne to Tenn; Mr. White and Mr. Jones remained in Va. They all raised families, a number of them have been distinguished for ability and learning; preachers, doctors, lawyers, teachers, etc.

"My grandfather OLIVER GARNETT and your great grandmother MARY GARNETT WAGGENER were brother and sister. My grand father OLIVER m. SARAH WEATHERELL and they had eight children: 1st LUCY m. MERRY WILLIS; 2nd MARIA m. WILLIAM W. WAGGENER: 3rd ROBERT who never married, died when about 23 yrs of age; 4th SALLIE m. JOSIAH BARGER; 5th ANTHONY, my father; 6th ELLEN m. EDMUND T. WILLIS; 7th JOHN m. MRS. JULIA WAGGENER, He had no other children(?); 8th ELIZABETH m. HAYDON HOPKINS.

I cannot give you the date of birth or death of either of my aunts or uncles. All of them except Uncle John, my Aunt Barger and Aunt Hopkins, died before I can remember and they died when I was a small boy. None of their children are living except three sons of Aunt Hopkins.

"My father Anthony was b. Dec 8, 1792, m. in 1824 MRS. MARY ANN PETTRIE HOPKINS, widow of WILLIAM HOPKINS. She was a dau of RICHARD and FRANCES HAYDON, was b and reared in Va. I think in Albermarle Co. My father had eight children; 1st RICHARD T. b. Oct 18, 1825, who m. Apr 1846 MISS CAROLINE M. TAYLOR; he d. Dec 19 1871. He had seven children of whom two died in infancy: MARY F. m. OWENS MILLER; SARAH KATE m. GEORGE C. TAYLOR; HENRYBASCOM: ELLA C. m. JOHN C. BEAUCHAMP and ADDIE who m. JOHN C. DOHONEY. 2nd OLIVER b. Feb 22, 1826, d. aged five years. 3rd ROBERT b. 1/26/1850, m. MISS HATTIE A. ALLENSept 1867 and d. Sept 1, 1873, had no children. 4th CATHERINE FRANCES b. Feb 10, 1852, m. SINCLAIR WHEAT Nov 1854(?) d. Feb 18, 1888; had one child SARAH.5th JAMES, myself, b. July 8, 1834 m. MISS MARY WOOD, Aug 2 1886, we have four children, three daughters and one son, viz MARY LIZZY, JENNIE WOOD, JAMES and SARAH FANNIE. James was b. 11/15/1871, m. LENA VARDEMAN, 12/12/1895, 6th WILLIAM HOPKINS b. 8/13/1836, was t ice married, first to LAURA JOHNSON in Apr. 1859, who d. in Feb 1861; second m. in Jan 1863 MRS. MARY V. J. WILLIS; he d 1/21/1879. He had one child by first wife, she m. R. M. HART. She is now dead. He had three children by his last wife, JAMES E. WILLIAM A. and SARAH ELLEN, they are all married and live in this county. 7th SARAH, b. 3/6/1838, d. 9/22/1855. She would have completed her course in college in one year. 8th MARY ANTHONY b 7/11/1841, m. HENRY HOLLADAY Apr 1863. He died Oct 1890, they had three three children, SARAH who d. Apr 1891, WILLIAM G. and FANNIE, both of whom live with their mother unmarried.

"There are now living only five of grandfather Garnett's grandchildren, viz myself and my sister, Mrs. HOLLADAY, and AUNT HOPKIN'S three sons ROBERT G. who is now about 72, lives in Shelby Co., JOHN W. about 70, I think he makes his home with his daughter in Christian Co., and SAMUEL O. G. who is about 68 and lives in Marshall, Saline Co., Missouri.

My grandfather, OLIVER GARNETT with his entire family moved to Cumberland Co., Ky about the year 1815, and bought and settled on the farm on the Crocus Green in which ROBERT HOWE now lives. Grandfather lived there the most of the time until his death, dec. 12, 1838, his wife died Mar. 1, 1834. Great grandfather ROBERT GARNETT and his wife came to Ky about 1820 or 1825, and lived with my grandfather until they died, he died Dec 30, 1830 aged 94 years.

The ancester of the Culpeper County family ANTHONY GARNETT owned and lived on what is known as the Horse Shoe Farm, and the farm is still known by that name because of the bend in the river. Soon after my father's marriage in 1824, he went back to Virginia and stayed a year or two and wound up the business of his father and grandfather; on his return he bought the farm on the Glen_-fork in this county where he lived to his death, and where all the family was reared; the farm is yet owned, part by myself and a part by my sister Mrs. Holladay. My father died when I was eleven years of age. I had collected considerable family history which as I stated before was all destroyed by fire in 1895; and what I have since collected I think is in the main reliable. When you read this if there is any thing further that you desire to know and that I can give you information about I will be glad to do so.

We are all in the usual health; my wife's health is not good and has not been for some time. I was glad to hear from you, my family join me in love to you, Jimmie and family and Henry and family.

Yours truly,

JAMES GARNETT

(James father was Anthony Garnett. Is not a descendant of the Waggeners. His grandfather Oliver Garnett's 3 sisters married Waggeners, also two of his children.)

The above letter is from the genealogical file of Mrs. Ira Tranter that is in the Library in Franklin, Ind. I was greatly disappointed to finally discover that the Sarah Weatherell mentioned in this letter was not the daughter of my John Wetherall of Culpeper County, Va. His dau Sarah Wetherall married John Marshall. I am including this in my book, though, hoping that it will be of help to someone. Many of the above Garnett family are mentioned in a book "Forks of the Elkhorn Church." See the map on the next page that locates that church in Kentucky.

Tradition in our Family is that two brothers came from England to America - one went North and was never heard of again and the other stayed in the South. I have assumed that the brother that stayed in the South was our ancestor - 1-John Wetherall who lived in that portion of Orange County, Virginia in St. Mark's Parish,that became Culpeper County.

In the year 1720 an Act was passed by the Virginia House of Burgesses authorizing the formation of a new county to be comprised from territory constituting the then counties of Sussex, King William and Queen. This new county "extended westward to the _____ beyond the high mountains, the Shenandoah and received the name Spotsylvania in honor of Alexander Spotswood, Governor of the Colony of Virginia. By the terms of the Act creating it which became operative 1 May 1721, it was made one Parish - ST. GEORGE PARISH. In the year 1730, this Parish was divided into ST. GEORGE and ST. MARK with St. Mark's lying in the upper portion of the county and which became in the year 1734 Orange County, which later became the counties Orange, Madison, Culpeper and Rappahanoch. In March of 1769, St. George's Parish was again subdivided and BERKELEY PARISH was formed, which was within the boundaries of Spotsylvania County. (From VIRGINIA COUNTY RECORDS, VOLUME I). Thus research before 1730 should include the St. George Parish too.

The Colony of JAMESTOWN was settled by the English in 1607, Not long after that we find a Wetherall, but let me preface that with a little history.

> King James I of England gave a Charter for a trading company, first called The London Company and later The Virginia Company, to a number of merchants who wished to found a colony in North America.
> Only men were sent at first and their first duty was to search for gold-and they found none. They acquired tobacco seeds from the Indians, improved the strain and we all know that the raising of tobacco was a very profitable industry. Before long the Company back in England realized they needed communities of families to hold the people in the Colony, so they urged families to come and sent single women over to marry the single men. Then they decided more settlers would be attracted if the people in the Colony were given a "say" in their government - consequently, the Colonists in Virginia were permitted to elect a few men to meet and assist in making laws about such things as punishment of thieves, laying out of roads, and arranging to collect taxes which were becoming necessary for paying the salaries of the colonial officials. These were called Burgesses, and the group were called THE HOUSE OF BURGESSES. The first meeting of The House of Burgesses was held in 1619.

Twenty-five years after this first meeting we find the first record of a Wetherall, a member of the House of Burgesses - living in the County of James City, Va.

CULPEPER COUNTY, VIRGINIA

When we were in Culpeper, Virginia, we met JEANINE INNSKEEP and JANE WEATHERALL (INSKEEP) BARRELL, daughters of ANNA RUTH MADDOX and CARL INNSKEEP. They told us that Jane was named for an ancestor and also that they had an ancestor who lived on MT. PONY which is near Culpeper, Va.

SECTION II

DESCENDANTS OF 1-JOHN WETHERALL[1]
(of Culpeper County, Virginia)

THE FIRST GENERATION
OF THE
JOHN WETHERALL FAMILY

1-JOHN WETHERALL[1] was born about 1715 and died between 26 Sept 1762 (date of his will) and 17 March 1763 (date his will was proven). He lived in Culpeper County, Virginia. His first wife was LILLY, a kinswoman of Wm Duff. His second wife was MARGARET. I have found no record of either of these marriages in the Marriage Records of the counties I have searched in Virginia. Therefore I have based this family record on the Deeds, Wills and other records, copies of which are included in this chapter.

After John Wetherall died, his widow, Margaret Wetherall married JAMES LONG and information regarding their family is included at the end of the information on John Wetherall (in this chapter.)

CHILDREN:

2 i. GEORGE WETHERALL (mother was Lilly)

3 ii. SARAH WETHERALL (mother was Margaret)

4 iii. JOHN WETHERALL/WEATHERALL (mother was Marg't)

I have found no record of who John Wetherall's parents were - or whether he or his parents immigrated to the Colonies. As stated above, Lilly was a kinswoman of Wm. Duff - and Raleigh Travers Green in his book, CULPEPER COUNTY HISTORY states that ROBERT GREEN, son of WILLIAM GREEN, an Englishman, emigrated from Ireland with his Uncle, William Duff, a Quaker, to Virginia and settled in King George County about the year 1710 (this book gives a very complete record of the Green family.)

The earliest record I have for John is from Page 34 of "SAINT MARK'S PARISH VESTRY BOOK 1730-1753, WITH TREASURER'S LEVYS 1731-1785" which I found in the Virginia State Archives, being a copy of the original which is in the Parish Vestry: "At a Vestry held for Saint Mark's Parish at the Church in the Fork on Friday, May 12, 1738..ordered that JOHN WETHERALL be paid 300 pounds of tobacco this insuing year or thirty shillings by the last of nex. July for his charge and trouble of his house in salavating John Hughs."

Also from the above Vestry record: "On 3 Oct 1743 the Vestry ordered Wm. Duff be paid 500 pounds of tobacco FOR JOHN HUGHS BORD." I had wondered what "salavating" meant - from this reference I believe it means that John Wetherall fed or boarded John Hughs.???

20 November 1740:

The first reference to a land transaction is in Deed Book 4, Page 370, Orange County, Virginia in an instrument wherein COLO. CARTER states:..."I have made leases for lives to SAMUEL BALL, GENT., JAMES CONNER, WILLIAM JOHNSON, JOHN RENNALS, JOHN WETHERALL (et al) of Orange County on the Mountain Run and KNOWN BY THE NAME OF MT. PONY. I appoint MR. THOMAS HORD of King George County, Va., my attorney to acknowledge the leases.

When we were in Culpeper, Virginia, I obtained a map which showed Mt. Pony - and include a portion of that map herein.

3 July 1742:

John Wetherall was witness to a Deed that is recorded in Vol 1, Spotsylvania 1721-1800: "George Musick of Spts. Co., and Ann his wife, to Nicholas Randall of Spts. Co. Planter ₤ curs 170 ac in St. Geo Parish, Spts. Co., Va. recorded Deed Book D.

23 Feb 1743:

"On the motion of John Weatherall to have his mark recorded, Viz a swallow fork on the left ear and an under keil and over keil on the right which is ordered to be certified." (see below)

From Kegley's "SETTLEMENTS ON BRANCHES OF JAMES AND ROANOKE RIVERS", page X,121: "After the Treaty of Lancaster in 1744 by which the Six Nations of Indians renounced their claim to all lands in Virginia, there was a still greater interest in western lands. The Wood's River Grant was issued in the Spring of 1745 to JAMES PATTON, ROBERT SLAUGHTER, JOHN GREEN JOHN TAYLOR, JR., JOHN BELFIELD, WILLIAM GREEN, RICHARD BARNES, JAMES GORDON, JAMES WOOD, JOHN BUCHANAN, GEORGE ROBINSON, JAMES BOWEY, ROBERT JACKSON, WILLIAM PARKS, JOHN PRESTON, ROBERT GILCHRIST, RICHARD WINSLOW, JOHN ROBERTS, JOHN WETHERAL, etc.

Upon the Attachment obtained by Robert Green Gent against the Estate of Christopher Kennesley William Morris a Garnishee upon Oath Declared that he has eight hundred and fifty Pounds of Tobacco in his hands of the Estate of the said Christopher which he is Ordered to pay to the said Green in Inspectors Notes

The oaths taken before the Orange County Court by Ensign John Wetherall were the standard oaths required of all persons holding civil or military offices during the colonial period. The language of these oaths, prescribed by statute and required both of residents of Great Britain and the British Colonies, was formal and legalistic and did not include statements on the individual's parentage or previous history. Briefly summarized, the oaths to His Majesty's Person and Government (also designated the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy) entailed a pledge to be faithful to the ruling King of Great Britain (then George II) and a denial of the authority of the Pope or any "foreign prince...or potentate...within this realm." The abjuration oath denied the claims to the English throne by the Catholic Stuart Dynasty, whose rule had ended with the expulsion of James II in 1688; in effect, this oath upheld the claims of the ruling Hanoverian dynasty. The "test" also an anti-catholic measure, was a repudiation of the doctrine of transubstantion. The tests of these oaths may be found in RICHARD BURN's THE JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AND PARISH OFFICES (London, 1764), Vol. 11 pages 165-170.

The above information was furnished by Dr. Louis H. Manarin, State Archivist of the Virginia State Library in reply to my inquiry. I had hoped that John Wetherall might have identified himself in some way in the oaths - but he apparently did not.

Soon after November 18, 1757 (or perhaps sooner) John Wetherall married his second wife, Margaret. His Will states that their daughter Sarah will attain the age of 18 in 1776. Had Lilly been Sarah's mother, she would have inherited an interest in the Wm. Duff land. Sarah was born in 1758.

The above Will is quoted from a book by George Harrison Sanford King, "KING GEORGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA, Will Book A-1, 1721-1752 and Misc. Notes." Mr. King states that "... The CHILDLESS WIDOW of the Rich WILLIAM DUFF, SR." was certain to take exception to its provisions for her.". she did - and a copy of that instrument is included on the following page. I have a copy of the Inventory of the Estate of William Duff, Sr., but will not include it as it is quite lengthy. However, I do quote the following from this record: "The within Inventory is equally divided between Robt Green Exe'r and Elizabeth Duff, widow of Wm. Duff, Dec'd as per Order of Court...AS WITNESS OUR HANDS this 12th day of July 1746 - WM. HARRISON, BENJ STROTHER, WM. WHEALER, HARRY TURNER C C. (It appears that Wm. Duff's Estate totaled 1,092:10:1 3/4 - and I interpret that at 1,092 pounds, etc.)

The Will of Robert Green of St. Mark's Parish in Orange County, Virginia is dated 22 Feb 1747/8 and proven 22 July 1748 in which he states:

By the Will of MY DECEASED UNCLE, WM. DUFF he left unto his wife, Elizabeth,...WILLIAM DUFF of Virginia and JOHN DUFF of the Kingdom of Ireland...Now Wm. Duff being dead WITHOUT MALE ISSUE and JOHN DUFF having as yet not claimed said estate...

October 27, 1746 is the date of Elizabeth Duff's Will in which she mentions her son BENJAMIN RUSH and his three youngest daus, viz ELIZABETH, JANE, ALIS; her granddau CATHERINE RUSH; BENJAMIN RUSH the son of WILLIAM RUSH,dcd; eight of William Rush's children and one of Benjamin Rush's children named as followeth-BENJAMIN RUSH, CRAFFORD RUSH, JOHN RUSH, JAMES RUSH, ELIZABETH MC COLESTER, MARY RUSH formerly so called, ANN and SARAH being the sons and daughters of William Rush and AMEY GRIGSBY being the dau of the said Benjamin Rush. Executors were her grandson, Benjamin Rush and Evan Price, witnesses Wm Robeson, Thos. Robeson and Thomas Macey.

Since Wm. Duff's Will referred to LILLY WHITHERAL (Wetherall), as his "Kinswoman", I have hoped to determine what that kinship was and perhaps find a reference to John Wetherall, her husband. In my attempt to do this, I found this book:

THE BOOK OF THE DUFFS
Compiled by Alistair and Henrietta Tayler
Published in 1914 - Edinburgh, by Wm. Brown, 5 Castle Street (2 volumes).

On Page 592 of Vol. 2, we find the following about the aforementioned William Duff (their source for this information is not given in the book):

"Early in the eighteenth century, a WILLIAM DUFF went to settle in King George County, Virginia, and with him went his sister ELEANOR, married to WILLIAM GREEN, one of the bodyguard of King William III, as shown in the Census of the Officers of the Court, 1693-1694. According to American tradition, William and Eleanor were 'The children of Alexander Macduff of Keithmore, died 1700, and his wife Helen, died 1694, daughter of Alexander, second son of James de Grant of Freuchie.' It is tradition that 'William assumed the name of Duff because his father had been obliged to do so, having been outlawed because of his services with Montrose.' There is, of course, something wrong with the story here, because, though Alexander Duff of Keithmore was outlawed, he did not change his name; moreover HIS son William remained in Scotland and founded the family of the Earls Fife; but William Duff of Virginia may, quite possibly, have been a nephew, son of one of Alexander's younger brothers, or some remoter relative..."

I do not find William Duff of King George County among the brothers and sisters of Alexander Duff of Keithmore-but am showing here this family (of Adam Duff of Clunybeg) for information for future researchers.

"HORNING"

A full description of this ceremony may be of interest.

A person who disobeyed a charge was proclaimed a rebel by "denunciation." Prior to the year 1838 this ACT OF DENUNCIATION was performed by a messenger-at-arms, who proceeded to the Cross of Edinburgh, or to the Market Cross of the head burgh of the county in which the man charged had his residence, and there, in the presence of two witnesses, cried three several "OYEZ'S" with an audible voice, and then read publicly the letters of horning and the execution of charge, and thereafter denounced the offender as a rebel and put him "TO THE HORN," as it was termed, by three blasts of the horn. If the offender was "forth of the kingdom" the denunciation was proclaimed at the Cross of Edinburgh and the pier and shore of Leith. The denunciation was declared null if the letters of horning and the execution were not registered within fifteen days in the Sheriff Court Books of the jurisdiction within which the debtor resided, or in the General Register of Edinburgh.

Denunciation also proceeded against persons cited to the Court of Justiciary on account of crimes: First, when they appeared with more followers than were allowed by the Act of 1555, Secondly, where, in consequence of failure to appear, sentence of fugitation had been pronounced against them. The consequences of a Denunciation were formerly penal.

1. The rebel's "single escheat fell" (that is, his whole moveable effects were forfeited to the Crown), and his liferent escheat fell to the superior, if he remained a year and a day unrelaxed.
2. Prior to 1612, persons denounced, even for a civil debt, might be put to death with impunity.
3. After denunciation, the rebel had no "Persona Standi in Judicio."

But the severity of these penalties was greatly mitigated, first by usage and then by legal enactment.

MAP OF CULPEPER COUNTY, VIRGINIA

This is a portion of a map of Culpeper County, Virginia which was surveyed and drawn by EUGENE M. SCHEEL for the Second National Bank of Culpeper in 1975.

When we were in Culpeper in 1977 doing some research, I had just been to the Court House and found the deed to Margaret Wetherall covering a tract of land on MT. PONY. Someone told me about this map and I was most fortunate to be able to buy one from the bank - and locate Mt. Pony. This map names all the mountains and shows their locations in the county, as well as all cemeteries and graveyards.

Mt. Pony is about 3 miles southeast of the City of Culpeper at Kirtley Rd (Rts 3 and 552) and Mt. Pony Rd. (Rt 658. The Federal Reserve Center is now located on Mt. Pony and we were unable to visit this area because of limited time. This map does not show a Wetherall graveyard on Mt. Pony.

Mt. Pony Church was located 2 miles southeast of Culpeper on Route 3, thence north one mile on a private road, thence 100 feet west in a field. Owner of the site now is Julian Brown. This was the first "Baptist Church" organized in Culpeper County. The building was moved to the city of Culpeper and sold for a dwelling house. A momument marks the spot and bears the following inscription:

"Here stood the Mt. Pony Church
Organized in 1774
Moved to Culpeper 1833 and name changed to CULPEPER BAPTIST CHURCH 1833.

CULPEPER COUNTY, VIRGINIA
Surveyed & drawn by EUGENE M. SCHEEL-1975

MARGARET WETHERALL, Widow of 1-JOHN WETHERALL, DEC'D, apparently remarried soon after John Wetherall died - and she married JAMES LONG. I believe this was a short time before 15 August 1764 as that is the date of the "Indenture" between Charles Carter, Esq. and Margaret Wetherall. On the recorded copy of this instrument is the caption "Carter, Esq. to Wetherall DD to James Long." (Book ___ Pages 510-515, Culpeper County, Virginia, a copy of which is included in this chapter.

James Long died between 28 Aug 1807 and 20 Oct 1807 in Abbeville District, S. C. - a copy of his Will is also included in this chapter and final settlement of his Est is dated 1813.

James and Margaret (Wetherall) Long moved to Abbeville District, S. C. soon after December 1781, as her son, (No. 4-Col John Weatherall) returned to his home in Culpeper County, Virginia near Christmas of 1781, having completed his service in the Revolutionary War. I believe he and his mother and stepfather and perhaps most of the Long Family moved to S. C. together - as we find that he married there on 12 June 1787.

CHILDREN OF MARGARET AND JAMES LONG:
(These are half sisters of our Col. John Weatherall)

i. ELIZABETH LONG, married WILLIAM LONG (her cousin) on 22 August 1787 (See Military Records of No. 4)

On 13 June 1785, No. 2, George Wetherall, in his Will, made reference to "MY GREAT BIBLE, THAT WAS MY FATHER's WHICH IS NOW AT WM. LONG'S" - (it was willed to his son, No. 5 John Wetherall, and your writer wonders where that Bible could be today... Did this Elizabeth and William Long take it to S. C., or did No. 5 John Wetherall get it before they left? IF IT COULD BE FOUND TODAY, IT WOULD SURELY MENTION THE PARENTS OF 1-JOHN WETHERALL AND MAYBE WHEN THEY CAME TO AMERICA.

ii. FRANCES (FRANKEY) LONG, m. WILLIAM HODGES. Their daughter:

(1) LUCY HODGES married ROBERT WARDLAW after 28 August 1807 and before March 1813.

iii. LUCY LONG, married RICHARD ANDERSON

Frankey and Lucy Long married before 28 August 1807, date of their father's Will.

In Deed Book F, 1769-1773, Part 2, Page 512 (of records found in the State Archives of Virginia) is a Deed from James Long and wife, Margaret, to Reuben Long.

In the name of God amen, being in a low state of health but of a sound mind, taking into view the uncertainty of time, do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament, Viz:

I recommend my soul to God who gave it and my body to the dust from whence it was taken to be buried in a decent manner. And as to my worldly substance with which God has been pleased to bless me I make the following distribution.

In the first place - I will that all my just debts be paid out of my estate.

ITEM, I give and bequeath to my granddaughter, Lucy Hodges, one negro girl named CHARITY with her future increase (if any). A negro boy named ISHMAEL, a horse of the value of one hundred dollars. A saddle and bridle, a cow and calf and a bed and furniture. Further, it is my desire that she should live with her grandmother during her life, or as long as she may remain single and be supported out of my estate. Should she marry before the death of her grandmother, the property left her is to be subject to her call. Should she die without lawful issue, the property is to return unto my estate.

ITEM, I lend unto my dearly beloved wife MARGARET LONG all the remainder of my estate both real and personal during her natural life and at her death my will is that my whole estate (exclusive of what is already willed away) be sold and the monies arising from such sale be equally divided between my three daughters.

THE SECOND GENERATION
OF THE
JOHN WETHERALL FAMILY

2-GEORGE WETHERALL[2] was son of 1-John Wetherall and his first wife, Lilly _____. George Wetherall was b. after 24 Mar 1742, d. 1785 (Will dtd 13 June 1785, proven 15 Oct 1785. He m. MILLE BLEDSOE before 27 Dec 1769 (date of her father's will). She was dau of CAPT. WILLIAM BLEDSOE (d. Apr 1770, and his wife, MARY(?)George was a grown man when his father died in 1763.

CHILDREN:

i. ANN WETHERALL

ii. MARY WETHERALL - The 1782 Tax List for Culpeper County, Va., shows that Mary had slaves: Darby, Dick, Lewis, Harry, Lucy, Chloe, Easter, Sig, Indid, Kate, Phoebe, Winnie and Sukey (This information from Mrs. Ira Tranter's Genealogy Records in the Franklin, Indiana, Library.)

5 iii. JOHN WETHERALL

iv. POLLY WETHERALL - m. JOSEPH TOWLES on 16 Feb 1786. Minister was John Price (Bapt.) (From "Notes on Culpeper County, Va., by Phillip Slaughter (Book 1781-1853, p. 87 of Culpeper Co., Va., Bk 1, p. 258.)

2-George Wetherall inherited from his father his father's gun, dictionary, GREAT BIBLE...also his "new wearing cloaths."

ABOUT WILLIAM BLEDSOE:

From "Notes on Culpeper County, Virginia" by Dr. Philip Slaughter, Page 46: "Wm. Bledsoe, Dec 27, 1769: Mary Ch: GEORGE, AARON, MILLE (m. GEORGE WETHERALL), MARY who m. AMBROSE POWELL, JNO, W. M., JAS., HANNAH (M. CAVE) and MOSES. Will proved 19 Apr 1770." - and - "William Bledsoe was the first Sheriff of Spotsylvania County, Va 7/9/1722."

Page 53 of above book: BENJ POWELL 1768, Children: BENJAMIN, JAS., WILLIAM, SARAH, ANN and BETTY MUMFORD. Had brother AMBROSE and Brother in Law, GEORGE WETHERALL", rec. 16 Feb 1769

From "Families from Village Wetherell" by Frank E. Wetherell, Mrs. Ira E. Tranter of Franklin, Ind., wrote: (she quotes from 'Forks of Elkhorn Church', page 79 thereof: 'Wm. Bledsoe came from England 1725.'
She also states that in her research she has found that the marriage of George Wetherall and Mille Bledsoe is not on record in Culpeper County Clerk's office and is not in the Orange County, Va., records. The Forks of the Elkhorn Church is a Baptist Church in Ky. There is a copy of the book "Forks of Elkhorn Church" in the Library at Franklin, Indiana.

You will notice that Mary Bledsoe married Ambrose Powell. For the benefit of anyone researching the POWELL FAMILY, I would refer you to "THE POSEY FAMILY IN AMERICA" by Dr. Loyd Franklin Posey who is an Associate Professor of Education at the University of Southern Mississippi - and BETTY SUE DRAKE POSEY, who is Periodical Librarian at the same University. I have been advised by a fellow researcher that this book refers to a MILLY WEATHERALL POSEY (1826, S. C.) who married in 1869 JACK HAZZARD. Milly was the daughter of PEACHY POWELL b. 1786 Va., d. 1845, Tn., and DANIEL PRICE POSEY. Peachy was the daughter of BENJAMIN AMBROSE POWELL of Culpeper Co., Va (was her mother Mary Bledsoe?) Benjamin Ambrose Powell lived in Laurens County, S. C. ca 1810-1830 and in Lauderdale Co., Tn from ca 1840-1850. The similarity of names is most interesting.

From "Abstracts from the County Court Minute Book of Culpeper County, Va 1763-1764" by A. M. Prichard, Page 9 (Page 278 of the Minute Book): "William EASTHAM and George WETHERALL took oaths as Justices of the Peace ca 17 March 1763". AND Page 308 of said Minute Book: "Ordered that GEORGE WETHERALL, Gent., take the list of Tithables in Brumfield Parish between the Robinson and Hazel Rivers for this year."

(George Wetherall lived in Brumfield Parish, which was formed out of St. Mark's Parish in 1752 and included Madison, Rappahannock and the west corner of Culpeper Counties, Virginia.)

A note in the front of the above book by Mr. Prichard: "Until the summer of 1929, when the County Court Minute Book of 1763 of the County Court of Culpeper County, Va., was discovered in an old residence in Culpeper,Virginia, there were for many years no pre-revolutionary court minute books in the Clerk's office of Culpeper County and this is the only one now available. The first 270 pages of it were missing and the balance was badly mutilated."

From Page 8 of A. M. Prichard's book (Page 276 of the Minute Book): "Motion of George Wetherall showing that his father, John Wetherall, dec'd, bequeathed 400 acres of land to be equally divided between himself and his brother, John, an infant; ordered that NATHANIEL PENDLETON represent the infant..." This book also shows that George Wetherall witnessed Wills in Brumfield Parish, as follows: June 21, 1771 (WILLIAM ROBINSON); Mar 20, 1772 (WILLIAM MARSHALL); Aug 19, 1776 (Inventory of MARSEY THOMAS; Aug 21, 1778 (CHRISTOPHER DICKEN; and June 18, 1778 (JOHN SAMPSON).

   Children by 1st wife:

   (1) HANNAH BLEDSOE, b. ca 1709 Northumberland Co., Va.

   (2) WINIFRED BLEDSOE, b. ca 1712, "

   (3) MILLE BLEDSOE, b. ca 1714? Northumberland Co., Va.? I believe this to be incorrect as she m. GEORGE WETHERALL (See No. 2) and their son JOHN WETHERALL (No. 5) was b. ca 1765. Mille would have been 51 by then and beyond child bearing years. I believe she was b. ca 1742 or later and in Culpeper Co., Va - thus child of the 2nd wife, Elizabeth.

   (4) WILLIAM BLEDSOE, JR., b. ca 1718 in Northumberland County, Va.

   Children by 2nd wife:

"Patrick Henry, a successful lawyer, was elected to the Virginia House of Burgesses in 1765-the Colonial Legislature. In England, Parliament had just imposed the hated Stamp Acts on the Colonies. On his ninth day in the House, he rose and gave a fiery speech. He condemned taxation without representation, defied the power of Parliament, and warned the King that revolution was at hand. His stand proved popular with the people, resolutions were passed strongly condemning the Stamp Acts." (See Culpeper's Protest against the Stamp Act that George Wetherall signed on ensuing pages)

"To the Honorable Francis Fauquier, Esquire, His Majesty's Lieutenant.

Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia. The humble address of the Justices of the Peace of the county of Culpeper.

"Sir: At a time when his majesty's subjects in America are so universally alarmed on account of the late proceedings of the British Parliament, and the enemies of America employed and representing its colonies in an odious light to our most gracious Sovereign and his ministers, by the most ungenerous interpretation of our behavior, we beg leave to take this method to assure your Honor of our inviolable attachment to and affection for, the sacred person of his Majesty, and the whole Royal family.

"And from your Honor's well known candor, and benevolent disposition we are persuaded that we at the same time be permitted to lay before your Honor those reasons which have determined us to resign the Commission of the Peace under which we have sworn to act as magistrates in this county.

"It seems to be the unanimous opinion of the people of America (and a few in England), that the late acts of Parliament by which a stamp duty is imposed upon Americans, and a court of vice-admiralty appointed ultimately to determine all controversies, which may arise, concerning the execution of the said act, is unconstitutional, and a high infringement of our most valuable privileges as British subjects, who, we humbly apprehend, cannot constitutionally be taxed without the consent of our representatives, or our lives and properties be affected in any suit, or criminal causes, whatsoever, without first being tried by our peers.

"And, as the execution of the said act does, in some measure, depend on the county courts, we cannot, if consistent with the duty which we owe our country, be, in the smallest degree, instrumental in enforcing a law which conceives as in itself, shaking at the very foundations of our liberties, and if carried into execution, must render our prosperity unhappy and ourselves contemptible. In the opinion of all men who are the least acquainted with the British constitution, we shall, in that case, no longer be free, but merely the property of those whom we formerly looked upon as our fellow subjects.

"Permit us Sir, to add that we shall hope his Majesty and Parliament will change their measures and suffer us to enjoy our ancient privileges, and if we should incur the displeasures of our Sovereign by thus endeavoring to assert our rights, we should look upon it as one of the greatest misfortunes which could befall us.

"We do heartily and sincerely wish his Majesty a long and happy reign over us, and that there never may be wanting a Prince, of the illustrious House of Hanover, to succeed him in his dominions, that your Honor may continue to enjoy the favor of our Sovereign, long govern the people of this ancient and loyal colony, and that the people may again be happy under your mild and gentle administration as they have formerly been, is what we most devoutly pray for."

3-SARAH WETHERALL[2] (1-John Wetherall)b. 1758, d. _____ married before 29 Nov 1776 JOHN MARSHALL. "MARRIAGES OF SOME VIRGINIA RESIDENTS 1607-1800, Vol. 4, Ser. 1, page 257 shows "John Marshall m. ca 1785 (probably misprint... more likely 1775) Sarah Weatherall; res. Fauquier Co., and Culpeper Co. 29T279." This record was on the pages referring to the MARSHALL Family. Vol 7 on page 197 which refers to the WEATHERALL Family shows that Sarah m. John Marshall. Sarah's mother was MARGARET, John's 2nd wife.

In an instrument in settlement of the Estate of 1-John Wetherall, dated 29 November 1776, recorded in Book B, Pages 195-197, Culpeper County, Virginia, payment for Sarah's part was made to JOHN MARSHALL. Sarah was about 18 at this time and probably already married to John Marshall - it seems to have been the custom to pay the husband for the daughter in these matters.

4-(COL.) JOHN WEATHERALL[2] (1-John Wetherall) b. 28 July 1762, Culpeper County, Virginia. His mother was MARGARET, John's 2nd wife. He died 4 Nov 1824 in Abbeville District, South Carolina. On 12 June 1787 in Abbeville District, S. C. he married ELIZABETH (BETSY) JONES, (by Rev. Robert Hall, Presbyterian Min.), b. 7 Aug 1771, d. 21 Apr 1843, Abbeville District, S. C. Both married only once.

xii. FRANCES EVLINA WEATHERALL, b. 22 Apr 1816, S. C. Probably died in Holmes County, Ms. She was baptised in the Greenville Meeting House (Greenville or Greenvale Presbyterian Church) by Rev. Hugh Dickson. She moved with her brother (9-John Weatherall, Jr.) to Holmes County,Ms. Census Records for 1850 and 1860 for Holmes County, Ms., show her living with his family. In the 1880 Census she is shown with Family No. 74 JOHN SAMPLE family in Enumeration Dist. 2, her occupation, "Help".

It is thought there may have been a son DAVID LESLEY WEATHERALL, but he is not mentioned in the Affidavit by Rev. Hugh Dickson, hereinafter quoted in full. He may have died in infancy.

It is also thought that there was a daughter MARY KYLE WEATHERALL. I have found that there was a MARY (WATT) KYLE, a widow, who was a sister of SAMUEL LESLEY WATT. Thus I have not shown Mary Kyle to have been a daughter of Col John Weatherall.

ELIZABETH (BETSY) JONES was the daughter of CAPT. ADAM CRAIN (OR CRANE) JONES, Capt. Jones d. 1 Sept 1815, S. C., and his wife, CATHERINE CAMPBELL, d. after 1815, S. C. They were married ca 1747. See "THE JONES FAMILY", a portion of this Chapter on The Second Generation of the Wetherall Family.

JOHN WEATHERALL was an infant when his father died. His mother, the widow MARGARET WETHERALL, married JAMES LONG in Virginia soon after she was widowed and MARGARET and JAMES LONG had three daughters - so our ancestor, Col. John Weatherall was raised by his mother and step father. They lived in Culpeper County, Virginia until some time after the Revolutionary War was ended. We do know that Col. John Weatherall married ELIZABETH JONES in Abbeville District, S. C. and that JAMES LONG's will is recorded in Abbeville District.

JOHN WEATHERALL enlisted in the services of the United States in Culpeper County, Virginia in the Fall of 1778 and returned home near Christmas in 1781. He served in the several battles of Cowpens, Guilford Courthouse, Eutaw and Savannah. He returned home on foot to Culpeper County, Va., having left his horse, which belonged to the United States, with proper officers of the Army, having served out his time of enlistment as a private in the Lighthorse or Cavalry. He served under Col.WILLIAM WASHINGTON. His File, No. 11187 is in the Federal Archives in Washington, D. C. (See copies included herein).

JOHN WEATHERALL was first ordained or installed as an Elder in the Greenville (originally Greenvale) Presbyterian Church in 1802. His son, also named John, was an Elder in 1836.

The writer visited the historic Greenvale Presbyterian Church in 1978 and bought copies of the two histories of the church. The first was written by JAMES M. DALLAS in 1925 and it contains two pages of names of members from 1825 to 1860. Among those listed are: J. S. D. WEATHERALL and CORNELIA WEATHERALL (she was Cornelia Murray, see No. 10); SARAH MEANS, AND LUCY ANDERSON. John Weatherall is not listed here, but is shown to have been an Elder and thus also a member. A WILLIAM MEANS is shown as an Elder in 1830...could he have been SARA MARSHALL WEATHERALL MEANS' husband?

The second book "GREENVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, a story of a people 1765-1973" by John H. Leith, mentions the graveyard - research by LEONARDO ANDREA for commemoration of Revolutionary War soldiers in 1952, who found 27 buried at Greenville. John Weatherall is not mentioned here; however, Andrea believed that 75 soldiers were at some time connected with this church and that soldiers named..... Weatherall..., as well as others, were buried in the cemetery.

My personal search in the area did not locate the grave of JOHN WEATHERALL, either in this cemetery or the cemetery for the Town of Hodges.

"GREENWOOD COUNTY SKETCHES, OLD ROADS AND EARLY FAMILIES" by Margaret Watson (The Attic Press, Inc., Box 1156, Greenwood, S. C. 29646) is highly recommended to my readers. The first portion contains stories of the old roads and the folks who lived along them. The rest of the book is devoted to very valuable genealogies of the families who lived in Old 96, or Abbeville District, S. C. Miss Watson has adapted information from a series of 440 newspaper articles "Our Old Roads" written by her father, HARRY LEGARE WATSON that appeared in the Index-Journal, Greenwood Newspaper, from Aug 1940-Feb 1950.

I also recommend "THE COWPENS-GUILFORD COURTHOUSE CAMPAIGN" by Burke Davis - J. B. Lippincott Co., Philadelphia & N. Y. It will be of special interest since COL. JOHN WEATHERALL fought in these battles. You should be able to find it in a Library...check it out and read it and get a better understanding of what our Revolutionary Ancestor went through to give us a "FREE AMERICA" - a better way of life.

The Inventory of JAMES LONG's Estate shows that John Weatherall bought 196 acres of land from the Estate in November, 1809 for $85.00...the land description was not given.

Children of Col. John Weatherall and his wife, Elizabeth (Betsy) Jones were born in Abbeville District of South Carolina where they lived until they began to migrate to Mississippi - and one to Texas.

The writer believes that the REV. HUGH DICKSON was influential in their decision to go to the Pontotoc area of Mississippi. Rev. Dickson was pastor of the GREENVALE (Old GREENVILLE) Church (from 1800 to 1846) where this family were active members. Col. John Weatherall was an Elder in 1800. His son, also named John, was an Elder in 1836.

The Record of OLD MONROE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH which is located south of Pontotoc near Algoma, Mississippi shows that "Monroe Presbyterian Church...was organized June 7, 1823 BY REVEREND MR. HUGH DICKSON of the Presbytery of South Carolina. The book, "OLD MONROE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH AND CEMETERY 1821-1823 by JOHN M. WILSON - and the book "HISTORIC GREENVALE (OLD GREENVILLE)CHURCH" by JAMES M. DALLAS are sources for this information.

Four of the WEATHERALL brothers settled in the Pontotoc Area in the early 1830's. These were 6-GEORGE M. WEATHERALL; 7-DR. MARSHALL WEATHERALL; 8-JAMES L. WEATHERALL; and 9-A ADAM CRANE (OR CRAIN) JONES WEATHERALL.

10-JOSEPH SANDERS DICKSON WEATHERALL went to Jefferson, Marion County, Texas after his mother died and he settled her estate. He must have traveled through Georgia and possibly Alabama as one of his daughters was born in Georgia.

9-A ADAM CRANE JONES WEATHERALL journeyed through Alabama as his membership was transferred from the Palmyra Presbyterian Church near Clayton, Alabama to Old Monroe in 1832.

9-JOHN WEATHERALL moved to Holmes County, Mississippi (after 1836 as he was an Elder in Greenvale Church in that year).

FILE 11187-FEDERAL ARCHIVES
Washington D. C.

On the following pages you will find copies of instruments from File 11187 regarding our Col. John Wetherall.

After his wife, Elizabeth, died - their surviving children applied for "Elizabeth's vested interest" in a pension for his services in the Revolutionary War (it seems that he didn't draw a pension???) Their son, No. 10-Joseph Sanders Dickson Weatherall waged a valient fight to obtain this - unsuccessfully.

Since the photocopies of the original records are so difficult to read even with a magnifying glass, I have typed my interpretation of each instrument which you will find immediately following the copy of each original. There are eight of these:

1. Affidavit by THOS. P. SPIERIU
2. Affidavits by (1) David Lesly and (2) Joseph S. D. Weatherall.
3. Two pages from JOHN WEATHERALL'S BIBLE family record - said to be in his own handwriting...see Rev. Hugh Dickson's attestation on the 2nd page.
4. Affidavit by WM. LONG
5. Affidavit by ELIZABETH LONG - wife of Wm Long (who was her cousin).
6. Affidavit by HUGH DICKSON (pastor of the Greenville (Saluda) Presbyterian Church.
7. Affidavit by JOSEPH S. D. WEATHERALL, Admr. of Elizabeth Wetherall's Estate.
8. JOSEPH S. D. WEATHERALL's reply to The Pension Office upon being advised there was not "Sufficient Evidence" for them to obtain the pension. THIS PARTICULAR INSTRUMENT WAS OBTAINED THROUGH SPECIAL EFFORTS OF No. 196E-LILLIAN (YOUNG)KERR.

Sir,

Tne enclosed papers are in relation to the case of Mrs Elizabeth Weatherall decd - the evidence on file in your office furnished by the oaths of Wm. Long and his lady who are disinterested persons, prove that John Weatherall decd was a Revolutionary Soldier, that he enlisted as a Private in the Cavalry for three years, and that he returned home after the period of his enlistment was ended. One of the enclosed papers sworn to by the Rev. Hugh Dickson a highly respectable Presbyterian Clergyman, are the declarations of John Weatherall decd made in his lifetime which corroborates the evidence of Wm. Long & his wife, who are near relatives but wholly disinterested and know as to the important facts connected with this claim. Moreover these declarations were made by John Weatherall decd, when there was not the remotest possibility that either he or his children would ever become the beneficiaries of his Revolutionary Services. These facts are respectfully brought to your consideration,as you allege in your letter to me that "the rolls in your office do not afford the evidence required to establish the claim." for it was from the rolls in Washington City that the applicant in this case, expected to prove his father's services beyond the possibility of doubt. It appears by the declaration of John Weatherall, decd, that he was under the command of a Col. Temple and subsequently under Col. Washington and Col. Otho Williams. Perhaps these names may furnish a clue to the discovery of the justice and merit of this claim. The family record another paper is also enclosed, it is in the handwriting of John Weatherall, decd, proved by the oath of his son the Admnr and the certificate of the Rev. Hugh Dickson - the certificate also of David Lesly, Judge of the Court of Ordinary is also enclosed showing the date of the death of Mrs. Weatherall, and the names of her surviving children, which facts are also proved by the Admnr Joseph S. D. Weatherall and one of the surviving children.

Yours very respectfully

Thos P. Spieriu

ABBEVILLE DISTRICT) TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN SOUTH CAROLINA) GREETING

I do hereby certify that I became acquainted with Col. John Weatherall, dec'd, in the year one thousand and eight hundred 1800 at that time a member of Greenville Congregation to the pastoral care of which I was called in the course of the year following. Not long afterwards he was elected and ordained a ruling elder in said congregation in which office he officiated to the satisfaction of the people till the time of his death which was in the year 1824. He was my particular friend. As an honest man, a man of truth and a Christian I esteemed him. Such was my respect for his Christian character that officiating as a clergyman of the Presbyterian Order I baptised several of his children. When I came to reside in Abbeville District as Colonel he commanded what was called the Saluda Regiment and was a representative from the District to the Legislature.

As to what transpired in his course during the Revolutionary War, I have no knowledge only as I derived it from his own statements, which I consider entitled to the fullest credit. He stated to me that he enlisted in the Continental Services as a trooper at the age of 16-17 years, attached to the command of a Colonel Temple they had their rendezvous at Manchester, Virginia. The command of Col. Temple owing to some circumstance I do not recollect was dissolved he was then transferred to the command of Col. William Washington under which officer he continued until he (Washington) was taken prisoner at the Battle of the Eutaw Spring - during his continuance with Col. Washington he was engaged in some sanguinary conflicts. He was at the storming of Savannah where the Americans and Frence were repulsed with great loss. He was with Washington at the successful encounter he had with Tarlton at the Rice Fields during the Siege of Charlston. He was at Monks corner when the Americans were surprized by Tarlton. When the Battle of the Cowpens so honorable to the Americans took place he was engaged in escorting Governor Rutledge to Gen^{l} Green's Camp at Hecks Creek - after the junction was formed by the two divisions of Green's Army at Guilford C. House N. Carolina he was attached to the corps of Col Otho Williams formed by Gen^{l} Green for retarding the pursuit of Lord Cornwallis until the former could effect a safe retreat into Virginia. We next find him combating under Gen^{l} Green in the celebrated Battle of Guilford C. House. He then came on to South Carolina, took part in the Battle of Hobkorks Hill - was at the Siege of Cambridge S. Ca and lastly was in the sanguenary Battle of Eutaw Spring where he narrowly escaped with his life. Having served in the Army for the term of three years he returned to Richmond in Virginia where he was discharged. After the revolutionary war was over he moved from Culpepper County, Virginia, the place of his nativity, to Abbeville District S. Carolina where he lived when I first became acquainted with him and where he closed the career of life.

Sir,

I take the liberty to answer a letter of yours which was received by my friend WM THOMAS P. SPIERIU at Abbeville Ct. House dated 15th September 1846, which had reference entirely to my venerable father, JOHN WEATHERALL's services in the revolutionary war between Great Briton & the United States of America, and it appears from your letter that we have not established sufficient testamony to the services of my father to obtain a pension claim. Well now my dear sir, it would be a hard thing for me to raise the dead, to get that testamony that you require, for all of my father's comrads of the war are dead. There were several of them alive a few years ago but they are no more. If Messrs JAMES COLIN & JOHN BUTLER were living, I could send such testamony, that could not be doubted for a moment. I will now sir state some of the circumstances that I heard my father speak of, that took place in the time of the war. I have, when quite a boy, set up and saw the midnight tapes snuffed, listening to my father and four others, of the revolution, telling their war tales, well sir I have heard my father say that he was at the Battles of the Cow Penns, Etau Springs, Guilford Courthouse, Seige of Savanah and Ninety Six, and further my father helped to mout the trunk of that old pine log upon a pair of old wagon wheels when Col. Wm. Washington took Col Rugeby at Clermont near Camden, sir these things are all facts, they are not tales hatched up in falsehood, nor have I made a declaration to obtain a pension without deserving one, and as to the verasity of my father, I could get hundreds of living witnesses to testify too, and as to my own standing in life, I could get testamony sufficient to establish it without a doubt. My father belonged to the Regular Army, he was attached to Col. Wm. Washington's Redgement of Dragoons, and it is a strange circumstance to me that not one of the rolls of that Redgement can be found recorded at Washington. I have heard my father say that his name was recorded at Washington and if the rolls are lost they must have been burnt in time the war of 1812 with England. My dear sir, I desire you to call upon Mr. JOHN C. CALHOUN and ask him who my father JOHN WEATHERALL was, and if he did not believe him to have been a Revolutionary Soldier. I think he would tell you he did, without a moments hesitation (or perhaps I should have said who Col John Weatherall was). Mr. Calhoun and my father were personally acquainted with each other. My father has voted for Mr. Calhoun for representative to Congress and I haven't a doubt but Wm. Calhoun has voted for my father for representative to the Legislature of South Carolina, which place my father filled some 8 or 9 years.

Now sir, I can't for my life conceive how a pension can be withheld from our family and our venerable old father's name kept from being recorded upon the Pension Books of these United States, for I think if there is any family in this glorious Republic that deserves that Honor, ours does. I desire you to write me an answer to this as soon as it is convenient, or to T. P. SPIERIU Esq at A. _ _ _

THE THIRD GENERATION

JOHN WETHERALL FAMILY

5-JOHN WETHERALL[3] (2-George Wetherall; 1-John Wetherall) b. ca 1765, d. _____1802, m. 18 Dec 1788 ELIZABETH CHAPMAN (William Mason was minister), b. ca 1768, dau of WILLIAM CHAPMAN and wife MARY BUFORD (MB1781-1853, p. 93 of Culpeper County, Va). They lived in Madison County, Va., and I believe they were Baptist as the settlement of Elizabeth's Estate shows they paid R. GARNETT $5.00 for preaching her funeral - and records show a number of Baptist preachers in the Garnett Family.

Letters Testamentary were granted Elizabeth as Admnx of John's Estate 25 Nov 1802, Will Book 1, p. 358 - settlement dated __ Jan 1814 Madison County, Va names the children shown below. Elizabeth's Estate was settled 24 May 1850, THOMAS W. CHAPMAN, Adm., rec. Book 9, Pages 188-189 Madison County, Va (see copies on following pages).

The Madison County Court House Lot (surveyed by HENRY WAYLAND 28 Aug 1793) was by Deed dated 26 Sept 1793 deeded to the first Justices of Madison County, Va., appointed by the Governor and taking oaths of office at the May term of court: JAMES BARBOUR; WILLIAM WALKER; ROBERT ALCOCKE; ROBERT BEALE; AMBROSE MEDLEY; JOHN HENSHAW; JEREMIAH KIRTLEY; THOMAS GRAVES and JOHN WETHERALL.

John Wetherall was named by the Court as one of the overseers of roads leading from the Dutch Church to Garr's Mountain and between the North Line and the German Ridge for 1793.

5(i)-MARY BLEDSOE WETHERALL HENSHAW-& THE HENSHAW FAMILY
(By Mr. James H. Henshaw of Rt 1, B. 79, Reva., Va.)

"First, I shall start with my great, great uncle, JOHN HENSHAW, JR., he married MARY BLEDSOE WEATHERALL in 1814. There were no children. They lived less than a mile n. of my place. He d. 30 Dec 1843 and Aunt Polly (Mary) lived to be an old woman. She stayed on at her home alone (except for his and her kin visits) the rest of her life. She was loved and respected by all. I have heard my father and others speak of her - all of the old buildings are gone now except for one old log barn which is in fair shape. They lived on Deep Run on the N. E. side of Madison County, about one mile west of the Culpeper Co., Line. She was reared about seven miles west near Criglersville to the best of my knowledge. "Lud" Weatherall was the last of the family of that name to live in that area. He had a daughter, Betty - she married a FORD (now dec'd) and she now lives in Springfield, Va. Uncle John and Aunt Polly are buried in the old Henshaw family cemetery three miles north of here. My grandfather, Capt. (C.S.A.) JAMES O. HENSHAW, was the last member of the family to be buried there in Dec. 1919. Four generations of Henshaws are buried there on the original home tract of CAPT JOHN HENSHAW and his wife PATTY NEWMAN - Capt. John, of the American Revolution, came from Essex Co., Va. Her father, JAMES NEWMAN, SR., of Orange Co., Va., a planter, gave her the first tract of land as a wedding present about 1780, the year they were married. Their children were SAMUEL: WILLIAM: THOMAS: JOHN, JR.; CAPT. JAMES N. VIRENDA (WIFE OF CAPT. THOMAS DAVIS, JR.) and MARY, wife of CAPT PASCHAL EARLY - RICHARD'S FATHER.

"A few years before John Henshaw, Jr. (Mary B. Wetherall's husband) died, his leg below the knee became infected and went into blood poison and he was near death. In those days medicine and doctors were not very well advanced as of today and not much could be expected; so John, Jr., being so devoted to his wife, did not wish to die and leave her alone, asked his friends and kin to bear with him during his agony and help in his plan to save his life as he felt so hopeful. He being a cabinet maker as well as a farmer, asked that they and his doctor tie himself down on one of his work benches and take his sharp knife and hand saw and cut his leg off below the knee half way between the knee and the infected part so that he may have a chance to survive and live again. He knew that brandy was the only thing of that day that was good for pain and infection and provided it in abundance for this occasion - and once the amputation was begun not to stop until it was over regardless - and they did. He begged and yelled to stop during the operation until he passed out - yet it was successful and he got over it and lived happily with his wife for a number of years afterward.

"Uncle John Henshaw had a niece, ANN HENSHAW that married EDMOND GAINES CHAPMAN in 1837 - also her brother, CAPT. (C.S.A.) EDWIN (NED) H. HENSHAW married MARY VENICA BOHANNON (as her second husband in 1874 - JAMES P. YEAGER was her first husband, m. 1857) was dau of GEORGE MASON BOHANNON and his first wife SARAH ANN GRAVES (m. 1837).

"NOTE: George M. Bohannon m. my grandmother ANN ELIZABETH EARLY (wife of JAMES O. HENSHAW) 's sister - MARTHA VERINDA EARLY, my great aunt) as his third wife in 1874. Martha Verinda Early was niece of EDWIN H. HENSHAW and daughter of his sister PATTY HENSHAW who m. RICHARD EARLY, my great grandfather. Patsy was daughter of SAMUEL HENSHAW and wife FRANCES MORTON TERRELL.

"Uncle John also had a great niece, daughter of FAYETTE HENSHAW that married EDWARD EARLY CHAPMAN 1904. This GEORGE MASON BOHANNON was a brother of EMMA J. BOHANNON the wife of GEORGE WETHERALL, son of JOHN and ELIZABETH (CHAPMAN) WETHERALL."

"All of these people lived in what is now Madison County and were closely united. I live on a part of the old Early Plantation of which came down through inheritance of the Newmans to the Henshaws - then the Earlys and back to the Henshaws. The Newmans bought it from the Henry Field family. They came in 1748 and had a grant. The first house (mansion) burned in a few months after it was built and a second house, built soon afterward, now stands in my yard attached by a patio. The Fields - two generations are buried on a hill nearby) served in the Virginia House of Burgess for many years and one signed the Stamp Act. They were soldiers of fortune as well. They had large holdings of land in Kentucky, received as payment for services in the British Army fighting against the French and Indians, etc.

SOME OF THE HENSHAW FAMILY

Capt. John Henshaw, of the American Revolution, came from Essex County, Virginia, and wife, Patty Newman, daughter of James Newman, Sr., of Orange County, Va., a planter. He gave her the first tract of land as a wedding present about 1780, the year they were married - their children were:

He was in good health - had mounted his horse from the ground the morning before he was burned. James H. writes: "I have fond memories of him - he called me 'little Jimmie." Their son:

      A. W. Henshaw m. Minnie Emiline Hitt 1900 and their son, James Henry Henshaw, Sr. who has furnished this record of the Henshaw family, has seven children living - one is a son named after him, James Henry Henshaw,Jr., and he has a son named James Henry Henshaw III.

Georgia Weatherall
Lollie Weatherall

All of Dr. Marshall Weatherall's children except for Robert Alexander, the youngest, were born in South Carolina, and Robert was born in Mississippi.

Dr. Weatherall received his medical training in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. He practiced in South Carolina and Pontotoc, Mississippi where he came in 1834.

Although there is no gravemarker there, it is believed that Dr. Marshall Weatherall is buried in the Cemetery at Old Monroe Presbyterian Church beside his wife. There are two identical gravemarkers for his wife - both made in England...some believe that one was to have been for him.

I have a copy of a brief 9-page history of the first Presbyterian Church of Pontotoc, Mississippi, written in November, 1935 to commemorate their Centenniel, author unknown. This history records that on June 23, 1838 at a meeting of the citizens interested in building a Presbyterian Church in Pontotoc - which was held at the Court House - DR. WEATHERALL was appointed Chairman of the Committee. This also shows that he acted in the capacity of Trustee of the church in financial matters, and quotes from the Session Book of 1894: "...among the Elders and prominent members was Dr. M. Weatherall."

Marshall Weatherall was on the 1845 and 1859 personal tax rolls for Pontotoc County, Mississippi.

This was the Bible of JOHN THEODORE AND LIZZIE WEATHERALL. Was in the possession of Mary Miller Weatherall Johnson (Mrs. Alonzo Johnson). She gave it to HUB WEATHERALL, now deceased, and is currently (1979) in the possession of Mrs. Velma Weatherall (Hub's widow), who lives in Pontotoc, Miss. Velma graciously allowed George Weatherall and myself, Christine Weatherall Damon, to photocopy the family information from the above Bible.

John Weatherall was born in Virginia in 1762. Fought two years in Rev. War - was Colonel. Married Elizabeth Jones in S. Carolina.

OLD MONROE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
AND CEMETERY 1821-1823
By John M. Wilson

"Father" THOMAS C. STUART was born in South Carolina in 1794, Sept 29. He and his family and other families arrived in Pontotoc County in 1821 and immediately commenced clearing ground for the Monroe Mission, known as "Old Monroe Camp" and began his work of teaching the Natives the rudiments of an education and preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Monroe Presbyterian Church was organized June 7, 1823, BY REVEREND MR. HUGH DICKSON of the Presbytery of South Carolina. (Rev. Hugh Dickson was pastor of Greenville Presbyterian Church in Abbeville District, South Carolina from 1800 to 1847, the church from which Col. John Weatherall's children came to Pontotoc, Mississippi.

The year 1832 must have been a most difficult one for Rev Stuart as it was during this year that the Treaty of Pontotoc was signed--October 22, 1832--which wiped out the Chickasaw land titles in Mississippi and eventuated in their removal to Oklahoma. About one half of the members were Indian at that time.

The original Church was a log building about 16 by 16 feet, with two hinged shutters for windows. As many as 200 people assembled for worship (sometimes as many as 250). The school enrolled something over 100 students and they followed the Lancasterian plan in instruction - the most advanced taught those beginning.

James Hodges, Jr. was the son of JAMES HODGES, SR., b. 1758, d. Aug 6 1828, Abbeville Dist, S. C. and his wife NANCY WARE, b. ca 1768 (Va). She gave her age in 1846 as 78 on April 6, 1846) and states that her father moved from Virginia to Abbeville District, S. C. In her application she refers to Col. William Ware who still lived in Abbeville District and could prove James Hodges service. About two years after the death of her husband she moved to Pickens County, Alabama, in 1830. She made an Affidavit before RANDOLPH MITCHELL, J. P. in Pontotoc County, Ms., then aged about 82 and again on May 21, 1855 at age 87.

The original pages from their psalm book were attached to the original Pension Application, and are to be seen in the files in the Archives in Washington. They were as follows:

His will dtd 27 Feb 1826 names his wife Nancy and ch: Betsy, Martha Weatherall Polly, Nicholas, Ezekiel, Thompson, Reuben, James and Elizabeth Jones. Charter Members of the Walnut Grove Baptist Church in 1826 included JAMES, NANCY & THOMPSON HODGES, and other members of the family were early members. In 1830, church letters were granted to JAMES HODGES and wife, POLLY "being about to remove to Alabama State." Letters were also granted in 1833 to NANCY HODGES, SR., POLLY HODGES & EZEKIEL HODGES who were leaving for Mississippi.

8-JAMES L. WEATHERALL[3] (4-Col. John Weatherall; 1-John Wetherall). b. 18 Sept 1799, Abbeville District, S. C. In May, 1827 he m. FRANCES EVELYN HODGES, b. 7 Mar 1805 S.C. d. after 1892 - vows were exchanged on the front lawn of her parents' (the John Hodges) home. She was dau. of MAJ. JOHN HODGES & FRANCES ANDERSON HODGES (his 2nd wife). See separate record of HODGES FAMILY in this section. Frances Evelyn (Hodges) Weatherall married (2) on 9 Jan 1862 JOHN COLE - and he died ca 3 years later - his Will was recorded 16 May 1866. There is no record of any issue from this marriage. John Cole is buried in the cemetery of Academy Baptist Church (monument inscription shows he died 12 Feb 1865 at age 70.

I have not found exactly when or where James L. and Frances Weatherall died or are buried; however, he probably died soon after 4 April 1851 which is the date of last known transaction from him, which is recorded in Book 7, Page 386, Pontotoc County, Ms., styled James L. Weatherall to McCarver. This thought seems to be supported by Hattie Weatherall Baker King when she wrote:

> "Grandfather died when my father (No. 21 John Hodges Weatherall, b. 12 Nov 1828) was in College." (This is the only record I have found regarding the demise of James L. Weatherall.)

No. 161 (Jerrie Kathryn Taylor Gates, told me that her mother, No. 69-Era Dickson Weatherall Taylor and her twin sister, No. 68-Vera Virginia Weatherall Powell received identical dresses from their grandmother (Frances Weatherall) on their 5th or 6th birthdays - and they were born 7 June 1888, which would seem to indicate that Frances died after about 1893 or a little later.

In a letter mailed 10 Jan 1978, RICHARD SCOTT HODGES of Route 1, Box 288, Hodges, S. C. 29653, wrote that ACCORDING TO THE FAMILY BIBLE Frances E. Hodges' middle name was "EVELYN" (not Evlina, as we had thought - but this could have been her nickname.) He also advised that this Bible showed that the marriage took place at the home of John Hodges in 1827 (in the Spring, exact date not known, but it was in May and "The vows were exchanged on the front lawn."

On the following page you will find a chronological list of Mississippi Records pertaining to this family and their son, No. 24 George Washington Weatherall...and following this are photocopies of most of these county records.

It is unfortunate that the Court House at New Albany, Mississippi burned in the late 1830's - I am sure that many records I need for this family were destroyed in that fire.

You might like to know that No. 20 and No. 24 moved to Arkansas, No. 22 moved to Ellis County, Texas, No. 23 went to Cass County, Texas and No. 21 lived in several areas of Texas, died at Palmer, Texas.

James L. Weatherall was on the 1845 Personal Tax Roll for Pontotoc County, Ms...was not on the 1859 Roll. (From microfilm record found in Archives, Jackson, Ms.)

8-JAMES L. WEATHERALL

Letter from No. 72-William Jay Nelson (husband of Fannie (Frances) Elizabeth Weatherall) to No. 186-Mildred Valentine Forrest - was furnished by Mildred. This is the only record I have that James L. and Frances (Hodges) Weatherall were the parents of No. 24 George Washington Weatherall, other than Census Records. This, however, confirms the Census Records.

Dear Mildred:-

Your aunt Fannie has been ill for some two or three weeks just down in her back and as I am the only one on this place interested in family genealogy and since Jonnie not well too She ask me to write you and say She doesn't know any thing about her people further back than her grand parents Her grand mother Smallwood was a Spear before She married Morten Smallwood They come from N.C. but I have no dates. Her grand mother Weatherall was a Hodges before She married James Weatherall. I ax your uncle T.J. Weatherall could tell you more about the Weatheralls than any one else and your uncle John should have some records as he got his fathers old family bible. I have been working on my family tree for years and have just finished up the Alexander side this winter (my mother was an Alexander) and I have never gotten any records when solicited. But some one would hear of me and what I wanted and write me. I have the Nelsons back to England and the Alexanders back to Scotland and now ready to begin on Fannie's family tree and hope you are interested enough to help me see over when I get your records;

Send them to me and I assure you I will help you all I can for I enjoy this kind of work and I am going to begin with the weather all — Hodges line Fannie was at Enid Okla with Nannie Wheatie and Bonnie last Year for a few days and Nannie told her that Gen Hodges was Second Cousin of theirs. Before Aunt Bettie Smallwood died She could have told us more than any one I know of but She has gone now and you have done just like I did — waited until Every one who was old enough to tell you any thing was gone — I never was interested in family line until my parents were gone. Have heard my mother say that she was related to "Stone-wall" Jackson and Jas K. Polk both by marriage and never did get that information to where I could prove it until this winter. So I got a thrill out of it looking up old bible records and old Tombstone records etc etc etc.
We did think your mother looked well and she enjoyed them a lot. She is always so full of fun & mischief When I told her good bye. I said "Be a good girl" when She said "Why there's no fun in that" I understood it but there were several who heard it who did not understand it. Write us a card and I will help you all I can. Fondly your uncle Jay Nelson

8-JAMES L. WEATHERALL is the subject of this letter from Hattie Ione Weatherall Baker King (No. 60).

My Dear Mrs ; I do appreciate; all of the information you and your Brother have sent; I realy can not tell you much about my ancestors, I was just old enough to become interested in the genealogy of my family until I was in high school, at the age of 15 yrs of age, and Father was ill at that time, so I could not ask him too many questions, that was the year he passed away, apr 1st 1903, it seems grand Father died when most of his children was small, my Father being the oldest child was away in College when my Grand Father died they living on a Plantation, and owned slaves if my Grand Father had any name other than James I never heard it mentioned, but my Grand mother did and I believe it was ~~Frances~~ Francis Erlina ~~Hodges~~ Hodges Weatherall, I never learned my Grand Father Hodges Given name but my Father told me ~~he~~ Great Grand Father Hodges was Black Irish Which were the Royalty of Ireland that he was married twice (his first Wife having died) ~~he was the Father~~ Father (over) of 21 children, and old Negro Mammy

(I feel sure that was Major John Hodges. His will just didn't show his first wife name)

(2) that was Wet Nurse for Hodges Children; was the Mother of 21 Children, She must have been a very Valuable Slave; My Grand Father Weatherall's sister married James Hodges Jr. and one their Son's Turner Hodges reared his family in Bonie TEXAS, When located as his Wife was dead and his Children were married he lived alone, he was my Father's double Cousins he was James Hodges jr Son, I was so small I can't recall his Mothers name But must have been my Grand Father's sister, Polly mentioned in my Great Grand Father Col. John Weatherall's Will: Turner Hodges would have passed for my Father's Identical twin, had a son Joe Hodges Who lived North East of Nocona TEXAS he had a Beautiful Farm home, My Father was Pastor of the 1st Methodist Church, and one of my sister taught music in the Public School; and it was through his son Joe, that Turner found us. My Father once told me that John was a family name, that both his Grand Father and Great Grand Father were named John My Father remembered his own Grand Father, as he was 6 years old When they left S. C. I am sure, We are of the branch

(3) Of Weatheralls. If I did ~~not~~ Know Better, I would think the Signature on Tom John Weatheralls Will was My Fathers, also my youngest brother Jame Thomas ~~th~~ hand Writing was identical; I do Wish you and your brother Lesly, could meet and discuss things personaly, I might Know th a Linck that would help Complete the Chain; its very difficult for me Write I have to steady my right hand with my left hand I dont recognize my own hare hand write, I had a stroke 11 yrs ago just in my right arm and hand, When I had thrombosis of my heart, it isn't noticeable only When I try to write that's Why I blotch my letters so hope you'll be able to read this. My niece typed my letter to you as dictated She or I one made a I could have said ~~[illegible]~~ When I meant Colonel Wish you'd Write me your Bro, address His is in the nursing home, I'd like to send him a card to him; it paralysis is inherited in Weatherall Generation I believe ever one of my aunt Hattie died from strokes, and one or more of uncle Joe's Children died strokes and of Nieces. I have no relatives nearer than Dallas. I sometimes get lonely. Hope to see you some day. With thanks and Best Wishes

Sincerely, Hattie Baker

This is the last "record" I have found for my great grandmother, Frances Evelyn Hodges Weatherall. Note that she has resumed the name Weatherall...after her second husband, John Cole, died.

RECORDS OF BETHESDA CHURCH

Several years ago a Smallwood cousin hand copied some information from these records for Margaret Nelson, which she then passed along to me. Some time later, in an attempt to locate the Session Book, I decided to telephone the pastor of the New Albany, Mississippi Presbyterian Church to ask for his assistance. He wrote later, telling me that he had been unable to locate anything about this. HOWEVER - in the mail next day came a package containing Xerox copies of some of the pages from the Session Book.

Attorney Edgar J. Stephens, Jr., of New Albany, wrote me on October 30, 1982, and told me that Rev. William B. Everett, pastor of the New Albany Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church of which "I am both a member and an Elder" was in his office about two months ago on church business and in the course of conversation he asked if Mr. Stephens had ever heard of the Chickasaw Presbytery or Bethesda Church. HE HAD ASKED THE RIGHT PERSON... Mr. Stephens wrote: "I told him about both the Presbytery and Bethesda Church and showed him the copies I had made of selected pages from the church session records and he was astounded. A friend of mine (Mrs. Browning) has the original session record book which was kept by her great-grandfather, JOHN LEMMONS WILKINS...I copied those pages telling of the organization of the church, receiving certain members and the church roll, among other things.

"...Tallahatchie Institute School House was located just across the street from where the Union County Courthouse now stands. The Chickasaw Presbytery was the only governing Presbyterian body in this area. The group adopted "the form of government of the Presbyterian Church in these United States." I feel sure that this is the body usually referred to as the Southern Presbyterian Church.

"Rev. W. V. Frierson was pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Pontotoc and Rev. Wm. A. Gray was also a pastor, possibly Presbyterian, in the area. The church later erected a church building on top of the hill east of town on the road which is now the street the Court House fronts on. The lot was next to the New Albany Cemetery which was then in its formation stage. When New Albany was burned by Union forces during the Civil War, the church also was destroyed by fire. It was apparently inactive during the war and after peace was established the body moved to a site several miles east of New Albany and a new meeting house was constructed and the name was changed to Mt. ZION. About a mile or so west of Mt. Zion was HOPEWELL ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH (organized March 12, 1851. Mt. Zion did not become a strong church and the members drifted away, most joined Hopewell, others joined Ebenezer. Members of Bethesda Church were buried in the New Albany Cemetery. Mt. Zion is not known to have had a cemetery..."

Mr. Stephens wrote further: "I am of the opinion that you are at liberty to publish the pages of the session records on which the Weatheralls appear since it is an 'ancient document' and is unclaimed by any church body."

Rev. William B. Everett wrote on 11 November 1982: "In regard to your question about reproducing the actual pages of the church record, Mr. Stephens and I feel this would be perfectly acceptable."

We are indeed grateful to Rev. Everett and Mr. Stephens for their most unusual assistance in obtaining this record of Bethesda Church - so precious to have. THANK YOU!

24. June 1843.

A Meeting was held in the Tallahatchie Institute Schoolhouse, according to previous appointment, for the purpose of Organizing a Presbyterian Church. The Rev. E.V. Harrison and Rev. Wm. A. Gray were present.

After Sermon, the attention of the congregation was called, and the following instrument read and adopted.

"We whose names are hereunto annexed, believing that the gospel and its ordinances, are the ordinary means employed by the divine Spirit, for the convincing and converting of sinners; and for the comforting, building up, and establishing of believers. And desiring to enjoy the regular administration of the same, do unite ourselves to - gather as a branch of the Church of Jesus Christ to be called Bethesda. and to be taken under the care of the Chickasaw Presbytery.

And, believing, that the Confession of Faith and the form of Government of the Presbyterian Church, in these United States, are the most Scriptural and Apostolical than any others, we sincerely receive and adopt them as the Rule of our faith and practice.

THE FAMILIES OF
MAJ JOHN HODGES

Major John Hodges was born ca 1765, Essex County, Virginia, died 24 Dec 1834 at Hodges, South Carolina. His Will is recorded in Box 43, Packet 957, Abbeville County, S. C.

Margaret Watson, in her book "GREENWOOD COUNTY SKETCHES" gives quite a lot of information on the Hodges family, as well as the inter related families. Most of the material recorded here is from said book; however, some of it is from DAR Records found in the Library in Greenwood, S. C., and cousins in the various branches.

The Maj. John Hodges home site is believed to have been near the Town of Hodges, S. C., named for his oldest son, George Washington Hodges (the oldest son of John by his second wife, Frances.)

A family legend is that the father of John was a Revolutionary soldier and while he was at home on furlough, his cabin was attacked by indians and he was killed...the Indians captured four Hodges daughters, bound them securely and put them in the cabin which they prepared to burn. However, one of the Indian warriors was attracted to one daughter, Dorothy, and he released her and took her with him. The others perished in the fire. Many years later Dorothy and her Indian son returned for a visit after promising her Indian husband that she would surely return. However, she decided to remain in South Carolina and her son attended school there until his late teens when he returned to Alabama to his father. Dorothy remained and married a Mr. Rosamond and they had children. They lived for a while in Pickens and later went west.

Major John Hodges enlisted 1 April 1780 in the Revolutionary War and served 21 months. He first married ca 1786 MARGARET LONG. We have no dates of birth, marriage or death for Margaret...some of the cousins have entertained the idea that this was the widow of John Wetherall of Culpeper County, Virginia who later married James Long. I have determined that this could not be so, since James Long died after 28 August 1807 date of his will, in which he names his beloved wife, Margaret. You will notice that Maj Hodges' two children by his wife Margaret were born in 1787 and 1790.

By his wife, Margaret, Major John Hodges fathered these children:

1. Lucy Hodges, b. 24 Dec 1787, m. Robert Wardlaw, b. 1778, d. 1812. They had two children:

   (1) Hugh Marshall Wardlaw who m. Eliza Robertson

(2) Elizabeth Ann Wardlaw, b. 1812, married David Robert Caldwell, b. 1811. They had 7 children, moved to Georgia and then to Texas.

2. Reuben Hodges, b. 1 Feb 1790. This is all we know about Reuben.

In November of 1790, Maj. John Hodges married his 2nd wife, FRANCES ANDERSON, b. 1768, Richmond, Virginia, and died 14 March 1844, Hodges, S. C. at age 70 years, 11 mo. and 22 days. Her Estate was administered 19 March 1844, settled Aug 27, 1857, rec. Box 129, Packet 1136 and was distributed to 18. Frances was the mother of the following 17 children:

3. Malinda (Matilda?) Hodges, b. 12 July 1791, m. Mr. Sharp.

We have no definite information about John Weatherall's wife, or wives; but believe there may have been three, and are setting forth the following records which seem to be applicable. Let us consider these three:

(1) ELIZABETH SAMPLE; (2) MARY WALKER; and (3) MARY JONES.

(1) ELIZABETH SAMPLE

Mr. Gordon Ashley, of Lexington, Ms., has among his files on the Sample Family the following Will which indicates that John Weatherall could have married Elizabeth Sample and possibly have been the mother of Frances, John and Sarah who were born in South Carolina.

WILL OF MRS PERMELIA BEASON OR BENSON

"Mrs. Permelia Beason (Benson?) of the County of Holmes and State of Mississippi did ordain and make the following will during her last illness.

1st. It is my wish that all my just debts and burial expenses together with the medical claims against me shall be paid.

2nd. It is also my wish that the balance of my effects shall be equally divided between my two sisters LOUISA CARTER and ELIZABETH WEATHERALL.

3rd. I do appoint my brother, John N. Sample my (unreadable) and do enjoin on him to carry fully this will into execution.

April the 8, 1842.

The State of Mississippi, Holmes County. Personally appeared before me John F. Williams Justice (Judge?) of the Probate Court of said County, James & Mary (J.-I.)Sample who states on oath that Mrs. Beason (Benson) before her death and whilst in her last sickness but in sound mind made known and declared the foregoing in the words aforesaid to be her last will and testament in manner and form as stated above in our hearing.

Record of Wills, Book 1, Pages 37 and 38 Chancery Clerk Office, Lexington, Holmes County, Ms. (There are two books labeled "Will Book I" - one is the Record of Wills and the other is "Record of Transcribed Wills" and the above Will is only indexed in the "Record of Transcribed Wills").

SALLIE E. WEATHERALL, d. 12 Jan 1858 at age 54 is buried in the Franklin Cemetery 5 miles south of Lexington, Ms. Some of the Sample family are also buried here. This shows she was born around 1804 and datewise she could have been John Weatherall's first wife. Was she Sallie E. (Sample) Weatherall?

(2) MARY WALKER

Included herein is a copy of Page 858 of Marriage Book A, Carroll County, Ms. regarding a marriage performed by W. H. Harris, Min on 13 Dec 1848 between MARY WALKER and JOHN WEATHERALL. This may or may not have been this John Weatherall - No. 9. There were other Weatherall families living in Carroll County.

Please refer to the 1850 and 1860 Census records quoted herein for information about wives shown on those dates The 1860 record shows wife Mary, age 39 and was definitely shown that they were married within the year; however, the 1850 shows a wife named Polly (nickname for Mary) and exactly 10 years younger (29) which would seem to indicate they were one and the same. Also notice that Fletcher was 5 months old.

(3) MARY JONES

In his letter of 18 August 1981, Mr. Charles O. Jaap III, in addition to giving me dates for the family, wrote the following record of the family:

"I have definitely heard Emma's mother referred to as having been a Miss Jones from Carroll County, so I have to accept that as fact. I have also heard Emma refer to Fletcher as her only whole brother - WHICH I AM NOT INCLINED TO ACCEPT AS ABSOLUTE FACT. Emma was four years old when her mother died and six when her father died. At nine she was burned badly from her waist to her knees - third degree burns which left her horribly scarred and partially crippled. Unless there is some evidence to the contrary, I am prepared to accept that Joseph and Nancy were taken in and raised by some member of "Miss Jones" family in Carroll County and, due to the turbulance of the times, there was little or no contact - and the trauma of her injury...the pain, morphine addiction (which she kicked at age 14), spending a year in bed and several more years getting a full recovery, she could have forgotten them. On the other hand, they could have been Mary Walker's children, but the time between Emma and Fletcher's births was ample for two more children.

"When the move to Bowling Green occurred, I don't know; but they were living there during the Civil War according to Emma's account of a patrol skirmish that she witnessed. In 1930, Bowling Green was marked only by a store on the road between Durant and Lexington (about like the one at Franklin). In 1967, even the store was gone.

"Malvina Weatherall was 16 when she married John Nance and moved to Texas - see if you can reconcile that with a birth date if she married about 1865 - and remember, these records were in questionable hands for some ten years and many of them were destroyed. Some were replaced from memory after the reconstruction period and some were not. Incidentally, the Haskin document is the only concrete evidence I have discovered to substantiate the existence of Mallie (Malvina) other than my grandmother's word and hearing Hugh Dale mention her."

Dear Brother

I received yours on the 8th inst requesting me to appoint some one to settle with you for me and Evelina. You can act for us as well as any person. Pay the debts of the Estate, then if there by any thing you can write to us. It would cost us some 15 or 20 dollars to send a full Power of Attorney...and I do not feel disposed to pay that much at this time. I tell you Joseph it is hard times here. Notwithstanding the hard times the old and young will marry. We have had a host of marriages all around me. JOHN COLEMAN has bought land joining me. Our county has again become healthy. People are still sick and dying in Pontotoc. I have nothing much interest to write you. We are all well at this time and I hope this letter will find you and family well. I will only add that my little daughter MARY MALVENIA is the prettiest and smartest little creature that you have ever seen. That all.

PONTOTOC COUNTY PIONEERS (Vol II #4, p. 355) by Hazle Boss Neet, shows on the page for Stephen Threlkeld's Bible Records an undated newspaper (not named) clipping:

Her son, John, was born in late 1859 or early 1860 and she was not shown in the 17 Aug 1860 Census Record. So perhaps she died when John was born.

It was through Mrs. CORRINE COLLUMS of Algoma, Ms., and her letters to close friends that we learned that the Palmyra Presbyterian Church was located near Clayton, Alabama.

THE PALMYRA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

"The Palmyra Presbyterian frame church was painted in 1967-1968 and has 1835 on it. It was reactivated then and held services monthly until recently--now inactive again.

Some of the oldest members known to this generation are McCLOUDS, STEWARTS, WOODS, GOODSONS, GILCHRISTS, REAVES.

The church records were destroyed when John Reaves was Elder when the church was being cleaned up.

Talking with some of the oldest members in community... there are no known records of the ADAM CRAIN JONES WEATHERALL FAMILY.

Sorry I can't be of any help."

Sincerely,

J. D. GILCHRIST
RFD 1, Box 62
Clayton, Alabama 36016

THANK YOU MR. GILCHRIST for the above information on this church. I feel sure that this information will be a real "find" to descendants of the above named families.

Among the Elders and prominent members of the First Presbyterian Church of Pontotoc, Ms., is listed ADAM C. J. WEATHERALL (ca 1840).

So, further examination of probate records might reveal more about this family.

"HISTORIC GREENVALE (OLD GREENVILLE) SALUDA PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH" (in Abbeville District, S. C.) by Rev. James M. Dallas shows J. S. D. Weatherall and Cornelia Weatherall as members.

When they came to Jefferson, Texas, their slaves had to go ahead of the wagons and chop trees down one by one so the wagons could move.

J. S. D. Weatherall bought land from NANCY J. JOHNSON by Deed dated 6 Nov 1854, Rec. Vol 1, p. 99, Marion County, Texas, described: "Beginning at a stake on the south boundary of said Survey; thence east along south boundary to JOHN W. TAYLOR's SW/Corner 82½ poles; Thence north to said Taylor's NW/4 253 polls; Thence west to DAVID PORTER SW/Corner 82½ poles; Thence south to the beginning 253 poles. (I believe this was located ca 12 miles west of Jefferson near Lake of The Pines.)

The Webb Cemetery is located 8 or 9 miles west of the City of Jefferson off a dirt road that runs north and south between State Hwy 49 and Farm Rd 729. It cannot be reached by car. This is one of the oldest and largest cemeteries in Marion County; but only a few graves are left with stones. It is located on the old Charles Webb farm and has not been used in this century.

Jefferson was once Texas' largest city and an inland port. Her docks were loaded with products to be shipped to New Orleans by riverboat. Also much timber was cut and hauled overland to the counties to the west... among which was Rockwall County.

THE FOURTH GENERATION
OF THE
JOHN WETHERALL FAMILY

11-GEORGE WETHERALL[4] (5-John Wetherall; 2-George Wetherall; 1-John Wetherall). b. ca 1793, Va. On 30 July 1816 marriage bonds were posted and Tho. Bohannon gave written consent for his dau, EMMA J. BOHANNON to marry George Wetherall. She was b. ca 1796, Va. Copy of p. 264 of MB1, Madison County, Va., included herein.

"A STANDARD HISTORY OF KANSAS AND KANSANS" pub 1918, by WILLIAM E. CONNELLEY, then Sec. of State Historical Soc., Topeka, Kans., contains an interesting record of the Wetherall family...mainly pertaining to No. 210A-CHARLES EDWARD WETHERALL - which also seems to apply to this 11-GEORGE WETHERALL - therefore a portion is quoted:

"Mr. Wetherall (Charles E.) represents an old American family of Irish stock. They came to Virginia in Colonial times. His great grandfather, GEORGE WETHERALL, was born at Madison Court House, Virginia and was a planter and slave owner. His wife, EMMA WETHERALL was also a native of Virginia and died at Madison Court House.

"The grandfather of C. E. Wetherall was A. T. M. WETHERALL (No. 28A) who was born in Virginia in 1821. When he was 9 years of age, his parents removed to OHIO. There were at least six children in the family and the entire household made this removal in a small wagon drawn by one horse. That journey was accomplished with more difficulties and was more momentous in its results to the family than a modern journey from New York to Hong Kong." (More of this article is quoted in 28A, 98A and 210A as it pertains to them. (Furnished by 380E-Roy Edward Wetherall.)

Although it is stated above that "there were at least six children"- I believe they meant six people, based on the 1830 census quoted below:

1830 FEDERAL CENSUS, MADISON COUNTY, VIRGINIA

GEORGE WETHERALL (head of household & counted below)

Males:	1 5-10 years of age
	1 30-40 years of age
Females:	1 under 5 years of age
	2 5-10 years of age
	1 20-30 years of age

From "A HISTORY OF SHENANDOAH COUNTY, VA," by John W. Wayland, Page 283, Chapter XVII "First Citizens of 1833, Ref. is made to "The History of the Valley of Va.," by Samuel Kercheval which lists some of the subscribers, among which is GEORGE H. WETHERALL at Mount Jackson."

Dec. 16, 1850 CENSUS, MADISON COUNTY VIRGINIA, Family No. 748:

William R. Berry	age 32,	Farmer	Born in Va.
Tabathy R. Berry	44		"
Joseph H. Towles	26,	Schoolmaster	"
GEORGE WETHERALL	57,	None	"
EMMA WETHERALL	54		"
FRANCES E. WETHERALL	33		"

SEPT 1, 1860 CENSUS, MADISON COUNTY, VA, FAMILY NO. 528:

Wm. B. Twyman	29,	Farmer	Born in Va.
Sarah Twyman	32		"
GEORGE WETHERALL	68	Gentleman	"

The above 1850 and 1860 Census Records would indicate that George, Emma and daughter Frances E. Wetherall returned from Ohio.

I cannot definitely state that the following family is correct for No. 11-George Wetherall - but based on the foregoing records, it seems possible:

29A
i. ARMSTEAD THOMAS MASON WETHERALL
ii. FRANCES E. WETHERALL, b. ca 1827 ???
iii. SARAH WETHERALL, b. ca 1828 (was she the wife of Wm. B. Twyman? ???

In Administration Records of Estate of SARAH SAXON MC NEES, Laurens County, S. C.: "In 1837 I loaned ISABELLA WEATHERALL a girl, Tilly, 10 years old, afterwards given in trust to Dr. Irby for her."

ISABELLA SAXON WEATHERALL is named as the granddaughter of SARAH MC NEESE in her Will in Laurens County, S. C. in 1846. SARAH MC NEESE was the widow of ROBERT MC NEESE and formerly the widow of CAPT. LEWIS SAXON.

13A-MARTHA WEATHERALL[4] (6-George M. Weatherall; 4-Col John Weatherall; 1-John Wetherall). b. 22 Feb 1819, d. 15 Aug 1899 at age 80 near Red Oak, Texas. on 13 July 1843 she married JAMES H. JONES of South Carolina who died ____, July 1855. He was a Methodist Minister. He delivered his last sermon in Pontotoc, Ms. during which he became ill and upon reaching home after he preached that night, he dropped dead. They had lived at Poplar Springs (1846 when Martha Erntine was born), soon after moving to near Carrollville in Tishomingo County, Ms. After his death, the widow and three children, 1 son and 2 daughters, moved to 3 miles north of Pontotoc. JAMES H. JONES was the son of SAUNDERS JONES who moved from South Carolina to Pontotoc in 1838 and whose other son (and brother to James H.) was ALBERT CRANE JONES. (I wonder if this isn't Adam Crane Jones as the wife of No. 4, Col John Weatherall was Elizabeth Jones, daughter of Capt. Adam Crane or Crain Jones of S. C.)

CHILDREN:

30A i. MARTHA ERNTINE JONES

30B ii. JOHN W. JONES (Married Mrs. Neely Miller and they lived in Nevada, Texas).

iii. BETTIE JONES, m. JOHN T. OWENS. She died 26 Apr 1901 - they lived near Red Oak, Texas.

The following is a newspaper article from THE SENTINEL dated ___16, 1899 (quoted on page 49 of Vol 1, No. 1 of "PONTOTOC COUNTYPIONEERS" by Hazle Boss Neet of Pontotoc.

JAMES H. JONES, son of SAUNDERS JONES, moved from South Carolina to Pontotoc County in 1838. The subject of this notice, James Jones was a brother of Albert Crane Jones of South Carolina and a descendant of a distinguished family that sacrificed much of their ancestral fortunes for the sake of liberty during the revolution. James Jones became a member of the M. E. Church and was a local preacher. He delivered his last sermon in the town of Pontotoc. During the discourse he was taken ill and never recovered from the attack. Both as a citizen and a Christian gentleman he stood high in the estimation of all, and was mourned by a host of friends when he was called to his heavenly home in July, 1855.

His memory still lingers in the hearts of all who knew him and often do we hear his old friends sing his praises, telling of their love and reverence for one so good and noble, saying that he was one of the best and truest men they ever knew. How sweet to recall the family altar, when around the fire-side the Bible was read by the good husband and father. Among his greatest pleasures was the hour devoted each day to a song and prayer service, the remembrance of which is sweet and sacred yet to us, though so many years have passed since them.

In 1842, he married to MISS MARTHA WEATHERALL who had also moved, among the oldest settlers, from South Carolina. After thirteen years of wedded life she was left a widow with three children, a son and two daughters. At the time of my father's death the family was living in Tishomingo County near Carrollville, but soon after moved near Pontotoc. Here my widowed mother spent a busy, useful life, raising her children to habits of industry and preparing them to meet the battles of life.

In 1885, she moved to Texas with her youngest daughter, BETTIE, who several years previously had married J. T. Owens. Her only son John wed Mrs. Neely Miller and they too went to Texas to seek their fortunes. Her oldest daughter, she who pens these lines, married COLUMBUS BALL whose sad and untimely taking away eight years ago, all remember. His widow and six children continue to reside a few miles from Pontotoc.

My mother had a large circle of friends and was held in highest regard as a good and kind neighbor, pleasant and obliging in every possible manner. She was a faithful, humble patient follower of the Lord, loving his Book and the holy lessons taught therein, ever following his commands. Hers was a sunshiney nature and she found a silver lining to all the clouds that came. She believed there was good in every one and tried to think well of all and often cautioned those around her never to speak ill of a friend or neighbor, nor repeat what others would say against them. Among her favorite rules for securing happiness was the practice of the motto: "Do unto others as you would they should do to you."

Many friends back at the old home in Mississippi are left and all will know that half of the good that might be has not been told of my precious, sainted mother. She departed this life near Red Oak, Texas, August 15, 1899, after eight months suffering, at the advanced age of 80 years. It can be truly said of her, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

16-SAMUEL WATT WEATHERALL

Please refer to Family No. 37-John Theodore Weatherall, whose wife was Annie Caroline Thomason, dau. of TURNER THOMASON. Turner's brother, JACKSON THOMASON, kept a most interesting diary of his journey from Pontotoc, Ms., to the California gold fields in 1849, published under the title:

FROM MISSISSIPPI TO CALIFORNIA
Edited by Michael D. Heaston
Pub. by Jenkins Publishing Co.
(Box 2085, Austin, Texas 78768)
Published in 1978.

I shall only touch the high points of their journey - although it is very interesting. You can order a copy of the book from the publisher. The following will allow you to follow their line of travel on a map - and the individuals mentioned may be of interest to other researchers.

1st April 1849 (p. 13) Having joined the CALIFORNIA EXPLORING AND MINING COMPANY FROM PONTOTOC, MS...and having made preparations for the journey, Mr. Thomason departed at 1 O'Clock a.m. on the stage for Memphis, Tn. Others of the Company having left some 3 weeks before, he is to join them in Independence, Missouri. The stage stopped at Dr. Tardys for breakfast (not a very good meal) and then for dinner at Mr. Potts (a better meal - and for 50 cents.) They arrived in Holly Springs, Ms., about sunset. They had breakfast at Mrs. Brettenham's and arrived in Memphis, Tn., around 4 p.m. on Monday.

2nd April 1849 (p. 16) He and S. W. WEATHERALL "WHO STARTED WITH ME FOR THE SAME DESTINATION" made arrangements to take the steamer AUTOCRAT to St. Louis, Mo. Next morning they paid their fare of $8 each and boarded the Autocrat. They were thankful to find only 10 passengers for there was less chance of coming in contact with Cholera - which was "raging to a terrible extent".

Briefly - they sailed up the Mississippi to St. Louis - made it in 40 hours. There they bought a W. S. RIFLE for $13.00. Being delayed in sailing from St. Louis they found they had time to enjoy Dan Rice's Circus as well as have their picture taken (a Degeruitye likeness), etc.

Saturday, 7th April (p. 19) They left the Mississippi and entered the Wisconsin River - arrived in Jefferson City on 8th April and then Booneville about 5 p.m. They left the steamer there and took the stage to Independence, Mo. on 10th April (p. 21) (fare was $5 each.) - fellow travelers were a Mr. TIPTON and J. A. COX from Kentucky.

Wed. April 11 (p. 22) they arrive at 10 a.m. for breakfast in Lexington, Missouri - then went on to Independence, arriving about 10 p.m. where they stayed at the Independence House - poor accomodations - slept on shuck mattreses in the dining room.

Thurs. 12th April (p. 23) After dressing, locating a barber shop and getting clean shaved, and having breakfast they went our to find some of their Company and found there were many going to California. The streets, side walks, alleys and all open spaces were crowded with people buying or selling oxen, mules, bacon, flour, wagons-in fact, every item necessary for the journey. They found some members of their Company and learned they were camped some 2 miles out on the Santafa (Santa Fe) road. Upon reaching the camp they learned that they were all in good health - except that T. HOOPER had died of the Cholera on 5th April near Waynesville, Mo. Mr. Thomason formed a new mess composed of DR. T. H. PAYNE (who became ill and returned home); P. H. TOWNS and his servant CHARLES; K. WILLIAMS; W. A. RAYBOURN; CARR TURNER; F. W. CARR and his servant JOE.

On Sat. 14th April (p. 24) it snowed - but they went to town to see a Masonic procession and heard an address by MR. HAREFORD, an attorney of Independence - brother in law of H. S. FOOTE of Mississippi.

9 May (Wed) p. 29 By 8 a.m. the last wagon rolled out of camp. They made it to Big Blue (creek) that day.

Sat. 12th May (p. 31) he writes: Our Captains W. M. EWEN of our Company; F. MALONE of the Lafayette Co., and THURSTON of the Mo. Co., agreed to take alternate charge of their combined trains. They make from about 14 to 18 miles each day of travel and follow Bull Creek, Wakarusa Creek, and Kansas River.

Wed. 16th May (pages 33 & 34). He writes that since he has a few free hours he will write something about the people in his Company - especially his own Mess. He is acquainted with most of his Company from Pontotoc, Ms.:I. P. CARR, Treasurer; WM. M. EWAN, Capt.; T. H. VAUGHAN, Pres.; J. A. FOMERALT, Secy; W. H. FINLEY; OSBORN; S. G. TURNER; and CHAS. HARRIS; W. N. NESBIT; J. A. PARKS (d. about noon on 4 June 1849 about 28 mi. from Ft. Karney.) The rest of his company except his Mess are: S. B. GOODRICH, two named HARDIN (Martin Hardin named later); WM. DICKSON; H. A. WALTERS; W. C. WRIGHT; R. SISLE; REUBEN SON; LEB MORROW; J. W. PRUDE; D. B. BRAMBLET; three named CUNNINGHAM; C. M. LELAND; two named WEATHERALL (one was S. W.); JAMES H. EDMONDSON; JAS. H. HALL; F. A. LAMB; A. J. HANNA and two named CALLOWAY. His own mess - P. H. TOWNS and boy; CARR E. TURNER; W. H. RAYBURN; K. WILLIAMS; F. W. CARR and boy JOE - all from or near Coffeeville, Ms.

Their journey followed the Big Vermillion River and the Big Blue River and on Thurs 31 May 1849 (p. 41) they came to the Valley of the Platte and from here followed the Platte River several hundred miles...He mentions Dr. White, one of whose daughters plans to marry MR. KERVEN.

Thurs. 7th June (p. 45) They pass the junction of the North and South Forks of the Platte (76 mi from Ft. Karney). June 9 (p. 45) he mentions that MR. GOODWIN of a small Miss. Co., and several of the Pontotoc Co. (Nesbet Towns, Carr Turner and Joe and D. B. Bramblet) are ill with the Cholera. They sent back a few miles for DR. CLEVELAND - the Dr. and his company of 10 men joined their train next day.

Sun 17th June 1849 (p. 50) he writes that he saw a very beautiful lady - a MISS HALL from Mississippi traveling to California,...her, her mother, two other sisters and one brother are in the company of a train from Pleasant Hill, Mo. A handsome lady is a rare object on the plains. I devoted my leisure hours today reading my Bible and thinking of home and those dear to me.

Sun. 24 June (p. 53) they came to Ft. Laramie, then on Tues. 17th July (p. 67) they camped the last time on the Sweet Water River some 4 miles from South Pass (893 mi from Independence, Mo.) They cross the Little Sandy and Big Sandy Rivers and on Sat 21 July (p. 69) we find them at Green River - headwaters of the Colorado.

Fri. 3 Aug (p. 75) they reach Salt Lake City - camp some 12 miles from the city. He goes into the city and locates a boarding house kept by an Englishman named TERPRAND - and contracts to board for 3½ cents per meal for which they had warm rolls, sweet and buttermilk, butter, fresh beef (broiled, roasted and stake),pickles and all kind of vegetables.

Wed. 8th Aug (p. 78) They leave Salt Lake City and follow Webber River some 7t miles to the Bear River.

Sat. 18 Aug (p. 83) they intersect the Ft. Hall Road.

Fri. 24 Aug (p. 86) They reach the Humbolt River, which they follow for some 300 miles...on Thurs 14 Sept (p. 94) they take the Carson River Route to the left and on Sunday Sept 30 they come to Red Lake at foot of Sierra Nevada Mtns. (page 101).

Sun 7 Oct (p.104) They had made it through the mountains & arrived in Weavertown, California - some 60 miles from Sacramento City, Ca. Until 30 July 1850 (p. 119) they prospected for gold in places like "Weaver" "South Fork of the North Fork of American River", Humbug Canyon" "Headwaters of Middle Fork." and on 30 July he returns to Bird Valley "determined to work for small pay or such as I could get, that to make a "pile" as some thought could be done in the mountains in a short time was out of the question and not more than one out of a thousand would be lucky enough to strike such piles." (End of book).

JOSEPH EDWIN WEATHERALL (No. 18) and family moved to Florida in 1884.

Following are newspaper articles sent me by Mrs. Hazle B. Neet of Pontotoc, Ms.:

"March 20, 1902 - Mr. J. Ed Weatherall, formerly of Pontotoc County, died last Thursday. Mr. Weatherall was near 80 and lived in this county most of his life, moving to Florida a number of years ago. He was married to Anne Mallory who is well known and closely related to many around here. Mr. Weatherall is the last of 7 children to answer the summons. Mrs. Jesse Haney, the youngest of the 3 daughters born to this union still lives in the Algoma neighborhood."

"Sept 25, 1902 - Mrs. J. Ed Weatherall nee Anne Mallory was born in Tuscumbia, Ala., March, 1833, but moved to the county when a child. In 1851 she married Mr. Weatherall and lived happily until his death Feb 13, 1902. Nine children were born - 6 still living - 1 son and 5 daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Weatherall moved to Florida in 1884. A telegram was received by her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Haney of Algoma last Friday announding the death of her mother in Plant City, Florida.

Dr. THOMAS V. ALLEN, JR., M. D. of Shreveport, Louisiana sent me the following information from the records of his grandfather, BENJAMIN FRANKLIN JAMISON, on the MALLORY FAMILY.

"THOMAS MALLORY MARRIED AT TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA, MARY BRAMLETT. Their Children:

1. Ann Hasselton Judson Mallory (who m. 16-Joseph Edwin Weatherall)
2. Jeff Mallory, lived at Verona, Ms., father of Janie Mallory of Wash., D. C.
3. Jessie Mallory
4. Fannie Mallory - married Kilpatrick
5. Mary Mallory ("she was Cousin Bird's mother")
6. Eliza Mallory (the Aunty Berry of Blue Mountain College, Ms.)
7. Amanda Mallory (m. Rye or Dye). After his death she m. Mr. Abernethery of Tupelo, Miss.

"Visited in the home of Jeff Mallery at Verona. The Cousin Bird, visited us in Okolona, Miss. I also met Mrs. Abernathy).

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I, JOSEPH EUGENE WEATHERALL, was born at Algoma P. O. Pontotoc Co., Miss. July 18, 1871 A.D. My father, JOSEPH EDWIN WEATHERALL was born in Abbeville District, S. C. April 10, 1825 A. D.

My father told me these facts-which I wish to mention here as follows:

Two brothers named Weatherall came to America landing presumably on the eastern shores and settled in S. C. They were of Scotch Irish descent and of the Presbyterian faith--after some time, one of the brothers left S. C. going northward and his brother never heard of him any more.

My Grandfather's name was Marshall and was known as Dr. Marshall Weatherall, as he was a practicing physician. I don't remember my Grandmother's maiden name, but the name WATT runs through the family - but where it comes from I do not know but it certainly has some significence. In 1835 a Presbyterian minister who had gone into Mississippi among the Chickasaw Indians led a number of these S. C. people into this undeveloped country and settled in and about Pontotoc County out of Pontotoc County, Mississippi.

At what age my Grandfather and Grandmother died and where buried I do not know-but some where near Pontotoc.

My Mother's name was ANN HASELTINE MALLORY - was born at Tuscaloosa, Ala., March 10, 1834. Died Sept 19th, 1902. Father and Mother were both buried in the old cemetery, Palmetto, Florida.

On the following pages you will find a typed copy of the entries in the JOSEPH EDWIN WEATHERALL Bible - and following that copies of the actual pages from that Bible. Cousin Ned Weatherall of Bradenton, Florida has this old Bible and allowed us to Xerox these pages. He also furnished the above record by Joseph Eugene Weatherall and most of the information on the Florida branches of the family.

Bob and I were privileged to visit Ned and his wife, Anna in Bradenton, Florida - and they took us to meet and visit the other cousins in the area

Mrs. Weatherall Dead.

Mrs. Virginia Weatherall died Tuesday night near the hour of 12, and was buried by the side of her husband the following afternoon, Rev. J. M. Batto officiating at the grave.

Mrs. Weatherall was always delicate and for many years was a confirmed invalid, suffering much, although she managed her own business affairs and her home, and was a superior housekeeper. She had a severe attack of la grippe last winter, from which she never fully recovered. The failing was gradual and hardly apparent to those around her. An abcess formed on her lungs which, when it bursted, caused her death. It was unexpected and was a shock to her friends. The summons found her prepared and ready.

Years ago she expressed faith in Christ, but until two months ago had never united with any church. Then she was taken into the Presbyterian church by the present pastor.

Mrs. Weatherall was kind to every body and a great favorite among her neighbors, and no tenant or servant ever had a better mistress and friend than she. Thoughtful, generous and sympathetic, and in all things she tried to do her whole duty.

She was born in Lawrence county, Ala., in the year 1834 and when only a few weeks old came to this country, where she has lived continuously since. In 1852 she, Miss Virginia Threlkeld, was married to Mr. George Weatherall, with whom she lived most happily until August, 1896, when he paid the debt all must pay. To this union was born a son, Frank, who brightened the home only a short time, but his memory was cherished all through the lives of both parents.

Until last autumn, Mrs. Weatherall lived at the home she entered as a bride, a pleasant place on a good farm, three miles west of town; but, acting upon the advice of friends, and she, too, thinking it best, rented the farm out and came to town, buying the Reed property. She had arranged everything comfortably and her friends were glad to think that the evening of her life would be spent among such pleasant environments, none dreaming that the end was so near.

She leaves an only brother, W. S. Threlkeld, of LaFayette Springs, her only near relation, and to him, his children and all who knew and loved "Aunt Virginia," we extend sympathy.

My Aunt Vida, No. 76, told me long ago that No. 21 John Hodges Weatherall was a Methodist Minister in Memphis, Tn. This must have been around 1868 when his son No. 21-ii died in Memphis. He also pastored other churches - rode the circuit. He received his P.H.D. from Harvard University and taught at the University of Mississippi. He taught the 1st "Free" school in Bell County, Texas...near Belton, Texas; could speak several languages. He was also educated for "Old School Presbyterian Ministry". He is said to have come to Mississippi at the age of 6.

Some of his papers have been placed in the Historical Building at Norman, Oklahoma

"HISTORY OF THE NAME"
-WEATHERALL-

THIS IS BY (MRS. R. E.) MARY WEATHERALL) DORSCH.

THE NAME IS VARIOUSLY SPELLED. IT ORIGINATED FROM THE VILLAGE OF WETHERAL COUNTY, CUMBERLAND, ENGLAND. THE POPULATION OF THE PARISH NOW IS ABOUT 3200. RECORDS GO BACK TO 1093 A.D. THE NAME DERIVED FROM NORM-FRENCH, MEANS "A PLACE WHERE SHEEP ARE KEPT." IN 1400 THE FAMILY NAME WAS SPELLED "DE WEDEHALE" OR "DE WEDERHALL." BY 1600, DIFFERENT BRANCHES OF THE FAMILY WERE SPELLING IT, WETHELD, WEATHERALL, WETHERELL, WEATHERILL, ETC.

THE WEATHERALL COAT OF ARMS IS CONFIRMED IN BURKE'S GENERAL AMORY, THE OFFICIAL ROLL OF BRITISH ARMS. IT CONSISTS OF A SILVER SHIELD WITH A RED OR BAND WITH 2 BLACK LIONS SURMOUNTED BY A STEEL HELMET, WHICH INDICATED THE ORIGINAL BEARER WAS A KNIGHT. THE CREST IS A GOLD COMMUNION CUP. THERE IS NO RECORD OF A MOTTO.

OUR WEATHERALL ANCESTORS WERE EARLY SETTLERS OF VIRGINIA. IN THE BOOK "CAVALIERS AND PIONEERS OF VIRGINIA 1623-1800 LAND PATANTS, AND GRANTS, ROBERT WEATHERALL, GETLEMAN, WAS LISTED AS RECEIVING A GRANT OF 1000 ACRES IN JAMES CITY COUNTY. ROBERT WEATHERALL SERVED IN THE HOUSE OF BURGESSES, IN WILLIAMSBURG IN THE YEAR 1645, AND ALSO IN 1652.

MY PERSONAL RESEACHES IN THE ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY COURT HOUSE WHICH IS NEAR WILLIAMSBURG AND JAMES CITY PARISH, LOCATED THERE A NUMBER OF RECORDS OF A WEATHERALL FAMILY. A JOHN WEATHERALL JR. DIED THERE IN 1706. ANOTHER JOHN WEATHERALL WAS LISTED AS AN APPRAISER OF AN ESTATE IN 1710, WILLIAM WEATHERALL'S ESTATE WAS APPRAISED IN 1719, AQUILLA WEATHERALL'S ESTATE, WAS APPRASED IN 1745. I HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO ESTABLISH A LINK BETWEEN THIS FAMILY AND THAT OF OUR ANCESTOR, JOHN WEATHERALL OF CULPEPER CO. V.A. BUT IT IS REASONABLE TO ASSUME THEY WERE RELATED.

In 1935 on his seventy-seventh birthday, he sent LIDA a 129-page manuscript - typewritten account - of his life. Quoted below is a portion of that account...by permission of Mr. Walter L. Jones, a retired professor of English who resides in Ormond Beach, Florida. Mr. Jones is the author of "GROWING UP IN THE FLATWOODS: JACK SMITH'S MEMORIES OF THE 1860s which was published in the JOURNAL OF MISSISSIPPI HISTORY, May, 1980.

"...My paternal grandparents were THOMAS HUNT and MARY TABOR SMITH. my recollection is that my grandfather Smith came from New Jersey when a very young man, at about the close of the War of 1812, in which he served, and settled in what is now Russell County, Alabama, where he met and married my grandmother, whose name was Mary Tabor. My father was the youngest of four children of this union, and born at Russellville, Ala. His brothers and his one sister, were JAMES LAUGHLIN, BURTON LYTTON and SUSAN, remembered by me as Aunt Sue. When my father was a very small boy the family removed to Mississippi, first settling at Smithville in Monroe County, then to Louisville in Winston County where my father spent his youth and young manhood, and, where at the early age of twenty was married to my mother, PERMELIA JEFFRIES, then but fifteen years of age. Girls married quite young in those days. Father had greater advantages of education than most of the boys in those pioneer days. While he never attended an accredited college, he was sent to the best schools then known in that country; one of them, the last he attended, was an academy at Livingston, Ala. He had for that time an excellent business education, was an expert bookkeeper of the old double entry system, and a good mathematician.

"From early manhood up to the beginning of the Civil War, he was engaged in the mercantile business, either for himself or as a bookkeeper and salesman. My mother had very little educational advantages. Had gone to school but very little, and then to the little log school houses taught by uneducated teachers. There were no public schools or examinations for teachers. SHE HAD A TWIN SISTER, and they resembled each other so closely that I remember, as a little child I had some difficulty in telling one from the other, whether it was my mother or AUNT RENIE. She and her twin sister were the youngest of thirteen--eleven girls and two boys. My maternal grandparents were THOMAS and JANE FAGAN JEFFRIES. They were Irish, their parents having come from Ireland before the Revolution. These grandparents were Virginians, and with covered wagons imigrated in the early days. They first stopped in Floyd County, Georgia and my mother was born at Rome, Ga., in 1827. The numerous Jeffries family next removed to Louisville, Winston County, Miss., where my mother met and married my father.

"Shortly after my father's marriage and the birth of my oldest sister, SUSAN, my grandfather Smith, and his children, who were all married and had families of their own, removed to Pontotoc County, and settled in a section of the western portion of the county, known as the "Flatwoods" between the swamps of Lappatubbe and Mud Creek.

"They were all farmers except my father; and he soon took his little family and moved over across Lappatubbee to a place then called Fredonia, which consisted of a log store house, its owner's log residence and a blacksmith shop, and father engaged in business with this store keeper, JACK JONES, the man for whom I was named. And then very soon after my birth he removed with his then growing family, to the village of New Albany, where he was employed in what I suppose was considered a large merchantile establishment. Then war clouds arose over the Southland. The State seceded from the Union; and father became an ardent secessionist. He had been an officer in the old militia and was fairly well drilled in the manual of arms, and began organizing a company for service. Then it was that he removed his family back to the flatwoods, on a place adjoining that of my grandmother Smiths and my Uncle Jim, ensconsed us in a two room log house, with the usual shed rooms or lean-to, built a small log store house, and laid in a stock of goods usually kept in a country store. This he left in charge of my brother-in-law, JOHN H. WEATHERALL, who married my sister Susan about the time of my birth; who was, in addition to being a school teacher, a business man of some little experience....All those "Preparations having been made, my father proceeded with the organization of his company of soldiers, which was known as the 'NEW ALBANY GRAYS.' which was to serve during what they firmly thought to be a very short time--not more than ninety days, when the war would be over and the 'daylights licked out of the Yankees.' Alas, brave men as they were they never dreamed of the long and bloody struggle and the defeat ahead of them.

"My father became Captain of this company, and this company, as best I can remember, or as I was afterward told, was attached to and became a part of the 11th Miss., and were sent to the Army of Northern Virginia, to fight under Lee and Jackson; and were in many of the bloody battles of Virginia for two years or more, then, I think it has been told to me, they were transferred to the Department of Mississippi, when as I remember having been told, they were in the battles of Vicksburg, and were in the siege of Vicksburg. It was during this seige that my father suffered a stroke of paralysis, affecting his entire left side. In some way, I never knew how, the mule drawn army ambulance was allowed to pass through the Union lines, and my father was brought home, a hopeless cripple, and for many months was bedridden. And thus ended his military career as a soldier in the Southern Army. I was then about five years old, and this was the first time within my memory I had ever seen my father...

"...Early in 1879, believing I had sufficient education to teach a country school, I applied for a teacher's certificate to the County Superintendent of Education; and, the nerve of me, I applied for a first grade certificate. The Superintendent, Col. C. S. Robertson, a kindly old man, fully competent, did not examine me personally as he did other teachers, but furnished me with the printed questions and allowed me to take them from his office and fill in the answers at my leisure. Fortunately my brother-in-law, JOHN WEATHERALL, had 'rolled in' from one of his numerous migrations to Texas, a well-educated man and a teacher himself, with his family, were staying at our house, and I secured his experienced help in filling in the answers. The answers seemed to be satisfactory to Col. Robertson, so I was given a first grade certificate and assigned to a school called Piney Grove, just a few miles over across Mud Creek from the scenes of my early childhood in the Flatwoods; and in the neighborhood of the farm of my sister Nannie and her husband, PERRY TODD. So I liked that fine."

(Mr. Jones recently wrote that Andrew Jackson Smith utterly loathed teaching, couldn't wait for that 3-months stint to end, and never taught another day in his long life.)

By 1867 WM. PRESTON SMITH had improved enough to accept a job as bookkeeper with a wholesale grocery firm in Memphis, Tennessee; but a year later they were back in the Flatwoods where he bought a home on several acres of woodland near the Lappatubbee some two miles from the Shady Grove Baptist Church. As he was still partially crippled and he was limited in what he could do on the farm, most of the work of clearing the land and tending the crops fell to his wife and children. He opened a school in the Shady Grove Baptist Church which was in session only two months during the summer between the planting and harvesting seasons. In 1870 Union County, Mississippi was formed from portions of Pontotoc and Tippah Counties, Mississippi and the Wm. Preston Smith home was just within the boundaries of this county. He became a candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court and was elected. Soon afterward, they moved to New Albany.

JACK SMITH became mayor of New Albany in 1885 and was a member of the State Legislature from Monroe County, Ms. from 1895 to 1898. He was a railroad conductor, newspaper editor and insurance adjustor.

See Bible Record written by No. 62 VIRGIL HOMER HELMS on 19 day of July 1884 which shows Harriet Helms' middle name as "Jimison". (No. 60, Hattie Weatherall King Baker shows her as Harriet Evlina Weatherall - but I believe "Jimison" is correct - or actually should be Jameson (or some spelling thereof)...there was a marriage between No. 123, Myrtle Ellen Haney and Benjamin Franklin Jamison and Harriet could have been named for them.

Marriage Book 1 (1858-1867) shows: JAMES A. HELLUMS m. HARRIETT WEATHERALL 17 Sept 1856, bondsmen were JAMES A. HELLUMS and ROBERT who signed "Helms".

The 1850 Federal Census for Tippah County, Ms. shows Harriet J. in the family of James L. and Frances Weatherall.

The 1860 Census shows this family in Lordsville P. O. and the 1870 Census shows this family in Twp 9, both in Pontotoc County, Ms.

J. A. Helms was a Latin Scholar and taught school in Tupelo, Mississippi. They attended the Shiloah Baptist Church in or near Tupelo. During the Civil War they lived in New Orleans, La and came to Texas in 1884, where he taught school. If there was a house close to his job, the family moved there. If not, he would board close by and maybe his boys would work on a farm near his job. They lived at Bethel (or Mustang Creek) about 6 mi. from the Boren Homestead in Ellis County, Texas.

This story is told by No. 441-IDA BOREN WHEATLEY on her grandmother, No. 20 Harriet Jimison Helms: "Grandma Helms was there when No. 66-i Bessie Boren (dau of Mollie and George Boren, was born. They had the old doctor come, of course. On the front porch was a little bed for company and during the ordeal of waiting for Bessie's arrival, Grandma lay down to sleep on this bed. When she woke up, there beside her lay the doctor - fast asleep. He was catching a little shut-eye while he wasn't needed. It made Grandma so -o - o mad she couldn't see straight. She died not too long after Bessie was born in 1889.

He had two children. Carrie died soon after Joe was born. Carrie Frances was named for her grandmother, Frances Hodges Weatherall.

67 ii. JAMES GRANDBERRY WEATHERALL

iii. JOSEPH (JODY) DICKSON WEATHERALL, JR. was b. Linden, Tx, d. at ca 6 or 7 yrs. We base this on Birth Records for Vera and Era which showed there were then 5 children born to their parents. No. 161 Jerrye Taylor Gates says it is thought that James Grandberry might have been a twin. perhaps someone will be able to determine the facts.

68 iv. VERA VIRGINIA WEATHERALL

69 v. ERA DICKSON WEATHERALL

Dr. Walter Daniel Reid's parents were H. J. REID, b. Va and wife, SARAH COTTON.

It is not known just when Joseph Dickson Weatherall came to Texas, presumably from Tippah County, Ms. It is known that he contacted tuberculoses during the Civil War and was hospitalized from Aug to Oct of 1864

He drove HECK GREEN and his family to Texas and assisted in guarding the gold belonging to Heck Green.

Jerrye Gates said: "My grandmother, Mary Caroline Reid Weatherall used to tell us children that Joseph Dickson had to go to Jefferson (Texas) to get supplies and that it was a three-day trip - one day to drive down, one day to get supplies and another day to drive back home... when my Aunt Carrie was 5 or 6 years old, her parents lived in the Caseta Mountains around Douglassville (not really mountains, just good foothills). I think that Walter and Carolyn Reid did also, because Grandmother Mary Caroline Weatherall married Joseph Dickson at Douglasville, (she was the first of the Reid children to be married in Texas). I know her brothers and sisters married into the HARPER and EUBANKS families or in some way they are related.

Texarkana is a Twin City and my mother and Aunt Vera rode in the parade to celebrate Texarkana's 50th birthday in 1923 on the Twins Float. They were identical twins - and I do mean identical...it is difficult for me to identify which is which.

Vera, Era and Uncle Jim had good voices and sang at funerals, weddings, parties and other events. Uncle Jim was witty and I have letters he wrote to mother on the occasion of her marriage. They run in this vein -"I am glad to know you are not going to fill a shirkers grave"- and - "Don't give the preacher your left hand, it ain't legal and won't hold up in court," etc.

My mother and Aunt Vera were small women - 5'2" and weighed about 105 lbs. Mother wore a size 5 glove and size 5 shoe - both loved clothes and high heels. They were expert seamstresses and could make hats and could cut out a dress without a pattern.

My mother said that her grandmother (Frances Weatherall) sent her and Aunt Vera dresses for their 4th or 5th birthsay - and they were born in 1888, so that would be ca 1892 or 1893 and Frances would have been ca 86.

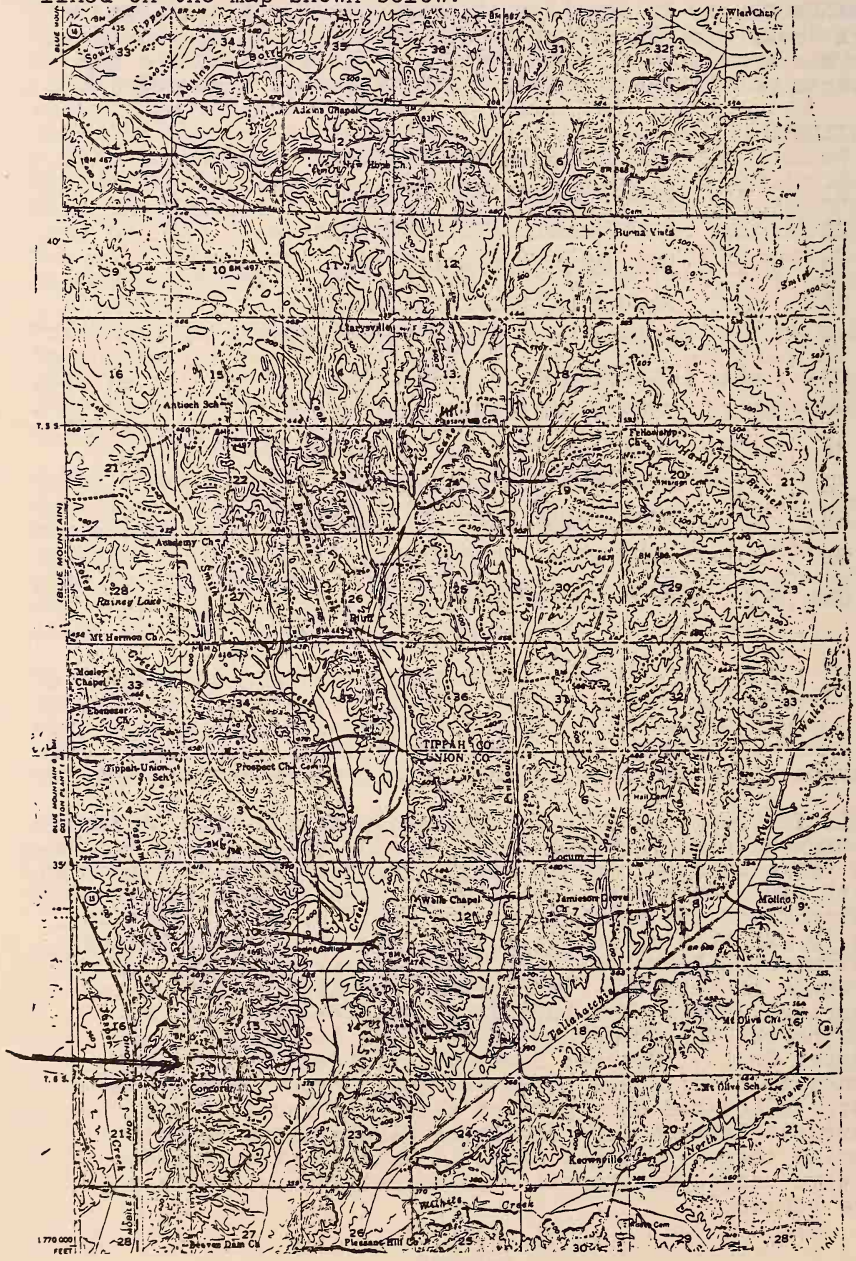
Havana, Arkansas was originally called Greenville, Ark.

This family is said to have lived in Marvinville, Ark, and George Washington Weatherall (No. 24) was a cotton Farmer. He ran away from home at about age 16 because he disagreed with his stepfather - this is what Aunt Vida told me. I later found the marriage record (MB1, p. 314, Tippah Co., Ms. 9 Jan 1862 where his mother, Mrs. Frances E. Weatherall married JOHN COLE. Mr. Cole's will was filed for probate 16 May 1866. There were no children from this marriage. On 15 Feb 1870 F. E. Cole deeded to G. W. Weatherall the SW/Corner of SW/4 Sec 15-T6-R3 (59 ac) Tippah County, Ms, rec Book Y, p. 131 and he sold this tract to E. M. SEALS on 22 Dec 1871. The Concord Cemetery is located on a part of this land and we found Harriett Rebecca Jane Smallwood Weatherall's parents buried there - but not James L. Weatherall or Frances Evelyn Hodges Weatherall - we do not know where they are buried.

THE CONCORD CEMETERY, located on SW/Corner of SW/4 of Section 15-T6-R3, Tippah (Now Union) County, Ms. is outlined on the map shown below:



In reply to my letter inquiring about the Concord Cemetery - and the possibility that some of the Weatherall family were buried there - Mrs. Helen Hill of New Albany wrote the following:

"...about the Concord Cemetery - that has brought back a memory to me of something my father (who died in 1945) told us. He, at one time long ago, was County Road Supervisor. They were constructing the road that I am sure you traveled on your way to the Concord Cemetery. It connected Highway 15 to the old road that runs by the Frazier store just in front of the cemetery. In widening the narrow calf path road that was there and cutting it down to level it, they dug up a skeleton. I remember my father saying that there was a perfect imprint of a box (a burial box) in the side of the bank where they were excavating. They carefully placed the remains in a box and buried it in the Concord Cemetery; so it is most likely that your ancestor is buried there. This all came back to me when you mentioned in your letter that they were possibly buried on the farm. I think that was done back in those days and it is possible there is another or other graves on the place, but I'm sure there is no sign of it on the ground. In fact, they were so surprised in finding the remains when working on the road that I'm sure there was no sign above ground. That is on the land now owned by the Gullets (Alvie Gullett, Route 3, New Albany, Ms. 38652). I never knew Cousin Lige Seals (Elijah M.) but I always knew he had lived there, he sold it to Hugh Wiseman, grandfather of the above mentioned Edgar Stephens...Edgar has a list of all those buried in Concord Cemetery. He is Edgar J. Stephens, Jr."

I wrote to Mr. Stephens to see if James L. Weatherall (or any Weatherall) was on that list and was advised there were none. Mr. Stephens, an attorney in New Albany, was not only helpful in this instance, but also when we were researching the Court House in New Albany.

Harriett Rebecca Jane (Smallwood) Weatherall was the dau of MARTIN CARTER SMALLWOOD, b. 13 Sept 1819, Ga., d. 25 July 1891, Ms. and wife MARTHA ELIZABETH SPEERS, b. 21 Aug 1827, Ga., d. 22 July 1902, Ms. Both are buried in Concord Cemetery. Inscription on her marker reads "Wife of M. C. Smallwood" and his reads "He is at Rest." Becky died ca 1896 - about a year before her husband, leaving him with a family to raise. Aunt Vida (Sarah Vidalia) was still living at home and helped care for the younger children. After G. W. Died, that left the older children to raise the young ones. This is what the 1900 Census for Riley Township, Yell County, Arkansas shows about which older child was caring for which younger brother or sister:

1. No. 71 Emmett was married, had a wife, Nora, a son and a daughter - as well as No. 77 Uncle Jeff (age 18) and No. 81, Uncle Ed (age 9.)

2. No. 74, Uncle Sam, was married, wife was Alice and they had a young son, Earl. They also had his sister No. 79, Aunt Minnie (age 12) and No. 80, Oscar (age 10.)

3. No. 76, Vida and her husband, William Valentine, had a dau, Lillian (age 1) as well as her brother Lee, No. 78, (age 15) and her sister, Agnes (age 5.)

4. No. 70, William (Uncle Doc) and his wife, Sarah, had his brother, No. 75, George (age 23) with them - in Drew County, Arkansas.

5. No. 72, Aunt Fannie and husband, Jay Nelson, had four children of their own and lived in the Ferguson Twp of Yell County. No brothers or sisters with them at that time, but they did help raise some of them.

We visited with LOEVA WEATHERALL, widow of No. 78, Lee Weatherall - and took our tape recorder - for we knew we would not remember all that she could tell us about this family. Here are some of the things she told us:

"Lee always remembered his mother's rice pudding (how I wish I had that recipe). Said his mother was a beautiful and industrious woman.

"THEY WENT TO CHURCH!! - and when they went the whole back end of the wagon had heads sticking up (of the little black headed kids). There had to be a lot of love in this family - the way they took care of each other.

"They lived in Drew County, Arkansas when Harriett Rebeca died. Then he moved the other side of Marvinville. She is buried in Drew County, he at Marvinville. Loeva thinks there was 1/16 Indian blood on the Smallwood side and they would have gotten money if the old chief hadn't died (I have not been able to prove this.)

"After his parents died, Lee lived with his sister, Fannie ...plowed when age 9 - in rocky soil - "skinny little kid plowing with a mule"...Lee went to Sam's later. Other brothers and sisters took the little ones...they had to have a place to stay...little old kids - and with Emmett's own, he had a house full. When Lee was about 8 and Jeff about 10 they would cut wood with a cross cut saw.

"Later - after George, Ed, Oscar, Lee and maybe another brother were old enough they batched to themselves. They raised chickens (and farmed) and they all loved fried chicken, especially the gizzard and always fought over that.

"They spent a lot of time going to and from Mississippi in a covered wagon. One time on their way to Mississippi, it had snowed and they were camped in front of a farmhouse and it was time for the baby to be born. Becky was invited in to have the baby and they camped there about a week until she could travel (which baby was this?)

No. 186A-Edward Lee Valentine wrote in his booklet "THE WEATHERALL FAMILY - One Limb of the Tree":

Our mother (Aunt Vida) told us that he (her father, George Washington Weatherall) was with General Lee at Gettysburg, among other battles, and that he survived the entire war without injury.

He further wrote that while visiting the battleground at Gettysburg in 1958 he was startled to see the C.S.A. marker to the 13th, 17th, 18th and 21st Mississippi Infantry Regiments. "Our mother had told us that our grandfather was with Gen. Lee at Gettysburg - and this marker removed any doubt from my mind. Since Grandfather was in the Cavalry, he was with Gen. Stuart some miles east of Gettysburg at the time of the battle. Now before we finish with the war record of grandfather Weatherall, there was an episode involving one of his brothers who was fighting for the Union Army, about which mother told us. According to the story, the brothers were able to arrange a meeting under cover of darkness. The fact that the brothers were on opposite sides during the war was not unusual, and it is conceivable that somehow brothers could meet under circumstances such as existed during the war between the States. Whether or not this episode took place we, of course, will never know....

"But about our grandfather Weatherall, we do know that he was not one to remain long in one place. From Mississippi through Arkansas, to the Indian Territory of Oklahoma and back to Arkansas the family moved, increasing in size with frequent regularity.

THE SMALLWOOD FAMILY

MARTIN CARTER SMALLWOOD was son of MARK SMALLWOOD, b. ca 1780 Bibb County, Georgia who married MARY MULKEY.

I must admit that I have done no research on the Smallwood family. However, a cousin has sent me some information that she obtained from several Smallwood cousins and I, therefore, record this much of this family history that I feel is accurate.

MARK SMALLWOOD is in the 1850 Federal Census for _____ County, Georgia and is shown as being age 70 and born in Georgia. He (is said to have) married MARY MULKEY, then the Georgia Legislature granted a divorce, requested by Mary, on Dec 12 1804. Mary's will was probated 14 March 1827 in Taliaferro County, Georgia and names children: ELIZABETH, JOHN and LITTLEBERRY JEFFERSON MULKEY. The question has been raised, did Mark Smallwood remarry Mary - or did he marry someone else (perhaps ___Humphries?) At any rate, three of Mark Smallwood's children are:

A. EPSEY R. SMALLWOOD, b. 13 Nov 1816, Ga (probably Fayette County), d. 18 July 1862, Tippah Co., Ms., m. LITTLETON STOKES. Their son WILEY ALLEN STOKES had a grandson HUBERT STOKES who lives in Houston, Tex. WILEY ALLEN STOKES was heard to say that his grandfather was an Humphreys (this could mean that Mark Smallwood married 2nd a Humphreys?)

B. NANCY SMALLWOOD, b. ca 1824 in Georgia married TSCHARNER (CHARNER) STOKES, brother of LITTLETON STOKES.

C. MARTIN CARTER SMALLWOOD, b. 13 Sept 1819, Ga., d. 25 July 1891, Mississippi, m. about 5 Dec 1845 at Pleasant Hill, Talbert County, Ga (by JAMES CARTER, J. P.) MARTHA ELIZABETH SPEARS, b. 21 Aug 1827, Ga., d. 22 July 1902, Ms. Both buried CONCORD CEMETERY, Ms. (Union County).

On 11 Dec 1850 in Fayette County, Georgia No. "C" Martin C. Smallwood, personally appeared before a Justice of the Peace and stated he was age 33, a resident of Tippah Co., Ms., and declared he was identical to MARTIN M. SMALLWOOD a private in Company commanded by Capt. John Still, in expedition engaged in removal of the Cherokee Indians. He volunteered at Fayetteville, Ga., 1 May 1838 for 3 mo. Was honorably discharged New Echota, Ga on 23 June 1838. On 14 Apr 1855 he appeared before JAMES G. STEWART, J. P., Tippah County, Ms., age 36 yrs, res of Tippah Co., and applied for Land Bounty. On 29 Nov 1856, received BLW No. 88825 for 120 acres. He was paid for 1 month and travel 110 miles to place of rendezvous & 110 miles from place of discharge home (disc. at Ross Landing on Tennessee River ca 1 July 1837. See next page for their ch.

Tradition in the George Washington Weatherall, No. 24, family is that we are part Cherokee through the SMALLWOOD line - and in an effort to determine whether this is so... I have done a little research along that line. On the following pages you will find a result of my research so far. The next step would be to order a copy of the DAWES CARD from the Federal Archives in Fort Worth, Texas...but which one?

(October 20, 1877)

LITTLE ROCK — There never was such an opportunity for the man of small means to secure a home in a good country as is now presented on the line of several railroads in Arkansas. This is especially true of the Arkansas Valley, one of the finest regions in the southwest. The Russellville Democrat, in answering a correspondent from Ohio, says:

"The Litle Rock and Fort Smith Railroad Company owns a vast quantity of fine lands which they offer at from $2.50 to $7 per acre and give six years to pay for some. Deeded lands may also be brought from private individuals at about the same figures. There are no prairie lands of any amount in Pope county. The timber is very fine and of almost all varieties. Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Iowa men who have visited our county and located here are well pleased with the country. And we can confidently recommend all who want to secure homes in a new and rapidly developing county to come right along. Don't think this is a wilderness where civilization is yet unknown, for such is far from the case. We have churches, Sunday schools and all the different orders of societies which you can find in Ohio."

Lands such as offered by this company in the counties of Conway, Pope and Johnson at from $2.50 to $7 per acre, would be worth in Ohio, Illinois and Michigan from $25 to $75.

[illegible] of this might have brought Geo. & Rebecca to Ark

24A-EMMA WEATHERALL[4] (9-John (Alexander?) Weatherall; 4-Col John Weatherall; 1-John Wetherall), b. 8 Sept 1851 (see below), Holmes County, Ms., d. 23 Feb 1941. Married 25 Nov 1885 (copy of Marriage Bond included herein) CHARLES OLIVER JAAP, SR. b. 13 July 1857, Ky, d. 8 Oct 1938. His parents were born in Germany. He was a wagon maker and worked for the Love Wagon Company in Durant, Ms.

About Emma's birth year - you will note that the 1870 Census shows her as age 18 at that time and the 1860 Census shows her as age 9 at that time (these census records are included under Family No. 9). The 1900 Census (below) shows she was age 42 at that time and born in 1857 - and the Marriage Bond does not give their ages at that time.

Mr. Charles O. Jaap III wrote on August 18, 1981: (I have definitely heard Emma's mother referred to as having been a Miss Jones from Carroll County, Ms., so have to accept that as fact. I have also heard Emma refer to Fletcher as her only whole brother, which I am not inclined to accept as absolute fact. Emma was four years old when her mother died and six when her father died; at nine she was burned badly from her waist to her knees - third degree burns, which left her horribly scarred and partially crippled. Unless there is some evidence to the contrary, I am prepared to accept that Joseph and Nancy were taken in and raised by some member of Miss Jones' family in Carroll County and, due to the turbulence of the times, there was little or no contact and the trauma of her (Emma) injury, the pain, morphine addiction (which she kicked at age 14), spending a year in bed and several more getting a recovery, she could have forgotten them. On the other hand, they could have been Mary Walker's children - but the time between Emma and Fletcher's births was ample for two more children.

This record also shows that she had had 4 children and 3 were still living. The last three columns show (1) Place this person born,(2) Place father of this person born & Place mother of this person was born. Charles O. Jaap was apparently listed twice in this census as he is shown with Family No. 83 which shows he was born in Ky, his father born in Germany and mother in New York.

25-MARGARET ANN WEATHERALL[4] (10-Joseph Sanders Dickson Weatherall; 4-Col John Weatherall; 1-John Wetherall). Born 19 Oct 1838, S. C., d.17 Jan 1912. On 15 Dec 1858 she married JAMES WILBURN YOUNG, b. 16 Feb 1828, S.C., d. 30 Apr 1910, Dallas, Texas. He was son of SAMUEL F. YOUNG (See record of his YOUNG FAMILY on following pages.)

Margaret Ann was his second wife (first was MARTHA J. BROWNING of Dallas, Tx.) When Margaret Ann and her parents were moving from Abbeville, S. C. to Marion County, Tx, she stayed a while with her MURRAY grandparents in Georgia as they were elderly and she felt that she was needed; but she became homesick and wrote her dad to come for her.

CHILDREN:

i. CLARA YOUNG (mother was Martha J. Browning). She was reared by her Browning grandparents in Dallas and married JIM BARTON.

81A ii. FRANCIS (FANNY) WILBURN (WILLIE) YOUNG

81B iii. ROBA YOUNG

82 iv. LOLAH MONTEZ YOUNG

82A v. JAMES BAILY YOUNG

Clara Young Barton remained in close contact with her father's second family, and Baily Young spoke of his "Sister Clara" as lovingly as of his other sisters. He was named for BAILY BROWNING, uncle of his half-sister, Clara.

James Wilburn Young and Margaret Ann were married in Marion, or Cass, County, Texas. He was a plantation owner in Marion County, formerly part of Cass County,Tx. He served in the Medical Corps in the Confederate Army during the Civil War. Following the Battle of Vicksburg he swam the then mile-wide Mississippi River to escape capture. He moved his family to Dallas, Texas in 1884 where they lived while selecting property to buy at Fate, Rockwall County, Texas. Margaret Ann and James Wilburn owned their home in Dallas, Texas, at the time of their deaths. They are buried in Greenwood Cemetery, Dallas, Texas.

James Wilburn Young settled the Estates of his father and half brother.

The Webb Cemetery is located 8 or 9 miles west of Jefferson, Texas, on a dirt road between Hwy's 49 and 729. It cannot be reached by auto. This is one of the oldest cemeteries in Marion County - and only a few of the graves have stones remaining. Charles Webb bought his plantation from heirs of the Samuel Young Estate, and members of the Webb, Harris, Weatherall and Young families are buried here. The land is now owned by International Paper Company.

I am most grateful for the records of the descendants of MARGARET ANN WEATHERALL and JAMES WILBURN YOUNG which have been given to me so graciously and with so much love for their families by:

THE YOUNG FAMILY

SAMUEL F. (FRANCIS?) YOUNG was born 12 May 1780 in Virginia - and lived in South Carolina - and later in Georgia. He owned plantations in Alabama and Mississippi before coming to Texas in the late 1840's. He went first to Red River County and then to Marion County, Tx. SO ADVISED MRS. IRENE L. HENDERSON, of 128 Thomas Jefferson Drive in San Antonio, Texas.

She further wrote that in her research she found a record of JAMES YOUNG at Abbeville, S. C., with a wife, a daughter and five sons...part of the Carmichael Clan. The name "James Young" is on the"original list of Protestant Immigrants to South Carolina from 1767 to 1773." The South Carolina Pension List of 1820 shows a James Young, Pvt. of the Virginia Line whose home was in South Carolina - and this could be the James Young we are searching for.

In "Deeds of Newberry, South Carolina," Book C, Page 819 there is a record of a Deed from PATRICK CARMICHAEL to JAMES YOUNG dated 29 July 1796. Mrs. Henderson further writes that Patrick Carmichael moved his family from South Carolina to Cometa County, Georgia by ox team in 1831.

Mrs. Henderson wrote later: (September 1, 1975)

"In October, 1933, my mother's oldest sister, then approaching her 74th birthday, wrote down in her own words what she remembered hearing about her mother's and father's families. She apparently had no records, just relied on her memory, and did very well indeed, although in a few instances we found the records differed with her memory.

"Both families were named YOUNG; one grandfather was named SAMUEL LESLIE YOUNG. He settled near Marshall in Harrison County. He and his wife had five daughters who survived to adulthood. The other grandfather was named SAMUEL YOUNG (just plain Samuel). He and his wife had four sons and one daughter; in addition, he had a son by a first marriage who came with him from South Carolina and a daughter who was married and continued to live in South Carolina. SAMUEL LESLIE and his wife were from South Carolina also - he arrived in Texas while it was still a Republic, while SAMUEL came about 1850, and purchased several plots of land and set up a plantation...this was in Cass County at that time, but is now Marion County. Two of Samuel Leslie Young's daughters, my grandmother, SARAH ELIZABETH and her sister, SARILDA AVALINE, married two of SAMUEL YOUNG's sons - JOHN TEAGUE and GEORGE W. It was Sarah Elizabeth and John Teague Young that we were interested in. In listing Samuel Young's sons, my aunt had not mentioned JAMES W., (How strange! for as I looked over records of how he settled the estates of his father and his half-brother, and saw the care with which they, and a sister-in-law were buried, I was very proud of him, and have thought several times how I would have enjoyed knowing him - a man, still young, but carrying out great responsibilities with patience and good taste and a great evidence of a fine character."

I am pleased that Mrs. Henderson gave me permission to quote the above portions of her letters about the Young Family - written in her lovely narrative style - that I am sure you will enjoy reading.

On the following pages you will find a continued genealogical record of this branch of the Young Family which combines information from several sources named herein.

Samuel F. (Francis?) Young died 27 March 1852, in Jefferson, Texas at age 71 years, 10 mos and 15 days and is buried in Webb Cemetery. He married (1) ELEANOR MASON who died in South Carolina. He m. (2) NANCY TEAGUE, b. August, 1800 in S. C. and d. March 1852 at age 52, 7 mo and 14 days in Jefferson, Texas. She is also buried in Webb Cemetery. His plantation in Alabama and Mississippi was divided by the State Line and river. He came to Tex. while it was still a Republic - in ca 1850 and settled in Cass County which is now Marion County.

CHILDREN:

i. DAVID MASON YOUNG (mother was Eleanor Mason) was born 30 March 1808, S. C., died 5 July 1856, Texas, bur. Webb Cemetery. No. 10, J. S. D. Weatherall witnessed his Will (on record), and James Wilburn Young settled his estate. He was not married.

ii. ISABEL ANN YOUNG was born in S. C. (Lawrenceville?). Her mother was Eleanor Mason. She married MATTHEW HENRY and they had a number of children.

29-JOHN W. WETHERALL[5] (12-William H. Wetherall; 5-John Wetherall; 2-George Wetherall; 1-John Wetherall) - he was also called JOHN HARRY WETHERALL or JOHN WILLIAM WETHERALL. b. 22 May 1827, Madison Co., Va. d. 11 May 1889, Huntington (Cabell) West Virginia. Ca 30 Dec 1850 he married JEMIMA A. SMITH, b. 10 June 1826, Richmond, Va. d. 12 Dec 1912, Huntington, W. Va. Both bur. Springhill Cemetery there. 30 Dec 1850 is date of application for their marriage license - as recorded Book 1, Page 291, Madison Co., Va. (There is no Minister's Return for that date in the Courthouse so we cannot determine actual date and place of marriage. Jemima A. Smith was dau of ADAM YAGER SMITH and wife, SARAH JANE COLVIN. She is said to have been the great, great granddaughter of CAPT. JOHN SMITH. She is referred to in various records A., E, M. or Martha. John was a miller and mill owner as well as a "sometimes" carpenter by occupation. He was also a Methodist Minister (per Evelyn (Valentine) Wetherall - wife of 212B-Eldon Wetherall. Included herein is a list of some of the marriages he performed.

We find this family in Madison County, Virginia - and in Greenbrier, Putnam and Cabell Counties, West Virginia. After John died, Jemima lived with her son Leonard until her death.

CHILDREN:

100A i. GABRELLA A. WETHERALL

ii. BENJAMIN F. WETHERALL b. ____April 1854, Greenbrier Co., W. Va (Birth Records Book No. 44A, pages 19 & 30, d. 20 Nov 1880. It is thought that his name was changed to WILLIAM Y. WETHERALL. He may have moved to Missouri and lived in Hannibal and St. Louis. He worked in a power plant...and died of cancer and is buried in Springhill Cemetery.

100B iii. LEONARD HARRY WETHERALL

100C iv. SARAH (SADIE) JANE WETHERALL

v. JOHN HARRY WETHERALL, b. 1862, Putnam Co., Va (now W. Va.) He went west and is thought to have been killed in a range war between ranchers (d. 20 Oct 1880?)

vi. MARY ELIZABETH (MOLLIE) WETHERALL, b. 1866 in Putnam Co., W. Va. d. 6 May 1882 Huntington (Cabbell) W. Va. bur. Spring Hill Cem.

During the last days of the Civil War, John Wetherall took his four slaves across the state line over the Ohio River into Lawrence County, Ohio and there bought a tract of land and gave it to them and set them free.

Most families have "family stories" that are handed down through the generations - some prove to be true - some true in part - and some just can't be proved. I feel that all have a place in the family history though, as future generations will appreciate them and perhaps have a basis for further research.

This, then, is the story related to me by Mr. C. E. Wetherall (No. 381) which he told me in reply to my letter of inquiry in 1977 at the very beginning of a serious research of the records of his ancestors. (This was prior to his untiring research of the records of Virginia and West Virginia as well as in obtaining information from individuals in his family group which has proved some of the story to be inacurate.)

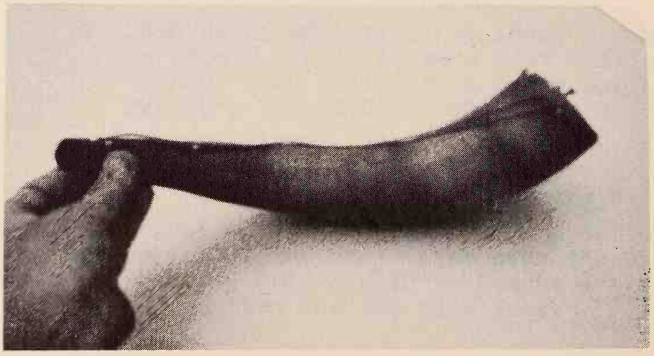
"JOHN HARRY WETHERALL was born 21 May 1821 (proved to be ca 1827) in King Horn, Scotland and he and a brother came to America together. For a while they lived around Richmond, Va., then moved west to Greenbrier County, Va (now West Virginia), where my grandfather, LEONARD HARRY WETHERALL was born 24 Oct 1856. The family then moved to Culpeper, Virginia on a large farm and also operated a mill. I understood that they had slaves. The Civil War disturbed their lives whereby John Harry and Jemima Wetherall and daughter Sarah Wetherall moved to the area of Milton, Va., on Hurricane Creek in Putnam County, West Virginia and built a mill. Another older son of John Harry and Jemima Wetherall went on west. I have no history on this son. The family then sold the mill to the HARSHBARGER FAMILY and moved to Huntington, Cabell Count, West Virginia (around 1875) here they remained until their final days. There are still a few Wetheralls there today."

By Deed dated 30 April 1884, John W. Wetherall bought Lot 63, Range 12 of Springhill Cemetery (8 burial sites) at a cost of $12.80 from the City of Huntington, rec. on Page 138 City Records. The original Deed was recently given to C. E. Wetherall by his cousin, June Wetherall who lives in California. Mollie and William Y. Wetherall were buried herebefore the cemetery was completed. Also buried in Springhill Cemetery Lot 63 are Leonard Harry and Frances S. Wetherall; John W. and Jemima Wetherall; George W. and Sarah Priddy; and Cathy Wetherall Chaffin's infant.

John Wetherall's death is recorded in Book 1 (1853-1903) page 73, Cabell County, W. Va, which shows undertaker Johnson and Emmons, Dr. Mayo, cause of death was gangrene ..born in Virginia and miller by trade. I might repeat here that the Bible Record showed he was born in King Horn, Scotland - however - the original Bible and other family records were destroyed in the great flood of the Ohio River in February, 1937 and family information was re-recorded to the best of recollection by family members.

C. E. Wetherall and his cousin, William Priddy, visited and reminisced about the family stories as told by Leonard H. Wetherall to C. E. and by Sarah J. Wetherall Priddy as told to William Priddy - and here is what they shared with me for the book...so precious to have these written down for future generations:

John W. and Jemima Wetherall left Culpeper, Va., and settled in Greenbriar County, Va (now W. Va.) for a few years, returning to Culpeper at the beginning of the Civil War, where the family had a mill and were landowners with slaves. A "Bullhorn" was used to call the slaves from the fields - which has been in the possession of William Priddy until he recently gave it to C. E. A picture of this is included herein. You will notice that "SWW 1859" is engraved on it.



To continue the stories - during the several battles of the Civil War, Culpeper was held by the northern and southern troops - first one then the other...and when Leonard H. was about eight, he and his father were locked in their chicken house for two days by the " Damn Yankees." It was just such treatment as this, together with the ending of the war which brought the carpetbaggers and trashy followers to the area, and the unbearable conditions under the Union soldiers that caused them to sell out and move to Milton (Cabell) W. Va. Here they built a mill which was sold to the Harshbarger family around 1879. They then moved to Huntington where they built a house and mill, located in the center of downtown. This property was sold for $200.00 after the death of John W. Wetherall. His widow, Jemima, lived with her son, Leonard after that until her death in 1912 in "Old Central City" of Huntington.

The recessions of 1893, 1900, 1914 and 1929 took their toll on Leonard H. as age came on him. The Wetheralls lived the rest of their lives in Huntington - but they never lost their love for Virginia - and the few Wetheralls who live in the area today are well respected as an Old Virginia Family.

Travel to and from Culpeper to Huntington was not too difficult in those days as the C & O Railroad ran daily from Raceland, Ky through Huntington, Milton, Charleston, and Clifton Forge to Richmond, Virginia. Therefore the Wetheralls considered themselves as much "Culpeperans" as "Huntingtonians." This will bear out the many stories of Culpeper.

Consistently shown in these census records is the fact that John W. Wetherall was born in Virginia (not King Horn, Scotland) - but remember that the Census taker could only record what was told him at the time the census was taken. In spite of this, I believe he was born in Virginia.

John W. Wetherall was a Minister, as well as a miller and carpenter - and we find that Rev. John W. Wetherall of Huntington, W. Va., performed many marriage ceremonies which are of record in the "Registers of Marriage" in Cabell County. Here are just a few from the 1889 Register:

29A-ARMSTEAD THOMAS MASON WETHERALL[5] (11-George Wetherall; 5-John Wetherall; 2-George Wetherall; 1-John Wetherall). b. ca 1821, Va., d. ca 1892, Salem, Ill. Married ELIZABETH EMERY, b. Licking Co., Ohio, d. 1861, Douglas Co., Ill. When he was nine (ca 1830) his parents and family came to Ohio in a small wagon, drawn by one horse.

CHILDREN:

i. SARAH WETHERALL, wife of STEVEN GILL, a farmer in Dallas County, Iowa.

ii. BALTUS WETHERALL, b. ca 1848. He was a locomotive engineer with the Frisco RR Co., and lived in Marion County, Ill. The 14 June 1880 Federal Census (pages 12 & 13, ED 122, Salem Township, Marion County, Ill shows he was then age 32, single, b. Ohio, Father b. Virginia, mother b. Ohio and he was a farm laborer boarding with the Jesse O'Brian family (No. 120).

98A iii. HENRY BELL WETHERALL,

The 1870 Census for Marion County, Ill had no Weatheralls.

Wm. E. Connelley in his book "A STANDARD HISTORY OF KANSAS AND KANSANS" wrote the following about this family:

"CHARLES E. WETHERALL has spent most of his life in Kingman, Co., Kansas, and for a number of years has been a merchant and business man at Cunningham. He and his brother own the electric light plant there and this is significant, because Mr. Wetherall has literally and figuratively supplied much of the motive power which has generated business and general development in that locality.

"Mr. Wetherall represents an old American family of Irish stock. They came to Virginia in colonial times. His great grandfather, GEORGE WETHERALL (we are almost positive that this is our No. 11-George Wetherall and wife, Emma Bohannon) was born at Madison Court House, Virginia, and was a planter and slave owner. His wife, EMMA WETHERALL, was also a native of Virginia and died at Madison Court House. The grandfather of C. E. Wetherall was A.T. M. WETHERALL, who was born in Virginia in 1821. When he was nine years of age his parents removed to OHIO. There were at least six children in the family, and the entire household made this removal in a small wagon drawn by one horse. That journey was accomplished with more difficulties and was more momentous in its results to the family than a modern journey from New York to Hong Kong...he afterwards removed to Illinois, was a successful farmer, and finally retired to the Town of Salem, where he died in 1892. He had served as a member of the State Militia, Ohio, and in politics was a Democrat. The maiden name of his wife was ELIZABETH EMERY, who was born in Licking County, Ohio, in 1826 and died in Douglas County, Illinois in 1861. Three of their children are still living: SARAH, wife of STEVEN GILL, a farmer in Dallas County, Iowa; BALTUS, who is a locomotive engineer with the Railway, living in Marion County, Illinois; and HENRY B.

"HENRY B. WETHERALL, father of the Cunningham merchant, was born in Licking County, Ohio March 9, 1850, but was reared and educated at Bement, Illinois, graduating from high school there in 1868. He became a practical farmer in Piatt County, Illinois, but in 1884 brought his family to Kansas and settled in Pratt County, where he preempted 160 acres. He was an industrious farmer and homesteader there for twenty-five years and now owns a half section of land, situated ten miles southwest of Cunningham in Pratt, County. He is living retired in Cunningham, owning a good home on First Street. Politically his actions have always been in line with the Democratic Party. For seven years he was trustee of Valley Township in Pratt County. He was reared a member of the United Brethren Church. Henry B. Wetherall married ELIZABETH BRICKER who was born in Indiana May 22, 1852. They had only two sons - CHARLES E. and A. M., business partners at Cunningham.

CHARLES E. WETHERALL was born in Piatt County, Illinois, March 8, 1874, and was ten years of age when brought to Pratt County, Kansas. He grew up on the old homestead, acquired an education in the rural schools, and remained at home assisting his father in farming operations until he was twenty-five years of age. He then began farming for himself, but in 1901 sought a larger field for his enterprise at Cunningham. Here he bought the general merchandise store of Elder & Simonson. It was a comparatively small business, and was acquired for $6,000. Today it is one of the leading department stores of Kingman County. They occupy floor space of 5,000 square feet with basement of similar size. The store is on Main Street and is conducted under the name of Wetherall Brothers. These brothers also own the electric light plant, which supplies Cunningham with electricity for lighting and power. Mr. Wetherall built a modern home in Cunningham in 1907 and he also owns the building in which the store is conducted. Politically, he is an independent Democrat. He has served as a member of the City Council and has held other town offices, and is Past Noble Grand of Cunningham Lodge No. 431, Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

In 1899 at Pratt, Kansas, Mr. Wetherall married Miss Addie Jenkins, dau of J. C. and LOUISE (HOWALD) JENKINS. Her parents reside at Cunningham, her father being a retired farmer and an old resident of this section of Kansas. Mr. and Mrs. Wetherall have two children, Austin, born in 1901, and Roy, born in 1904...a daughter, Vesta, was b. 4 Nov 1899, d. 5 Feb 1900.

MARTHA ERNTINE JONES BALL

Martha Erntine Jones, daughter of Rev. James H. and Mrs. Martha Weatherall Jones born October 18, 1846 near the Village of Poplar Springs, but when she was quite a child the family moved to Tishomingo county near Carrollsville, now known as Baldwyn, Lee County. Many of our oldest citizens remember her parents well. Her father, a South Carolinian, was a Methodist preacher and delivered his last sermon in this town, falling dead upon arriving home after he preached that night. After his death, the widow and three children, a son and two daughters, moved to this county settling three miles north of Pontotoc where they lived a number of years.

The subject of this sketch was then nine years of age. Since that time she has lived among us - an example of modesty, industry, frugality, energy and perseverance. She learned to be useful and helpful in childhood and never forgot her early training and practice. Indeed, as the years went by her ambition and zeal increased rather than lessened, always, even after overtaken by disease and weakness, preferring occupation to idleness. She loved work and led a useful, purposeful life, filled with interests and desires of lofty ideals and noble aim. Accomplished, indeed a genius with the needle, her services were always in demand and her beautiful work appreciated and admired by the most fastidious.

"Miss Mat," as she was best known among her friends, was married to Mr. Columbus Ball December 17, 1872, a happy union severed by the accidental death of the husband on September 7, 1891. Six children were born to them and, deprived thus early of a father's counsel, the mother was left to rear and guide them alone, a duty she performed well and faithfully, resulting in such achievement that must have caused thanksgiving and praise to flow from the mother's heart, while others observed the successful training with profound admiration and respect. There are no better citizens to be found anywhere than her 3 manly sons, Franklin, George and Jeff W. Ball who are regarded as patterns of morality, temperance and industry, while their sisters, Miss Lena, Mrs. Carro Smith and Mrs. Dolly Hardy, are models of all the qualities that make refined, accomplished women, possessing those traits that go that far toward making happy homes and helping the world to be better and brighter for their being here. All of the group live in this community except the second daughter, Mrs. Smith whose home is in Columbus at present.

Mrs. Ball understood the making of a home both in a practical, substantial way and in the artistic and ornamental. An approach to the home convinced one that a person of taste and skill managed there. Beautiful flowers which she so much loved and delighted to tend, bloomed everywhere, while climbing vines and creepers added to the inviting picture. The dairy, garden, orchard, vineyard, apiary and poultry parks, in evidence bespoke another proof of the wonderful ambition and energy of this good woman, an example highly deserving of imitation by the present and future generations.

Early in life, Mrs. Ball accepted Christ as her own personal Savior and united with the Methodist Church, remaining a faithful member until she went home to receive her reward.

She was one of the charter members of the church at Ecru, organized a year or two ago, contributing generously to its erection, and being much interested in its welfare. It is sad to know she will not worship there again, but a glorious thought consoles us that she has gone where there's never ending service of praise and heavenly joy. Her brother, John W. Jones of Nevada, Texas, survives, the last of the family, their sister dying April 26, 1901 at her home in Texas where she went a few years after her marriage to Mr. John Owen. Mrs. Ball has gone and while she will be cherished through the remaining years as a devoted, faithful friend, appreciated and loved in life and regretted and mourned in death.

Mrs. Nadine (Bass) McDonald writes: "Willie Ann Pollard Weatherall is my husband's great grandmother. She died 7 June 1945, the day my husband (No. 357) Jerry McDonald was born. When I heard this story, it came to my mind 'What a beautiful example of God's wisdom and grace - one generation going to its reward and another generation being born to take up the Cross and move ahead.' - a lovely thought, Nadine.

Willie Ann Pollard, prior to her marriage to Theodore Weatherall, lived with her sister MAGGIE POLLARD, who married her cousin NATHANIEL POLLARD. They all lived in Chester, Mississippi, where Nathaniel's grandfather and Willie Ann's great grandfather operated a horse cotton gin. Nathaniel ran the gin, and Willie Ann, wanting to help out, went out often and walked round and round with the horses. Theodore Weatherall came out and walked around with her while courting.

In a news story in the Choctaw Plaindealer shortly after June 7, 1945, appears the following story: (see next page.)

"We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. Julius Theodore Weatherall, which occurred at the Jackson Infirmary June 7, 1945, after a lingering illness. Willia Annie Pollard was born December 27, 1867, the daughter of William and Mrs. Billie (William Jasper) Pollard, and according to Mississippi Pollards he died just ten minutes after she was born. (This is in conflict with the Pollard Family Bible kept by James Newton Pollard, brother to William Jasper, in which the date of death of William Jasper Pollard is recorded as having taken place November 20, 1867). On May 18, 1884, she was married to J. Theodore Weatherall and eleven children were born to this union. Truly a good woman has gone on to her reward - after a long useful life-well spent. We bow our heads in humble appreciation for the contribution she has made to our family, our country and our state. The hours she spent at the bedside of the sick, the flowers she carried and sent to cheer neighbors and friends can not be numbered. Her presence as a regular attendant of church and her faith, hope and courage, were an inspiration to her pastors. She was a God-fearing, courageous, consecrated Christian - loved and respected by all who knew her. We feel that, like Paul of old, she could say, 'I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.' The profusion of lovely flowers banked around the bier attested the high esteem in which she was held. She was a happy blessed Christian and proved a blessing to others. Funeral services were conducted from the Chester Baptist Church Friday afternoon, June 8, at three o'clock by Rev. I. F. Metts, pastor of Chester Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. Crawford of Van Winkle Baptist Church at Jackson. Interment followed in Chester Cemetery with Lee Funeral Director in charge. She is survived by her husband, J. Theodore Weatherall, six sons, F. C. of Ackerman, W. B. of Eupora, W. T. of Jackson, J. B. of Memphis, P. L. of Indianola, and J. S. of Jackson, and five daughters, Mrs. W. R. Hodges of Winona, Mrs. D. N. Burney of Truman, Ark., Mrs. Jeff Hale of Hattiesburg, Mrs. D. A. Melton of Columbus, and Mrs. Tarrant Edwards of Itta Bena and one sister, Mrs. Maggie Pollard, Mathiston, two half-sisters, Mrs. Mattie Huffman, Sapa, and Mrs. Jennie Bruce of Fentress."

MARRIED.

At the Presbyterian church, Thursday night, Dec., 6th 1888, by Rev. W. V. Filerson, Mr. John T. Weatherall, to Miss Annie Thomason. All of Pontotoc.

Long before the hour appointed for the marriage the house was filled by the beauty, chivalry and elite of our little city—the floral decorations were exquisite and beautiful in the extreme. The beautiful and popular bridal march, by Mendelsshmer was rendered in a manner altogether unsurpassed, by Mrs. N. W. Bradford—nee—Miss Ettura Baskin. The bride, always our favorite—looked more lovely and interesting than ever before, while the manly form of her noble husband, who pronounced the marriage vows, in a manner so audible, impressed every one present with the conviction that—come weal or woe, life or death, he would prove her friend and protector to the end.

The attendants were, Mr. John Brown, and Miss Minnie Thomason; Mr. John Morphis, and Miss Jessie Curl. After the ceremony, and when congratulations had been offered by their numerous friends they retired to the residence of the bride's mother Mrs. Thomason, where a sumptuous luncheon was served in elegant style.

Through the courtesy of GLADYS D. SECORD of Pontotoc, Mississippi, we have this newspaper acount of the marriage of Miss Annie Thomason and Mr. John T. Weatherall (No. 37)

THE OLD THOMASON HOME

Among the early settlers in Pontotoc, Mississippi, was TURNER THOMASON who came from NORTH CAROLINA. In 1837 he purchased property, and from all known records, built a log cabin on Lot 104 in the year 1846. In about 1856 he built an antebellum house on the same lot. Since he was a carpenter by trade, it is assumed that he built his own house. The house was originally one room wide and two rooms long.

The lovely historic antebellum dwelling was acquired in 1973 by MRS. JOHN WILLIAM CARTER and her daughter, and they restored it to its antebellum "spirit." A striking feature is the hand carved ceiling in the living room. In the center of the ceiling is an achantus leaf medallion which is formed of plaster. The architecture of this lovely old home is an adaptation of houses built in England during the Regency Era. The Turner House remains an unique landmark of early day Pontotoc.

NO. 40vii - JIM BARR WEATHERALL

A pall of sorrow was cast over our community Monday morning by a telegram from Starkville announcing the death of James Barr Weatherall, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Weatherall, where the young man was a student of A. & M. College. The shock was all the more severe because very few of our people even knew of his illness, which in fact was of very short duration. He was attacked with pneumonia Friday, and while not considered dangerously ill his father was summonsed to Starkville, and when he reached there "Jim Barr" was thought to be considerably better, but complications arose and death resulted from heart failure Monday morning. The remains were brought home and in the presence of a number of sorrowing relatives and friends were consigned to their last resting place Wednesday afternoon, Rev. R. L. Nicholson conducting the services.

No. 40 MARGARET EMILY (BARR) WEATHERALL
(MRS. WATT ADAMS WEATHERALL)

A BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A lovely courtesy was extended Mrs. Watt Weatherall on the afternoon of April 3rd, when her daughters, Mrs. Kenlock Owen, Mrs. J. K. Fulson and Mrs. Watt Weatherall, Jr., honored her with a tea at the family residence. The occasion was the eighty-third birthday of the silver haired honoree.

Before her marriage sixty-four years ago, Mrs. Weatherall was Miss Maggie Barr, daughter of the late Sam and Lizzie Hodges Barr. She was born and reared in the same neighborhood where she now lives and most of her married life has been spent in her present home, a wedding gift from her parents.

The home, with its broad verandas, its grassy lawn, shaded by giant oaks, its garden fragrant with the choicest spring flowers presented a scene typical of the Old South. A white-haired old negro, Alec Weatherall, who had been a servant of the family for many years, smilingly assisted in parking of cars of arriving guests.

Mrs. Fulson and Mrs. Watt Weatherall, Jr., received the guests and presented them to their mother. For the occasion the honoree wore a lavender crepe with a corsage of sweetheart roses and sweet peas, and the picture she presented as she sat by a wide open fire, surrounded by baskets, vases and pots of flowers, (gifts from admiring friends) was indeed a lovely one and long to be remembered by the eighty-seven visitors who came to congratulate and wish her many more happy birthdays. The scores of handsome and useful gifts silently attested to the love and appreciation of her many friends.

Guests were directed to the dining room by Mrs. Kenlock Owen where they were served an ice course and cake carrying out a color scheme of pink and white. The tea table was draped with an exquisite lace cloth, a wedding gift of Mrs. Weatherall, centered with a bowl of pink roses and lighted by many candles in silver candelabra. It was presided over by Mrs. R. B. Ray and Mrs. R. P. Wilson who were assisted in serving by Mrs. Stewart Weatherall, Mrs. J. H. Anderson, Mrs. Carey Owen, Mrs. W. C. Thompson, Alice Jean and Edith Weatherall, granddaughters of the home, and Margaret Catherine Owen, a great-granddaughter.

The following out-of-town guests were present for this happy birthday celebration: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hall, Mrs. Grace Owen Crum, Miss Daisy Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sage, Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Hill, New Albany; Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Hill, Holly Springs; Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Tucker, Miss Ruth Sage Tucker, Ecru; Mr. Ticer Young, Mr. and Mrs. Kinlock Owen, Mr. J. O. Ramey, Mr. Joe Miller, Oxford; Mr. J. K. Fulson, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Owen and daughter, Catherine, and Mr. Bob Pleasant, Cleveland, and Mrs. Jake Siegel, Baton Rouge, La.

From Volume 1, Number 4 of PONTOTOC COUNTY PIONEERS, by Hazle Boss Neet and Denise Whitehead - Page 312 - per taining to No. 40 WATT ADAMS WEATHERALL:

"Quietly and peacefully as his life had been lived, Mr. W. A. WEATHERALL passed into the Great Beyond, at his home in our northern suburbs, last Saturday morning, April 23, 1932, after a short illness. He was spared the ravages of diseases or a lingering illness, to rack his own body with pain and distress his loved ones, but in the full maturity of years took on immortality as one who had lived well and so died as he had lived. He was in his seventy-eighth year; was born in Pontotoc and spent his entire life here.

Mr. Weatherall was of Revolutionary ancestry. His paternal grandfather was Dr. Marshall Weatherall, son of John Weatherall, a revolutionary soldier of Culpepper County, Va. After graduating from a Philadelphia medical college, Dr. Weatherall was married to Jane Belgan Watt of Abbeville District, South Carolina, in 1818. Their son, the late Capt. John T. Weatherall (father of the subject of this sketch) was born in Abbeville District,(S. C.) in the year 1822. He was educated at the University of South Carolina and attended law school in Lebanon. After locating in Pontotoc in the early settlement, he formed a law partnership with the late Col. Jefferson Wilson, which endured until Capt Weatherall entered the Confederate military service in 1861.

Mr. Weatherall's maternal grandfather was Hon. Stephen Adams, who served in the United States Senate from Mississippi during the years 1851-57. Judge Adams was married to Alpha Leonard in South Carolina, the year 1830. Their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, was born in Winchester, Tenn., March 2, 1832, and married to Capt. John T. Weatherall November 11, 1852. Their son, Watt Adams Weatherall was born Sept 1, 1853.

The subject of this sketch was married to Margaret Emily, daughter of the late Capt. Samuel M. and Elizabeth Hodges Barr, December 13, 1882. After nearly a half a century of devoted and congenial companionship, the bereaved widow survives with two sons, Herbert and W. A., Jr., and two daughters, Mrs. Kinloch Owen of New Albany and Mrs. Susie Fulson of Cleveland, Miss. There are also grandchildren as follows: Alice Jean and Edith Weatherall of Pontotoc, and Carey Owen of New Albany. A great-grandchild is Margaret Catherine Owen of New Albany. Mrs. Mary Weatherall Johnson, sister, is the sole survivor of Mr. Weatherall's immediate family.

The family connection as above outlined were among the very first of our pioneer settlers, and they have been the bone and sinew of our town and county throughout their their history. In religion the deceased was old-fashion "Blue stocking" Presbyterian, and members of his family were founders of the faith in this section. In politics he was a straight-laced out-and-out Democrat and did his part, along with his contemporaries to redeem his county and State from radical rule in the dark days of Reconstruction. The late Col. H. D. Money recognized his party loyalty, as well as ability, by recommending his appointment as postmaster at Pontotoc during President Cleveland's second administration. He served in this office for two terms, or eight years. After his retirement, he became a member of the firm Johnston-Fontaine & Co., in the drug business, and later conducted a family grocery, until becoming tired of the exactions of business, he retired to the comfort and privacy of his home and little farm, where his genial disposition and happy nature could not be perturbed by the strife and turmoil of a busy world. Here as a wit and philosopher, a neighbor and citizen, friend and councellor, husband and father, with few faults, many virtues and no vices, he calmly, contentedly "lived in his house by the side of the road and watched the world go by."

Funeral services were conducted from the family residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. R. W. Hardy, assisted by Rev. W. N. Dodds, Methodist pastor, and the Presbyterian pastor at New Albany. A large concourse of our people were present from our own and neighboring cities, to attest the esteem in which the deceased and his family were held. Immediately after the services, interment followed in the family lot in the city cemetery.

In her later years, she lived with her son, Bob and his wife Mandy (Weatherall) Boren (No. 58 - but she visited all the others for a couple of months at a time. She was a little hard of hearing, but could hear if you whispered. She loved to have something special set aside for her at mealtime.

From "HISTORY OF MILAM COUNTY, TEXAS" by Lelia M. Batte, page 46,we have this information - In 1840, Milam County was enlarged by the addition of all that portion of Washington County lying north of Yegua Creek - and commissioners were appointed to select a site for the new county seat - who were unsuccessful. Then Congress passed a bill authorizing Milam County to condemn 320 acres for its seat. This Act appointed JAMES ADDISON, MICHAEL BOREN, AARON COLVIN, WILLIAM W. HILL and GABRIEL JACKSON. The Petition of MICHAEL BOREN AND 110 OTHERS dated 20 Nov 1841 is in "Memorials and Petitions File in Milam Co.,Tx.

406 South Seaman
Eastland, Texas
August 1, 1966

Dear Mrs.

Your letter was forward to me from my home address. I was convalescing at the home of my son in Houston.

I appreciate your letter, for I have always been interested in the genealogy of my family. After reading your letter, I believe James Weatherall who married Frances Hodges and lived in South Carolina, the brother of your great grandfather, Dr. Marshall Weatherall, was my own grandfather. My father John Hodges Weatherall was born on November 12, 1828 in South Carolina and was six years of age when my grandfather moved to Pontotoc, Mississippi. My grandfather was given a land grant and became a plantation and slave owner. My father being the first son was named for his grandfather who to the best of my knowledge was General John Weatherall. My grandfather and grandmother were the parents of twelve children; four girls and eight boys. Three of the girls died in infancy, the only one who lived was Harriet for whom I was named. Harriet married James Helmes. My father's youngest brother died, I believe, at the age of twelve, however, I can not recall his name. Here are the names of the boys (sons of James Weatherall and Francis Hodges Weatherall):

John Hodges Weatherall-born November 12, 1828; died April 1,1903
James Marshall Weatherall-I do not know the birth or death of any of the others.
William ____Weatherall
Samuel Watt Weatherall
George _____Weatherall
Joseph Dickson Weatherall
Robert _____ Weatherall
Can not recall the last one

My father and six brothers served in the Confederate in the Civil War. (My father was educated for the old school Presbyterian ministry, however, he went into the Methodist Church (as my mother belong to the Methodist Church). He was then ordained as a Methodist minister, serving as a circuit rider during the Reconstruction Days. He taught in the University of Mississippi.)

I do not recall the year my parents came to Texas. I do know that five of we children were born in Texas. My father married Susan Arena Smith, daughter of Captain William Preston Smith of New Albany, Mississippi. They had eleven children; three boys and eight girls:

William Preston Weatherall
John Hodges Weatherall
Georgie Anna Weather
Permelia Melvina Weatherall
Mary Susan Weatherall
Nannie Mae Weatherall Grandmother of David BOREN
James Thomas Weatherall
Armanda Lee Weatherall (Katherine Boren Kelley's mother)
Arrena Jackson Weatherall
Ethel Elizabeth Dickson (named for Joseph Dickson Weatherall)
Harriet Ione Weatherall (This was I; born August 15, 1887 at Kaufman, Texas)

I am the sole survivor of my family. The records, lost by fire in my home, I recall gave the coat of arms. I remember there was a shield, cup, and two lions. I may be mistaken, but I have been under the impression the Weatheralls were Anglo-Saxon and Welsh.

I know my father had three cousins near Pontotoc or Tupelo, Mississippi, called Big George, Little George and Fat George. Fat George came to Texas and settled at Linden. James Marshall Weatherall reared his family near San Angelo, Texas. Joseph Dickson Weatherall married a doctor's daughter Mollie (can not recall her last name). He raised his family near Jefferson, Texas, then called Jefferson City, I believe. George _____ Weatherall reared his family near Fayetteville, Arkansas. Robert ____ Weatherall died in Arkansas during the Civil War leaving a wife and one daughter. I do not know where they continued to live. William _____ Weatherall left a widow and two daughters, I believe this was in Mississippi. SamuelWatt Weatherall died an old bachelor at Wildwood, Florida.

The above is all the knowledge I have.

Sincerely,
Hattie Baker.

Homer lived in several places - Parker County, Reagor Springs, Bardwell, Combo, Trimble Byrd, Renswick Flat, Rankin, Boise and Garrett, where he died. Homer played the violin. He made his first one - and his parents wouldn't let him practice in the house so he went to the barn, sat on the wooden fence and played to his heart's content. Mable remembers him talking about Jackson, Mississippi a lot where they once lived. He told Mable that his grandmother Harriett was never very large - weighed 95 pounds and wore a size 2 shoe.

VIOLA

(By George M. Boren, written March 17, 1916, Post, Texas)

My little darling used to stand
Just by yon cottage door
Waiting to kiss me when I came
Each evening from the store
Her eyes were like two lovely stars
That shine in heaven's own blue
"Papa," she'd say, with her sweet voice
"I'se lootin' out for you."

But, alas, how lonely now our lives
As through this world we roam
Since no sweet voice calls out to me
To bid me welcome home
No loving arms thrown 'round me now
As oft they used to be
"Papa," she'd say, with her sweet voice
"I'se lootin' out for you."

Oh, could I know in yonder world
Beyond death's silent seas
Her loving arms and sparkling eyes
Were "lootin" out for me
Oh, welcome death, how glad I'd be
To pass that ordeal through
And hear her voice call out to me
"I'se lootin' out for you."

Her little empty cradle stands
Just by her rocking chair
Half dreaming, I oft reach out my hand
To smooth her rumpled hair
Her pillow still unruffled lay
The bed as cold as snow
The thoughts come crashing
Through my soul.

We know she never can come back
To this terrestial shore
But we will go and visit her
When this brief life is o'er.
She will meet us with that same embrace
As oft she used to do
And hear her voice so sweetly say
"I'se lootin' out for you."

BOREN FAMILY HISTORY

Pappa copied most of the dates of his ancestors from tombstones in the Boren Family Cemetery, which is located 3 miles south of Reager Springs in Ellis County. It was donated by RILEY BOREN and was on the northeast corner of his land; it is now owned by RILEY B. RAY and her husband.

The earliest records are of MICHAEL BOREN and his wife, MARY (2nd wife ANN) They lived in Milan County, Texas in 1829 and still in 1834; they lived in Ellis County in 1868; the intervening years are unknown. Their children are

1. William, Jr.,
2. Riley
3. Bink
4. Sidney
5. a daughter.

William Jr. (Pappa's father) will be discussed later. Pink 1853-1878) was killed by a horse at the age of 25. Sidney (11-18-1862 to 7-19-1867) choked to death on a plum seed at the age of 5; a plum tree grew out of his grave in the Boren Cemetery. Riley (1834-1915) was born in Milam Co; he farmed close to his father and William, Jr. His wife's name was Sarah 15-1-1842 to 6-18-1914); she is buried in the family cemetery. Their children are

1. May (3-29-1870--12-28-1917, m. Henry Perkins;
2. Dora, who married a man named Ray and begat Riley B. and twins Jauqin (Jay) and Juanita (Jay now owns the old Boren Homestead
3. Eugene
4. Eula (4-29-1867 - 7-2-1893), who married a man named PARCHMAN and begot DORA MAE P. HARDIN;
5. a daughter who married a man named WHEAT, who begot
   Texana m TOM HAGLER
   Riley
   Lyde

Texana married TOM HAGLER; their son was Lenore or Bitsy; they raised Lyde's son by a first marriage. Lyde married a Kenner. The name Earl Boren, Rt 2, Allen, Texas appears in Pappa's book; must be related.

William M. was born in Milam County, Texas, on June 20, 1829. He fought in the Civil War; afterward he came to Ellis Co and traded a grey pony for the 100-acre farm which became the Boren Homestead, south of Reager Springs. He married MARTHA COOKE whose family had come from Mississippi. Her brothers and sisters were Mary _____, Sallie (married Lige Boren), Manus (married Mattie Layton, George and Letch (married Locky). Uncle Lige Boren was blind but could drive his buggy to Ennis and back. He drove out and looked over his farm each morning. Martha C. Boren was very near-sighted and wore thick glasses all her life; she held the paper very close to read. She started a rock mountain everywhere she lived. She lived with Bob and Mandy Boren in her later years, but she visited all the others, for a couple of months at a time. She especially liked to have something special set aside for her at mealtime. She was a little hard of hearing, but could hear if you whispered.

George Marion was born to William and Martha June 8th, 1868 in Ellis County and grew up on the homestead. His brothers and sisters were Henry (married Marzelle), Myrl (married Homer Wells), Winnie (married John Layton), Mattie (married Matt Blackburn), Bob (married Mandy Weatherall), Albert (married Sallie), Frank (married Nanny), and Mark Latimore or Dock (married Nanny Weatherall). On November 1, 1888, George married Mollie Helms at the lower house of the John Adams farm, near Mustang Creek, in Ellis Co; Bro Crameron was the preacher. Mollie had come to Ellis County at the age of 3, in 1873. Her parents were James and Hattie (Weatherall) Helms; her family was Georgia (married Alvin Davis), Andy (married Betty), Homer (married Matilda), and George (married Alice Hunter). Her father was a school teacher. If there was a house close to his job, the family moved there; if not, he'd board close; maybe her brothers would work a farm near his job. They lived at Bethel, or Mustang Creek, about 6 miles from the Boren Homestead. Pappa use to tell of going courtin' one time when everyone else happened to be away from home, just he and Mollie in the house. Her mother and Andy drove in from town and right up to the door and he couldn't get out. He had to climb out a window and run to his horse tied up behind the trees. Pappa always said it was ridiculous for a great big man like him to be afraid of anyone as little as Hattie but he was.

As each of the Boren boys married, they lived in the weaning pen, a little 3-room house on the Homestead. George and Mollie moved into the weaning pen and lived there till after Charley, Bessie, Viola, Jamie, Ida and Trav were born. Grandma Helms was there when Bessie was born; they had the old doctor come, of course. On the front porch was a little bed for company; during the ordeal of waiting for Bessie's arrival, Grandma lay down to sleep. When she woke up, there beside her lay the doctor, fast asleep. He was catching a little shut-eye while he wasn't needed. It made Grandma so mad she couldn't see straight! She died not too long after Bessie was born in 1889. Charley was born in 1891 and Viola in 1893. She lived only 16 months. Mamma kept a tiny china cup from which she fed Viola safely in her trunk; the other children were allowed to see it but never touch or play with it. Jamie was born in 1895, Ida in 1898, and Trav in 1900.

The family moved from the weaning pen in 1901 to a farm across cottonwood branch which Pappa had bought. The morning after the move the man who had moved out came back to collect his chickens; all the kids were chasing them everywhere; Ida ran into a barbed wire and cut her mouth, so the man gave her one chick. She carefully made it a home in a little box and cared for it until one day when Charley and his friend, Willie Woodfin, were running around and Willie stepped on the little box and killed the chick. It was given a proper animal burial.

The George Boren farm was across the road from Antioch, which was a Church of Christ building and a negro quarter. Uncle Riley had donated the land for both. He had had slaves; after they were freed, he'd build a cabin for each young man as he married; there were around 10 cabins in this area. It was on this farm that Moree was born in 1902, Anna Mae in 1905, Edna in 1907 and Joe in 1909.

Trav tells, "I decided one morning I didn't want to go to school. I think it was my first year. My daddy says, "Yes, you are going to school." We went to Reagor Springs about 2½ miles. Well, dad wore out one switch on me then and all the way to school he whipped me. A lot of real good switches along the way. I stepped on the school ground and he said he couldn't whip on school ground. I told him I still didn't want to go to school, but I did. And, after a few days, I liked school all right. My daddy had a heart of gold, but I tell you now, he also had a strong right arm."

Each spring everybody took sulphur, to keep off the chills. They were huge ole pills. One spring it was misty and rainy on the day the pills were passed out; mamma said not to get wet 'cause if you were taking sulphur, it would make you sick to get wet. Trav and Ida were sitting on the porch when Trav said, "Ida, let's just see if it'll make us sick." So they jumped up and ran out into the rain. Of course, it didn't make them sick.

At home everybody had his place at the table, and woe to the man that got your place! Jamie said to Uncle Alvin one time, "Why don't you come over. Nobody's home." Uncle Alvin, who had 2 children, asked who was home. "Only me and Ida and Moree and Trav and Mamma and Mae." - in other words, only Charley, Bessie and Dad were gone. The Boren household was one of lots of people--family and company. Mamma never went out much. Every Sunday there was singing at the Antioch church across the road. The men went to church; the women and children went to Mollie's. It wasn't unusual to have 18 or 20 children playing around. Mama hung her worn-out dresses on a nail in the smokehouse and the kids used them for playing dress-up.

Moree says, "Our Dad was a great tease; he enjoyed teasing Mamma as well as we children and he also enjoyed scaring the daylights out of we kids, as well as anything else that happened to be close to him. He loved people and enjoyed entertaining them. One night when I was just a little girl one of our neighbor friends came in for a visit; it was very cold and Dad had a big fire going in the living room and they were sitting and talking. It was only a short while before Christmas. Dad asked him if he had ever seen one of those big firecrackers and he said no, so Dad goes and gets one, but before that he removed all the powder and just put the fuse back in to look natural. He brought it in and showed it to him and the man's eyes just bugged out as he had never seen one so big. He said that it could be dangerous; Dad says, "Yes, I believe I will just burn it up." Quickly he walked to the fireplace and threw it in the fire. The poor man tore up our chair trying to get out; he just knew that was the last of him!"

Ida tells of Christmas - "It was such a good time for all of us. Mom and Dad started a month or 6 weeks before Christmas to go and shop for Santa. They'd come home with sacks and boxes and place them in the front room. They'd tell us if we looked in them, Santa would not bring us a thing. And we believe them! We were almost afraid to pass the door, but couldn't help but look in at all the packages. And, too, so many kinfolks whose kids were grown and didn't have near as big a family as ours, they'd come to see what they got for us. We'd hear them say "We got this for Ida, or Jamie, or one of the others," and they'd say, "Oh how pretty. I know they'll love that,", etc. We would nearly die to know what it was--but not one time did any of us "peep". The night Santa was to come Pappa would tie a black thread on a big, ole sack. He held the end of the thread in his hand and would call us all to the door,then say,"Hello Santa." Then he would pull the thread and "the sack would bend over and bow." Then he'd say, "Come here, Santa", and pull the string and the sack would come walking toward us. We'd stand till it got near and then all scream and run. That would tickle Dad. All the time, Mamma was in the kitchen cooking. She'd cook 8 or 10 cakes, 20 pies hams, turkeys, and the dish I remember was "ambrosia," sliced oranges with layers of coconut. They'd let us get up at 4 o"clock but the older ones had to get all the little ones up and dressed before we could begin to look. Then we would all get fireworks and Dad would take a shovel of coals from the fireplace and we'd shoot roman candles, firecrackers, torpedoes, etc. Charlie would light skyrockets for us. Even after several of us were married, we'd all go home Christmas eve night and had our gifts just the same way. About 9:30 or 10, company would begin to come in for dinner. We'd have 2 or 3 tables full. The last of us would be nearly starved.

Dad would buy one or two big firecrackers and take the powder out - and when the older ones were ringed around in front of the fireplace, he'd come in and light the big firecracker at the fireplace, and they'd say "George, don't do that, it may go off before you get out," and, of course, he would then drop it. And, of all the yelling and scrambling they would do! It tickled Dad half to death. Oh, what a day we all had. If there was snow, Dad would take the wagon bed off and put runners on it for a sleigh. Next day we'd stay out all day, going all over the country picking up every kid in the county. We'd come in with feet so cold we could hardly walk."

Jamie and Ida finished the 7th grade at Reagor Springs and went to Waxahachie for a year and half; but it was too far to drive and they still had to walk a long way after leaving the wagon at the wagonyard.

Bessie married Luther Hudnall at this house in 1908; Bro. McCurry performed the ceremony. Bessie had gone to Normal School and was prepared to teach school; she decided to marry and never taught. They moved to Howard, where Luther farmed Mrs. Shiver's place. Modelle was born in 1910. Charley was helping Pappa farm at this time, and after going to business college at Commerce, he kept books at the gin and around at several places.

In 1912 the family moved to Ray, across the road from the Wheatley's. The house had 2 big rooms and a shed on the back; one room was the bedroom and the other was the kitchen and living room. Pappa decided to add an upstairs, parlor, big hall, front and back porches, kitchen and a bathroom containing a tub with running water. Pappa had a system of wind-driven pumps which charged batteries and provided electricity. This was the first house to have electricity in the area. Pappa always bought bottled water for himself; he thought the water in Ellis County was hard on his kidneys. He was a terrible medicine-taker; when he had to take some medicine, the kids used to gather round to watch because he'd put on such a show. At this house, Jack was born in August, 1912, and Ida and Jamie married. On December 21, 1913, Dr. Phillips married Jamie and Frank McWhorter. They lived at Howard the first year, then around close until by 1919 they had settled in Midlothian, where Fama was born. Ida married Boe Wheatley on December 13, 1914, in a double ceremony with Boe's cousin, Lucille Heath and Jack Johnson. Their honeymoon was a walk across the road to their home with Mr. Wheatley. He married the following year and Boe and Ida moved to Frost for a couple of years, then to Maypearl by 1920. In 1915 Charley married Johnnie Shiver at her home and they farmed her mother's place for a year or two before moving to Nash, then to Waxahachie. Charley sold real estate for years after he quit farming.

In 1915 Pappa decided to move to West Texas - Mamma never wanted to come because other brothers had come and made a bust, but she finally gave in. Pappa got on the train and left without knowing where he was going. There was a bunch on the train going to Post, so Pappa went to Post. He bought two sections 12 miles north of Post and the family moved out. There was plenty of bawling as they left Ellis County, taking Bessie and Luther and Modelle with them, as well as Moree, Anna Mae, Edna, Joe and Jack. Pappa and Luther farmed and ran cattle. Luther and Bessie moved into town later. In 1920 they had just built a new house and were ready to move in when Bessie caught the flu, which caused her death, along with a premature childbirth. She was buried in Terrace Cemetery in Post. Modelle came to live with Mamma & Pappa; Luther and his dad lived in the new house a while, and later Frank and Famie lived there.

In September of 1920, Boe and Ida were living in Maypearl; Boe discovered he had TB and was seriously ill. He went to the TB hospital in Albuquerque, where he stayed for 15 months; then he was at Sanitorium, Texas for 9 months more. Mr. Wheatley spent the week harvesting Boe's crop, then they all went back to his house on weekends. After harvest, Ida came out to Pappa's for a few months. Grandma Boren, now age 79, was visiting Pappa, too. She wanted to climb a high hill, so Glen and Henry dug footsteps for her in the dirt with their hands. One got in front of her and pulled and one pushed from behind, and up they went. When Ida called them to dinner, there sat Granma and those 3 and 4 year old boys on top of that hill. Coming down, Henry led her, guiding her feet into the steps and Glen held her dresstail to balance her. Ida and the children went to Albuquerque to live; Ida discovered she had TB (she was treated in Albuquerque and Samitorium.) Mr. Wheatley came on the train and took the three children. Ida had made Helen a net cap which she wore on the train. Mr. Wheatley would hang it up at the front of the car and she'd want it on. He'd put it on and she'd want it hung up. This went on until Mr. Wheatley just stuffed it in his pocket. They stopped over in Post and spent the night with Pappa. Fama found the cap and washed and starched it fresh for Helen to wear the next day.

Pappa was a county commissioner for Garza County from 1922-1924. His picture hangs in the courthouse in Post. When Boe and Ida got out of Sanitorium, they lived with Pappa for a year, then moved into town.

Edna says, "One memory that stands out rather firmly was the day Pappa suggested rather firmly that I not date Wiley Paige--now he knew better than that, but I stood quietly while he issued the ultimatum and I knew to be quiet - I was the ripe old age of 15½. But right then

I was furiously planning how I would manage - well! - Pappa had to go to town and I asked very meekly if I might go and, as usual, got a "yes." I always waited until I heard bath water going sky high, then with the door between us, I'd take my stand and pop the question. Now, I think he could read me like a book, but then, I felt real secure with my plans--of course I asked to stay in town with a friend, but guess who that friend turned out to be! WILEY PAIGE took me to Harley Sadler's tent show, which we enjoyed very much - and, as the show was over, we went skipping down the aisle hand in hand, and who did we come fact to face with but Pappa. He never said a word, just grinned - but can you imagine how little we felt right then. That was hair raising for me, but Pappa knew I'd had punishment enough - he never mentioned it again.

In 1923, Edna met Dan Carpenter and was planning to marry; however, they had a bust-up and everything was off. On Thanksgiving Day, Edna came rushing to the apartment where Ida and Boe had just moved and said, "Ida, come with me to get my things. I'm getting married tonight." Dan had talked to Pappa over the phone at someone's house where they were visiting. So Edna and Ida drove out to the house in the rain in Dan's car (and threw one mud chain clear out in the field) and got her clothes. Back at Ida's Edna dressed for her wedding in the small kitchen with Ida and Anna Mae helping, and Boe, Dan, and Carl Sartan they stood up before the preacher and said their vows, then drove to Abilene on their honeymoon. It was late when they got to Abilene and there were no rooms to be found. Finally one clerk said he had a couple checking out at 3 a.m. to catch a train, so they waited. They made their home on a place southeast of Tahoka, with a 3-room house on it, where they lived for several years; Winifred was born here.

Moree met Ras while both their families were living in Post. The Patricks moved to a farm close to Pappa's, then to Olney after a few years. Moree and Ras wrote and saw each other some, then he came and got her. They were married in Post and lived in Olney; they moved back to Shallowater and farmed with his brother awhile; then they moved back to Olney.

Pappa and Mamma, both in their late 50's moved into Post, and Pappa ran a small grocery store for a couple of years. Then around 1925, he traded the farm in Garza County for a section in Young County, Olney, Texas. It was here that he struck oil and became a rich man. At Olney Anna met Otho Green, who had been raised in Olney; his father worked at the cotton yard. Grandma Boren was visiting there once when Ida and the children came to visit. Helen slept with Grandma and never forgot the smell of peppermint which Grandma put up her nose before going to bed, asafetida she put in a bag around her neck, a sup (cup?) of castor oil, and turpentine she rubbed on before bed. At the age of 5 that was some smell to sleep with!

In 1926, while living on the farm at Olney (almost ruined with oil wells), Pappa went to Mineral Wells and bought a section 6 miles southwest of town, right on the Brazos River. It had a big, beautiful 2-story house. Two of the rooms were made of 12-inch cut stone, and a big fireplace in the living room. There were lots of trees and shrubs all around the house and a rock fence. The barn was made of stone too. There was an electric pump for lights and water. The safe was in the kitchen and mamma always put food from the previous meal on the bottom shelf, like cornbread or biscuit. There were cows, hogs, and chickens aplenty. Many times at night someone was heard stealing chickens and several times someone was heard in the house.

The Brazos River was swift and dangerous at that particular place. It was called Oaks Crossing from a Mr. Oaks who had owned the place years before and had reared his family here. Many, many years before, Indians forded the river there. The only way to cross the Brazos was on horseback or wagon at its lowest place (Oaks Crossing), or drive 12 miles back through Mineral Wells, and on through Palo Pinto and cross on a bridge.

One time Pappa, Joe and Jack, Modelle, Otho, and other men were swimming here in the river and found a big fish in a hole. They couldn't get him to move so they would dive down and gig him. After several hours of work, they got it out and it weighed around 30 pounds. Next day the Borens did have a fish fry!

Otho still lived in Olney, Texas and he'd come down and stay several days at a time. Anna Mae and Otho were married on December 11, 1927.

While the family was living in Mineral Wells, Pappa sold some oil land at Olney and he and Trav had to go to Wichita Falls to the company office to get their money. Trav tells "We were driving along at a very nice speed; I was driving, and noticed Pappa would kinda move and shake a bit. I kept watching him out the corner of my eyes, for the roads then weren't too wide and you had to be careful. All at once, Pappa jumped and yelled--I looked at him and 2 or 3 mice run out of his coat. Boy, I stopped the car soon as I could. Wonder I hadn't wrecked it, but I kept my head. He got out of the car, pulled his coat off and shook it good. We raised up the front seat and there was a bed of mice under the seat. He said he had felt something kinda crawling up his back. That's why he was squirming around so. I thought of Charley--he was really afraid of rats.

Fama recalls, "the most gorgeous Christmas I have ever seen" in the parlor at Mineral Wells. There was a huge cedar that touched the ceiling covered with burning candles. There were packages of money for each married child. That was the year Anna Mae got a diamond set in black onyx. The "boys" got bicycles and boots.

Anna Mae always tried to get Jamie to curl Fama's hair and dress her nicer. Jamie told Mae to do it, so Anna Mae embarked on a project of taking Fama to a tea in Mineral Wells. She bought green organdy,and lace, etc., and worked for 2 weeks making a party dress. Fama recalls standing for what seemed hours for the fitting. On the last morning Anna Mae rolled Fama's hair and when she combed it out, it didn't curl at all, but stuck straight out in every direction. Anna Mae said to Jamie, "I see what you mean." Whether she went to the tea or not, Fama can't remember.

Otho and Frank had taken Grandma Boren to Oklahoma just before Christmas one year in Pappa's new Essex. They headed home on Christmas eve, and being anxious to get back, the men were really opening the car up. Grandma didn't hear very well, so they talked it over up in the front and decided to kick it on up to 60 mph--maybe it wouldn't scare her if they drove that fast. 'bout that time, Grandma leaned up and said, "Boys, won't this thing go any faster?"

The children still at home when the family moved to Mineral Wells were Trav, Anna Mae, Joe and Jack, and Modelle. Pappa had the farm, ran cattle, and had rent properties (a garage building, a little restaurant, houses). On September 15, 1928, Trav married Grace Brewton. When Grandma Boren was visiting here, she started a rock mountain around a big tree in the front yard which, at her departure, was approximately 12 ft in diameter at the bottom and 6 feet tall. Fama would walk in front of her and look out for snakes. Grandma was close to 9_ now, and they had to put a bell around her neck because she wandered around so. Then they stopped hearing the bell, someone went to look for her. It took a jar of face cream a week to keep her going. She rubbed it all over her body and said, "What's good for the face is good for the body."

Anna Mae and Otho moved to Mineral Wells just before Mamma died. On August 23, 1931, Mamma died of high blood pressure or hypertension, at the age of 61, and she was buried in Mineral Wells. Her gold pieces went toward the purchase of her tombstone.

Pappa lived on there for several years, then he married Mattie Williams and moved into her house. She was a widow and Williams was her maiden name. Trav and Grace were living in Mineral Wells; he worked in a grocery store, then began in the furniture business. Mae and Otho and Jack, and Son (Modelle) lived in Pappa's house for a while, then came to Post to pick cotton. Jack went on to Edna's before too long. Grandma Boren died while visiting Aunt Mattie in 1934 at the age of 93. Anna Mae and Otho stayed in the West Texas area for several years before moving to Austin.

Pappa and Mattie lived in Mineral Wells for a few years before she quit him. Her doctor said her health was poor.

Around 1936 Luther moved out to New Mexico and had a farm. Son and Joe went out to help him and stayed several months trying to make a crop. They took turns plowing and doing the housework. They had a garden too. At last they decided that the greens were ready, and their mouths were watering for some greens. Joe was plowing and Son was cooking that day. Joe saw Son go to the garden with a half-gallon bucket and pick the greens, and his mouth was all set for greens for dinner. When he got to the house, there on the table were the greens - one tiny little wad on a saucer... Joe's heart sunk. As Grandpa Hudnall came through the kitchen - before he even sat down - he just scooped those greens up on the end of his knife and ate them in one bite! Joe and Son lived over it and went on to gather the crop. Son married Bennie Jones on February 14, 1937. Joe came back to Edna's at Tahoka and farmed with Dan awhile.

After Mattie quit Pappa, he moved back to Ray around 1938 where he ran a small grocery store for a couple of years.

Jamie told this story to Fama years ago: When Pappa lived at Mineral Wells and still had money, a man had asked to borrow $50 so his daughter could go to college. Pappa let him have it although he didn't know the man very well. Years passed and one day a man and a woman walked in the store at Ray and paid back that $50. They explained that for a long time they had not had the money and when they did, they didn't know where Pappa was. But when they found out, they came to deliver it in person. The woman was the daughter who had gone to college and the man was the father.

Fama was teaching at Ray during this time. Pappa didn't have a car. About once a week he'd say, "Let's go to the show." He wanted to get off without Ruth, Lynn and Jo Ann if he could, but we'd let them out at the show if they went and we would go after Mrs. Kelly. Then we'd go to the show. The first time we went, I tried to sit by myself but they wouldn't hear to it. I'd take the third seat from the aisle, Mrs. Kelly next to me, and Pappa on the aisle seat. After the show, we went to Mrs. Kelly's and had ice cream.

Pappa was 70 years old and not able to care for himself, so Ida came and took him home with her. They moved the 2-room house that had been up in the pasture up by their house 2 miles north of Ragtown and fixed it up. Pappa lived there the last 11 years of his life. Joe helped take care of him after the war for the last several years. Boe said, "No man was ever any better to his dad than Joe was when he helped take care of Mr. Boren."

Pappa died on Father's Day, June 17, 1951. Posey and Helen were sitting with him, and called the others to be there at the very last. Last rites were at North Oak Church of Christ in Mineral Wells, conducted by Bro. W. L. Fry, and his body was buried beside Mamma's.

"Mamma and Pappa loved us kids and we all loved them.
They are gone now, but Memories will always linger."

161-Jerrye Taylor Gates sent this picture and wrote the following about her mother and Aunt Vera:

"Texarkana is a twin city and my mother and Aunt Vera rode in the parade to celebrate Texarkana's 50th birthday in 1923 - on the Twins Float. They were identical twins - and I mean identical - it is difficult for me to identify which is which. I or rather Helen has a picture made on their 16th birthday.

My mother and Aunt Vera were small women - 5'2" and weighed 105. Mother wore a size 5 glove and size 5 shoe. Both loved clothes and high heels. They were expert seamstresses and could make hats - could also cut out a dress without a pattern. Their hair was so heavy it had to be thinned for them to wear hats."

(From later correspondence, I believe Era and Vera were 21 when the above photograph was taken."

This poem was included in a letter to No. 164 Dr. James Lloyd Weatherall(who d. in Feb, 1980 after a long illness) from No. 71-iii Ray Weatherall.

God put us on this earth, you know
I sometimes wonder why
He chose for his creation
Such men as you and I.

We've never really worked for Him;
He knows what we have done.
I wonder why He cares for us
And why He sent His Son

To suffer death upon the cross
His crown a wreath of thorns
And asking for forgiveness
For sinners still unborn.

Deep study makes me know one thing;
Our lives are spent in vain.
We pray for blessings for our own,
A monetary gain.

Some money to be laid away
And left unto our heirs
So that they may have a life secure
Without the need of prayers.

But all the riches in this world,
If left to one lone child,
Could never equal in its force
One prayer that's meek and mild.

So may we live with faith in God
That when death calls us all,
St. Pete will let us enter when We say we're Weatheralls.

A F F I D A V I T

I, Mrs. Edna Allene Welch Weatherall, widow of John Edgar Weatherall, being of sound mind and body, do depose and affirm the following facts:

1. I was born on the 15th day of July, 1897, and was married to John Edgar Weatherall December 20, 1913.

2. John Edgar Weatherall was born in 1892 and died in 1964. He was the son of George Washington Weatherall, who was born in 1844 and died in 1897.

3. Sarah Vidalia (Vida) Weatherall, born in 1880 and died in 1959, was a sister of my husband, and was a daughter of the same George Washington Weatherall and his wife Harriet Rebecca Jane Smallwood.

4. Sarah Vidalia (Vida) Weatherall was married to William Frederick Valentine in 1898, and was later married to Joseph Bethune. Among children born to the marriage of Sarah Vidalia (Vida) Weatherall and William Frederick Valentine was Mildred Valentine Forrest.

5. Because of my long association with the Weatherall family, including my marriage of 51 years to John Edgar Weatherall, I am certain and positive of the above relationships.

No. 76-Sarah Vidalia Weatherall - continued.

No. 186A (E. L.) wrote me: "You asked about Mom. She and Dad, William Fredrick, were married Dec 29, 1897 at Dardanelle, Ark. They first lived on a farm at the base of Mt. Magazine, near the Pleasant Valley Cemetery, also known as the Valentine Cemetery. It is about 3 miles north of where grandfather George is buried. When you marked grandfather's marker with chalk, did you notice two small graves beside his, to his left? They were the graves of Mom and Dad's two first born, Earl and Lillian.

"They also lived in a house in Havana, near where Aunt Loeva lives. I was born in that house. When I was about a year old, the family moved to Booneville where dad went into business for himself. He had a cotton gin, corn mill, and wholesale flour and feed store. In 1918 we moved to Little Rock where the family lived for 11 years. While there, Mom studied tailoring at which she became very proficient. It stood her in good stead later when whe joined the work force. For a time, she did alterations, both men's and women's for one of the department stores.

"In 1929, when sister and Euel married, Mom, A. K. & W. W. went to Cleveland, Ohio with A. J. & M. E. who came to Little Rock for the wedding. At that time, dad was living in Oklahoma City. I stayed in Little Rock in order to finish law school, which I did in 1930. From Cleveland, mom visited Thomas and Tommie who were living on Long Island, N. Y. She stayed there for about a year, doing work on her own, tailoring and alterations, and for a time, helping a friend in a tea room.

"I went to Cincinnatti in October, 1930 where A. J. and M. E. were then living. Shortly thereafter Mom and Woody came and the three of us lived in the suburb of Norwood where she worked at her trade mostly for the smaller shops which were quite popular in those days.

"I came to California in 1940. Mom came in 1941. We lived in Manhattan Beach. During the war years she worked at a dry cleaning establishment doing alterations. In the meantime, I had found Geetie - the first day I was in Ca - we were m. in 1943. Mom lived with us for most of her years, except for five...she married a really fine man, Joseph Bethune, who lived in Prescott, Az. They had a happy time together. When Joe died in 1952, Geetie and I brought her back to California to be with us once more. At the age of 79 years and 9 months, her life ended with a heart attack while visiting Uncle Ed and Aunt Edna Weatherall at Santa Maria, Ca. She went to the refrigerator for a glass of water - she never drank it.

She is buried at Westminster Memorial Park, Westminster, California in the Garden of the Good Shepherd Section. The cemetery is a short distance away.

"Her life was not always an easy one, but she had a joy for living. It was built on her faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. She gave birth to 9 children. Three died in infancy, one of whichwas a twin. The other twin died at age 15. Four children, born between the first two and the twins lived to be adults, as did the last born, Woody (W. W. or Woodrow Wilson Valentine)."

Thank you E. L. for giving us
of Aunt Vida

Aunt Vida was still single and living at home when her mother died. I am sure she had a lot of responsibility in caring for the younger children. Vida married before her father died - at which time the younger children were cared for by brothers and sisters.

Loeva Welch Weatherall is living in her own home in Havana, Arkansas as of December, 1980. She has lived alone ever since Uncle Lee died in 1960. Until 1978 she made a good garden every year--grew most of her food and canned dozens of jars of vegetables. She still cans a lot - she has good neighbors who now keep her supplied from their gardens and fruit trees.

I have never known anyone as resourceful as "Antie" - she has a beautiful yard - her house is surrounded by flowers. She has pictures on her wall that she painted and has showered her nieces with articles she has made.

Lee and Loeva first met when she was 10 or 11: She and Lee's sister, Minnie, were school chums - and she still remembers and admires a black satin skirt that Minnie wore. She and Lee lived in California for 13 months during WWII where Lee worked in the ship yard and she worked at Douglas Aircraft plant. They went to California again later and he worked at the Navy Base. They lived near his brother Sam in Los Angeles for a short time.

"Antie" Loeva loves Havana, Arkansas - she says it is good country, good town, and the greatest neighbors.

Loeva is first cousin to Edna Welch Weatherall, widow of No. 77, Ed Weatherall.

It was our privilege to visit Aunt Loeve several times - and one one occasion to tape record our conversation about the Weatherall family.

195 iv. GEORGE WILLIAM WEATHERALL

Oscar Weatherall gave himself the middle name of SMALLWOOD after his mother's family. His parents died when he was 8 and he and the other younger brothers and sisters were raised by their older brothers and sisters. The 1900 Federal Census shows Oscar living with his brother, No. 71,

Samuel Lafayette Weatherall and his first wife Alice and their little 3-year old son, Earl H. Later on, when the boys were a little older, Oscar, Ed, Lee and George lived to themselves and batched. They raised chickens and when they had fried chicken they would fight over who got the gizzard, everyone's favorite piece. (This from Lee's widow, Aunt Loeva, who still lives in Havana, Ark.)

One of my cooper cousins, Dalton Cooper and his wife Della who live in Tuska, Oklahoma, told me that Bud (Oscar) Weatherall, Lee Lokey and Porter Wisener went from Havana to Oklahoma when it was Indian Territory and "worked in the timber" at Kasoma (Tesoma?) which was some 50 miles north of Tuska, Oklahoma. There is no town of Kasoma now. He said that Lee and Porter went home after a few days but he, Dalton, and Bud stayed and were there when Oklahoma became a state. This was in 1907.

Oscar's next job was probably on the repair crew for the railroad that runs through Havana up through Booneville, Ark. They moved to Little Rock, Arkansas before 1911, as that is where the first child was born, and this is where he worked as a streetcar conductor. Mama always said we lived across the river from Vestal's Floral Shop... on Cantrel Street.

Around 1915 we moved to Oklahoma, first to Anadarko. In Anadarko Oscar had his first dry cleaning shop. He also cleaned and blocked hats...they tell about doing their first hats. After they were cleaned, they used sugar water as a stiffening agent and put them out in the sun to dry - yes the flies came and the hats had to be cleaned again. They later moved to Shattuck, Oklahoma where he again had a cleaning and hat blocking establishment and this is where Floyd was born. About 1917 we moved to Hobart, Oklahoma where his establishment was called the NO-D-LAY CLEANERS. In the spring of 1928 he sold this business and moved to Amarillo, Texas where he had the Western Hatters and Cleaners at 16th and Polk Streets.

I have found records where Oscar and Daisy Weatherall were members of the Baptist Church in Havana, Arkansas and Daisy joined the church in Hobart on 8 April 1923 and Oscar and I joined April 22, 1924. Daddy taught a men's Sunday School Class - and one of the members of that class was real deaf (I don't think completely). He loved to listen to daddy teach because of his deep resonate voice. The fellow could hold onto the bench and feel the vibrations and understand what was said. Daddy also sang bass in the choir. The minister often came by the tailor shop and visited with him and the customers. Daddy sold International Tailormade suits - he would measure the customer and order the suits. One day he was measuring a rather portly gentleman when the preacher came in and jokingly said, "Oscar, be sure to measure that bay window." The man looked down at the preacher and said, "I don't know who you are and don't give a damn, but I will tell you one thing, they don't put bay windows on "outhouses", they put them on mansions" - at which time and without further comment, the preacher left.

Dad was a very resourceful person - did a lot of things to make an extra buck, like selling specialties (later on.) When the Murdock Neutradyne Radios were just coming on the market in the 1920's - about 1925, or whenever the Dempsey-Tuney fight was staged, he set up a radio in a vacant building next door to the dry cleaning shop, made seats from nail kegs and 2X12's and men came from all around to hear that fight. It was quite an event and he sold some radios as a result. (This tale from Floyd Weatherall.) I remember his idea of putting advertising squares on the ceilings of barber shops and selling advertising. The patrons of the barber shops could read the advertising while lying on their backs and getting shaves and shampoos.

Around 1927 Oscar began to be bothered by shortness of breath (for one thing that I can recall) and went to the doctor. Dr. Miles advised a 6-weeks rest. When he got worse instead of better, dad talked about going to a lower climate. However, somewhere during that time, they sold the shop in Hobart and moved to Amarillo in 1928...when he got the Western Hatters and Cleaners pretty well established, he went to Marlin, Texas and took the mineral baths - and later went on down to Corpus Christi, Tx which is on the coast. None of these moves helped and he died in Corpus Christi. His liver was damaged and his heart enlarged - and in the years since, we have learned that breathing CARBON TETRACHLORIDE fumes will kill the liver, causing something like Cirrhosis of the Liver. They no longer use Carbon Tet in the dry cleaning shops.

(Daddy had used a lot of Carbon Tet in his dry cleaning operations.)

While he was in Corpus Christi, he worked at selling specialty advertising. When his possessions were shipped home, all of his samples were sent too. On top of everything in his suitcasewas a copy of this poem:

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
and may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark;

For though from out our bourne of time & place
The flood may bear me far
I hope to see my pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

...Alfred Tennyson

Daddy loved poetry. He used to say this to mama:

Sweet bunch of daisies,
Brought from the Dell
Kiss me once darling,
Daisies won't tell.

(by Anita Owen, written in 1894)

After daddy died, mother operated the business until she lost it during the depression. She then did alterations for Regents and McDavids, ladies dress shops in Amarillo. She later did dress designing and alterations in her home - called the "Fashion Studio." She had a real talent for dress designing. I can remember all the lovely dresses she designed and made for me as I was growing up. There was always a lovely new dress for each piano recital. All this plus a good homemaker and mother.

Mother's parents moved to Hobart, Oklahoma about the same time we went there. Grandpa Andrew Harrison Cooper had a produce house...bought milk, cream, eggs, hides, chickens and turkeys, etc. They lived about a mile south of town and a little south and east of our place on "The Hill." There was a sharp corner between us and town and we used to watch grandpa Cooper take that turn on two wheels - in his Model "T" Ford just about every time he drove home.

Mother (Daisy Cooper Weatherall) died of a kidney ailment.. She had slipped on the ice and thought she might have hurt a kidney. Had she lived until today, she could have had a kidney transplant. Mama never remarried after daddy died. She was such a pretty and sweet person and could have remarried easily - and she was widowed at such a young age, but I guess no one else could take daddy's place.

"Agnes and Dell lived at Vaughn, New Mexico. He met her at Amarillo for the marriage. I remember him well and liked him. He lived with his sister and husband cat-a-corner from us when I was 5 or 6 years old. I never knew what he did for a living...never thought to ask. Agnes hated living in N. Mex...said the wind blows all the time - and she couldn't get turnip greens out there. I remember mama sent her some once, but she made the mistake of washing the greens before mailing them, packed in a fruit jar and by the time Agnes got them they were a mess. I remember when Agnes died...I was in Jr. High and mama called the school and had them send me home - I have often wondered why since there was nothing I could do. I was scared silly not knowing why she had me come home until I got there... had a long bus ride. But I knew it was bad and felt that somebody had died, thought it was a member of our family maybe papa. Poor Agnes, never had much of a life, living with first one then another. She was with us from my earliest memory of her. When mama married she took Agnes with her, having had the care of all the youngest ones after their parents died. I have a picture of Mama and Papa with Agnes when she was little. She was living with Uncle T. J. and Pearl in Oklahoma when she married. (She met Dell first in Booneville, Ark when he was living with his sister and her husband.) Dell married again after Agnes died and his wife wrote to mama, but I don't remember her name. Agnes and Dell had no children.

Uncle Ed was truly a cotton farmer at heart - he loved it. He was a farmer when he lived in Havana as well as in Oklahoma. He and his family lived on the DAVE WALKER place near Hobart, Oklahoma for awhile. He and his family were living in Amarillo, Texas in 1928 and he was working in his brother's WESTERN HATTERS that year. His brother, Oscar, had a hat cleaning and blocking business. In searching the Amarillo City Directory we discovered him living at 515 Fannin Street, Amarillo, Texas in 1928 but not in 1929. They moved to Guadelupe,California shortly after that and later to Santa Maria, Ca where he had a service Station. He also built several motel units on their place which was near the highway. Later, after his health failed he sold the service station and got a job as Rural Mail Carrier - this was on a contract basis, and Susie carried this route after he wasn't able to do it. He loved Havana, Arkansas and longed to move back and have a cotton farm once more. Of course he was not able, physically, to do this.

There was a special loving relationship between Uncle Ed, Aunt Susie and myself (Christine) - I sort of took the place of that baby daughter they lost in infancy...now they have two lovely granddaughters.

Uncle Ed went to Seminole, Oklahoma in 1926 and worked with an oil company - and Susie followed in 1927. They moved to Hobart, Oklahoma in the Fall and lived about 5 miles south of Cordell, Oklahoma, near Rocky, on the Dave Walker and Atkins farms. Then in 1928 they moved to Amarillo, Texas with his brother, Oscar. In the Fall of 1936 they returned to Arkansas to help his brother, Emmett, and stayed until July of 1937 when he went to California where he farmed until the rainy season set in. He just couldn't quite leave Arkansas permanently yet, so he went back for Christmas of 1938 and returned to California in 1939 when he sent for his wife, Edna (Susie) She arrived on November 8, 1939 and California became their home. They were living in Paso Robles, Ca in 1941 when Susie's mother had the flu and pneumonia and she went home to care for her. Uncle Ed took her to Los Angeles and saw her off to her mother's...then he took Uncle Sam's son, Charles, home with him and James and Thomas. Ed was working on construction at Camp Roberts where he got a job for Charles...gave him the money to join the union and he worked as a carpenter. You can see that our Uncle Ed was a wonderful, kind Christian man. We all loved Uncle Ed and Aunt Edna (Susie).

Photographer dies at age 70

Johnson B. Young of 5420 Anita, a retired photographer for The Dallas Morning News, died of an apparent stroke about 12:15 p.m. Sunday while driving his car in the 5500 block of Matalee Avenue. He was 70.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Restland Funeral Home.

Although Young's car struck a guardrail and a parked car, a spokesman for the Dallas County medical examiner's office said Young sustained no apparent injuries from the impact, indicating death of natural causes.

Since his retirement from The News in 1975, Young had worked as a free-lance photographer.

Young was born in Dallas, but moved to Los Angeles, Calif., where he was employed at Lockheed Corp. before World War II. He served as a chief petty officer in the U.S. Navy during the war, then came to work as a copy-boy at The News in 1946 while taking a Navy course in photography.

He joined the photography staff of The News in 1948, and his photographs subsequently won several awards.

Young was a 32nd degree Mason and a member of the Tannehill Masonic Lodge. He also was an active member of the Lovers Lane United Methodist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothe; a daughter, Carol Ann Ward; and two sisters, Lillian Kerr and Mattie Childress.

In 1976, we visited Madison, Virginia and there met Mr. Yowell, author of "HISTORY OF MADISON COUNTY". He told an interesting story that he remembered about Benny Wetherall and himself. When they were in school, it was the habit of the teacher to send two boys for water for the class. One day when it was his turn to be sent, he first went to the store nearby where BENNY WETHERALL was a clerk. They cooked up the idea of buying some candy - and knowing that everyone in the class would want some... and wanting to tease the girls, they dug out a hole in the bottom of about half the candies, put ceyenne pepper in and sealed up the holes. There was quite a commotion among the girls over this, and even more when the teacher asked for some and received one with the pepper in it. The boys, of course, got a big bang out of this and everyone had an hilarious time.

He was age 29 and she 22 when they married and marriage was performed by Rev. J. A. Black. Both bur. Springhill Cem. She was dau of FREDERICK ULYSSES SIMPSON (cousin of Ulysses Simpson Grant) and wife FRANCES (CHAPMAN RUGGLES. He was an engineer. They were members of the Jefferson Avenue Baptist Church at Huntington, W. Va.

Leonard Harry moved with his parents and sisters Sarah & Gabrella A. and brother William Y. from Culpeper, Va. to Milton (Cabell) W. Va where they built a mill which they later sold to the Harshbarger family. They then lived in West Huntington (Old Central City). They also lived in Greenup County, Ky., St. Joseph, Mo., and Fayette Co., W. Va and then in Huntington.

ii. LEONARD ULYSSES WETHERALL, b. 8 Dec 1888, Huntington, W. Va., d. 9 Oct 1934, Royal Oak, Michigan, bur. Springhill Cem., Huntington, W. Va. Never married. He was very quiet and easy going, yet restless and liked to travel. A story told by his mother was that when he was about 9 yrs. old they lived in a Coal Camp on Fire Creek in Fayette Co., W. Va., and she had scolded him for something - and a little later sheheard a boy hollar at her from atop a freight train box car. She looked up and sitting atop of the darn train was little Len waving goodby. She immediately wrote her sister in Raceland, Ky and asked her to look for Len and keep him there. She replied that Len did stop by for food and clean clothes but had left. In the meantime Len's parents moved back to W. Huntington - on Jefferson Avenue. One morning some 5 years later she went to the front porch to get the milk and saw lying on the porch swing a big dirty boy. She thought to herself "I will fix breakfast, then awaken the boy, feed him and give him clean clothes as I would like for some good woman to do for my Len." Turned out that this boy was Len. He stayed a very short time and again left home. He joined the Army in WWI and served as an aero-photographer, thereby learning the trade of photography in its infancy. He followed the horse racing circuit and made his living in this field. C. E. Wetherall remembers one of his visits in the early thirties. The family was sitting on the porch talking and enjoying the warm evening air when Uncle Len stood up and said he would take a walk before going to bed. He left while on his walk and was not seen alive again. He had traveled about the race groups and was in Michigan when he became ill and died. His body was returned to Huntington, W. Va for burial in the Service Men's Military Section of Springhill Cemetery there.

Wm. W. Priddy, grandson of Sarah said she told him that a brother of hers had gone west and was killed in a cattle range war between ranchers. She also told that she had born six boys and only one died a natural death in bed. William lived eight years after her death. Four had died a violent and accidental death. Harry was killed in a train accident. Clarence was killed by a hold-up who robbed him on the streets of Baltimore, Md. She talked a lot about Culpeper and Madison, Va - therefore, it is common knowledge in the family that some time during the Civil War period the family had gone back to Culpeper or Madison for a visit or temporary residence, returning to Cabell County, W. Va.

In response to a newspaper account of the First Annual Weatherall Reunion in October, 1974, Memphis, Tennessee, Mrs. Carmen (Cork) Weatherall contacted the writer about the family - and family records were exchanged by mail. In about 1975 the Damons had a wonderful opportunity to visit in Carmen's home and meet her, her mother (Mrs. Cork) and her aunt, Mrs. Jimmie Bowie. We talked family, saw family pictures and were served some delicious "Old-timey" lemon pie and pound cake (from old southern recipes) - and "Mother" Cork played a hymn on her old pump organ that she keeps in her bedroom. This is a very "PRECIOUS MEMORY" and this is what makes working on a family tree so rewarding.

HIS FAMILY MEMOIRS

Plainview, Texas
Sept. 16, 1960

To my grandchildren: Barbara, Janice, Susan and Samuel Henry, children of Wm. Theodore and Emelie Weatherall; Linda Kay and Jeanna Anne, children of J. T., Jr. and Linda Hodges; Jesse Stephen, son of Louise and Russell Hargrave and Jeffrey M., Shawn and Bradley Alvin, sons of Norma and Bill Feuerbacher.

As I now have reached the age of seventy years and have had numerous and sundry experiences, some of them may be of interest and information about life as it was with me from the time I can remember up to the present time.

I can remember quite clearly some things about my life beginning at about age seven, at which time we lived on a farm five miles west of Vernon, Texas. My father and mother, together with my older brother, Turner and I moved to Vernon, Texas from Pontotoc, Miss. in the year 1891. I was one year old at the time.

For some two years after reaching Vernon, my father owned and operated a grocery store. The area was sparcely settled at this time, but the population was growing rapidly due to the F.W. and D.C. Railroad was being built, starting at Ft. Worth, Texas to Denver, Colo. At the time we came to Vernon, the railroad was completed to Vernon, and quite a large amount of the virgin soil had been put into a state of cultivation and improved with houses, barns and fences. This information, of course, was given to me by our father and mother later on as I do not remember that far back.

The principal crops planted were wheat, corn and grain sorghums, and nearly every farm had some livestock to furnish food for the families and some surplus to sell. The larger portion of the land was still unfenced and used by cattlemen for range purposes. Most of the grass land was being used by Dan Waggoner who made his headquarters at Decatur and his descendents still own a large amount of land in the area of Vernon, Electra, Wichita Falls and Decatur.

At the time our family reached Vernon the farmers were doing well due to good rains they had received for the past several years, but from the time we moved there and lasting for four or five years conditions changed due to dry weather with very poor crops being produced and also the grass suffered due to the drouth so the livestock income was materially reduced. The store which my father had evidently was not making much profit for he sold it and bought the farm west of Vernon.

Grover Cleveland was elected President in 1893 and during his first year in office a depression or money panic started and continued for several years. During this time the farmers had a hard time as they had dry weather with low crop yields as well as low prices on what they did raise so we had a pretty hard time to survive through a number of years. However, we usually had plenty to eat as there was quite an amount of wild game to be had, being quail, prairie chicken, dove and rabbits. This together with what was raised on the farm, such as hogs, beef, poultry, eggs, mitch corn for bread. and wheat to make into flour; also vegetables of several kinds. However some years it was so dry there would be a scarcity of the above items.

The winters were severe. Houses were not very weather-proof. Our house was box construction, having just one wall, not even papered, so the cold winter winds came through the cracks to quite an extent.

Turner and I went to school at a two room frame school house called "West Vernon School". We rode a horse most of the time, but in real cold or rainy weather, we went in a buggy which gave us some protection from the weather. Our oldest sister, Hazel, just younger than I, did not start to school while we lived on this farm. We had a man teacher for principal and taught the grades from the fourth to the top, which I think was the 7th grade. He wore a long beard which was quite common then. He lived in Vernon and came to school on a horse. Some of the older boys gave him a lot of trouble. They would play "hookey" quite often and he punished them by whipping them before the whole class with small tree limbs he would cut from cotton wood trees. These same boys would put "sand burrs" under the saddle blanket of his horse during the day and when the "professor" got on his horse to go home, the old horse would do a little bucking and the professor's beard would fly up in his face as he was trying to hold on the horse with his hands. He sometimes found out which boys did it and he then would get some more tree limbs to work them over with. The lady teacher did not have much trouble with her pupils, as they were not old enough to be a problem.

Our father sold this farm in about 1899 and rented a house in the west Vernon community in order to be closer to school. At that time there were six children in our family. The money received from sale of the farm was used to buy cattle and pay lease on grass land only a short distance from where we lived.

In about one year from then, the Government set aside for the benefit of its' citizens a large portion of Indian Territory and surveyed the acres in 160 acre tracts. They then gave the people an opportunity to register for a drawing to determine who would get a farm. This area is now the State of Oklahoma. The Indians were moved to a smaller reservation and alloted smaller acreage plots. The Indians were decreased in numbers considerably and did not need the amount of land they formerly had. Our father and several others near Vernon who had small herds of cattle found out it would be legal to take their cattle to this land and graze it until the owners under the drawing demanded that the cattle be kept off their land so they figured it might be several months or longer before much of the land would be fenced or otherwise restricted by the settlers. They would drive their cattle over there and get free grass for them. It would be necessary to herd them at all times since there were no fences to hold them in any one area.

We moved our cattle over into the south edge of Oklahoma in early summer. I think it was in the year 1900. We set up our camp in a cottonwood grove. There were plenty of large trees for shade and some protection from hail, rain and wind and water could be had by digging shallow wells to about 5 feet depth. There were 3 of these camps most of the time we were there. We had a covered wagon and a fair sized tent which met all our needs for warm weather. In the day time we would keep our cattle together and not let them stray and also keep them separated from other herds in that vicinity. At night we would drive them up near the camp. They would usually "bed" down by sundown and would not get up unless disturbed by noise, rain, hail or wind. It was necessary that at least one of us be on the job at all times. We all three (Papa, Turner and I) were usually there. The others in the family stayed at Vernon. One of us would drive to Vernon about every week or ten days to get supplies, clean clothing, etc. We would go one day, spend the night, and then back the next day. Our location was about 25 miles from Vernon just across the Red River on the Oklahoma side.

We got tired of our cooking at times but managed to have some variety as we brought canned fruit, vegetables, eggs and home cooked light bread each time we went to Vernon. Also we could kill quail, doves and sometimes catch catfish from the pools in the river. There were no game laws at that time and wild game was quite plentiful. We had some company along, people traveling to Lawton would camp there quite often. They could give us the latest news. Some of them would be "liquored"up" but we never had any trouble on that account.

I had some real good luck due to campers having spent the night there. I had brought the cattle in for the day after keeping them for grazing and had dismounted from my horse, walking over to our camp. I passed by a place where some one had camped the night before. I happened to look on the ground and there was a ten dollar bill, evidently dropped by one of the campers. I, of course, picked it up and looked at it, and it seemed as big as a "pocket handkerchief". I had never seen one of my own up until then. I figured it belonged to me as "finders keepers" would apply under the circumstances. I bought a pony with the money.

By August we decided it would be more economical to keep the cattle there through the winter as it appeared we would get the free grass for several months or longer and as we were paying rent in Vernon and the pastures around Vernon were poor, it was decided to move the entire family to spend the winter. This made it necessary to fix some kind of living facilities to take care of our family of nine. We went to work on a "half-dugout" and made quite a large one. It was walled on the inside with planks and the dirt floor was also planked. The tent we had was also to be used as sleeping quarters for the boys. We found our facilities to be somewhat crowded but fairly comfortable.

We all missed going to school for this year. We stayed in Oklahoma through the following summer, then sold the cattle and bought a small farm near enough to the Vernon school to walk to school.

Our social life was very limited due to having lived in more or less isolated locations and the mode of transportation and money supply always limited. Most of our time was used in working hard when not in school. We usually had work to do after school hours and Saturdays. We attended church fairly regularly after we moved from Oklahoma, also parties somewhat as children do now. Due to the large family and cost of getting the necessities, we all worked outside our farm to help out and therefore could not afford the expensive things such as clothes and other things of expensive nature. However there were lots of families experiencing the same situation as we did.

About 1903, Theodore(Teddy) Roosevelt was elected President of the U.S. and we had the privilege of seeing and hearing him at Vernon when he came through by train on his way to Oklahoma for a hunt in Oklahoma. He stood on the rear platform of his private car and talked some 15 or 20 minutes and then shook hands with some of the people but I don't think any of our family got to shake his hand as there was a big crowd there and his time was limited. I remember we went in the wagon for the occasion. It was also my privilege to see his kinsman, Franklin D. Roosevelt, who was President in 1933 to 1945. He came through Childress, Texas during the time he was President and we saw and heard him at that time. He also spoke from his railroad car.

Up until 1910, the automobile was not very well known or used by the average people. I saw my first one in about 1905. It was bought and brought to Vernon by one of the Waggoners', they being one of the wealthiest families in Texas. I bought my first car in 1917. It was a used 1910 Model T Ford. I think I paid about $125 for it. It would run now and then but I was continually tinkering with it to keep it operating condition.

From the time we moved from Oklahoma to the small farm we bought from cattle sold until the winter of 1907 I was at home going to school and helping with the farm work. Our father had decreased his cotton and feed acres and planted quite a large acreage to watermelons and cantaloupes, as the soil and climate were adapted to these two crops. I always had liked horses and mules and asked to do the hauling of watermelons and cantaloups from the farm to the railroad cars for shipment. The cantaloups were crated at the farm and then hauled by wagon and placed in refrigerated cars for shipment to large cities to be sold on the market there. I remember these going to Colorado Springs and Denver, Colo. and to Kansas City, Mo. The cars were consigned to Commission Houses to be sold by them to wholesale dealers in this type of produce. The watermelons were shipped in cattle cars since they were ventilated which allowed the air to circulate through the melons, but no ice was put in the melon cars.

I remember an incident that happened about this time which concerned a wagon and team. There was an early day settlement about 18 miles north of Vernon called Doan's Crossing. This being on the Texas side of Red River where Mr. Doan had a store and wagon yard established in about 1880 for the purpose of furnishing supplies to cattlemen who were driving herds of cattle to market from Texas to Kansas City or other large cities, and this place on Red River was considered the best point on the river to cross the cattle due to being a wide flat channel and very little quicksand. It had been the custom for thirty years or more to have a big picnic at Doan's Crossing on the first Saturday in May. There would be baseball games, horse racing, political speaking, etc. This year, probably 1906, the Vernon High School baseball team was to play another school team and needed transportation there and back. I made a deal to have them hauled in our wagon for an agreed amount. We started early Saturday morning with about 14 boys. We had straw in the bed of the wagon and also had a large canvas wagon sheet to use in the event of rain. The Pease River is just about 2 miles North of Vernon and the wagon bridge had recently been damaged by high water, so we had to ford it. There was very little water when we crossed it that morning and there was no concern about it being safe for our return crossing. However, before we got to Doan's Crossing, it had begun to rain some and by the time we reached there it really had begun to rain. This continued from then during the entire day, causing nearly all the festivities to be abandoned. After we saw there would be no ball game and so many of the people were leaving, we got our wagon loaded and started back to Vernon. Due to the muddy road and the fact of our heavy load, our progress was very slow. Nearly all the other people had come in buggies or on horseback; they could make faster progress. We were so late in getting to the river (it being about sundown) the rains had caused the stream to be wide and deep to cross in our wagon. We had noticed a one room school house some 2 or 3 miles back near the road, so it was decided to drive back to it and get in out of the weather. There were no farm houses that we knew of in that vicinity, so we found some dry wood in the school building and made a fire in the stove and got dried out after a short while. There was no food available for the horses and we had no food for ourselves. We tried to sleep on the floor but, of course, it was too hard to get much sleep. We had to keep putting wood in the stove to keep the fire going and about 5 o'clock the next morning our dry wood was up so we all got cold again. We stayed in the school house until about 10 in the morning and then hitched the horses to the wagon and drove to the river to see if it had gone down enough to cross and found it had too much water to try. We waited 2 or 3 hours longer and tried again. We made it alright and got into Vernon a little after noon. We had had no food since noon the day before and very little sleep. The horses were in the same condition and as they pulled the wagon over the muddy roads, they were getting weak. However, we all got back to normal after getting some food and sleep.

In 1907 I started to school in my senior year of high school and went 3 months of the term, but our family finances were in a depleted condition so I told my father and mother I felt I should get a job in order that I could help out by sending any money over my expenses. Brother Turner was working for Wells Fargo Express Co. at Wichita Falls, Texas and he helped me get a temporary job through the Christmas season. The job there lasted about 3 months. My job was to meet all the night trains and put all the outgoing express on trains and take all the incoming express into the depot warehouse and check it against the way bills. I stayed up all night except I could take short naps between trains as I would wake up when an incoming train would whistle.

In January 1908 my job in Wichita Falls came to an end but they gave me one in Childress as office clerk and delivery man. I was transferred to Amarillo, then to Beaumont, then to Port Arthur as cashier in that office. After about six months there the First National Bank in Port Arthur offered me a job with them and I accepted their offer. Louise was born there in 1912; Sammie was born there in 1915 and died in Paducah in 1952.

I worked in the bank until 1916 and moved to Douglas, Arizona where I also worked in a bank. Ted was born there in September, 1917. In 1920 I resigned my job and moved to Paducah, Texas where I worked in a bank and in 1926 I moved to Roaring Springs, Texas where I bought stock in a bank and managed the bank for seven years when we sold it to a bank in Matador which is about 8 miles from Roaring Springs. Norma was born in Roaring Springs in 1929 and Linda was born there in 1932.

We continued to live in Roaring Springs until 1935 at which time I went to work for the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture and we moved to Childress, Texas. I was transferred to the Paducah office in 1939 and we lived there until 1953 when I was transferred to the Plainview office where we live now.

I was retired from government work as of May 1, 1960, after reaching the age of seventy which is the mandatory age of retirement for civil service employees.

268 iii. MYRTLE FRANCES JAMISON

iv. VIRGINIA MYRRH JAMISON, b. 19 May 1917 at Meridian, Ms. Dr. Pigford A. P.

Benjamin Franklin Jamison's first wife was EFFIE CLAIRE WICKHAM - and there were two children from that marriage:

v. KING JAMISON

vi. RUTH JAMISON

They were born about 1897 - 1898.

The above information was given by Dr. THOMAS V. ALLEN, JR., M. D., son of No. 268. He also furnished the following lovely story of his grandmother and grandfather: (Written by Benjamin Franklin Jamison.)

"After EFFIE CLAIRE's death, at Montgomery, Ala., and burial in Indiana beside her father, Effie's mother boarded KING and RUTH for pay, at Monon, Ind. Then the railroad transferred me from Montgomery to Okolona, Miss. It was at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Alex West (my Chief Car Inspector), that I met MYRTLE ELLEN, a widow without children.

When I asked her to marry me, her reply was--'Well, I will never be satisfied until I have the care of those two children.' I told her, 'Alright, we will get married, and after about six months, when we get settled, we will go to Indiana and get the children.' I admit this was just a test.

She said, 'If that is your plan, then we will wait to get married, until you are ready to leave for the children; because, when we marry, we are leaving on the first train for Indiana.' So that was it. We married at noon in Houston, drove to Okolona, and left on the (first) train at 7 p.m.

"I wrote Mrs. Wickham, that I was marrying, coming for the children, but asked that she not tell the children I was bringing a new mother for them. She did as I asked. On arrival at Monon, Indiana, I took Myrtle to the Hotel, got a room, and then went alone to Mrs. WICKHAM's home. The children were of course happy to see me. After a few minutes, I said to them,'Come, let's go down town and get some candy.' And away we went. After getting away from the house, I said, 'You know that Jesus took Mamma to Heaven, and now you do not have any Mamma, and have to live with Grandma, and cannot see your Father often, because he has to work in Mississippi.' They were about five and six years of age, and both began to cry. Then, I said, 'Suppose Jesus was to send you another Mamma, and you could go to Mississippi and live with her and your Father." King immediately said, 'Papa, could he do that?' I said, 'Yes, and he has done it.' He said, 'Where is she?' I told them, 'She is at the Hotel, and we are going to go get her right now and take her to Grandma's.' I was holding each of them by a hand, and believe me, it was like holding a leash, they were so eager to get to the Hotel. When there, I opened the room door, Myrtle was sitting on the sofa and she just held out her hands to them and they ran to her, sat on each side and there first words were 'Mamma.' We went to Grandma's, packed up and left, stopping at New Albany to see my cousins, the 'Sinex girls' then back to Mississippi.

This article appeared in a booklet "NE PORTLAND-ROSE CITY PARK HISTORY 1907-1977"

ESLEY WEATHERALL

Esley was born in "the Mississippi River swamp lands of southeast Arkansas", at the small town of Collins on June 27, 1898. He had two sisters and two brothers They lived on a homestead with only stoves and oil lamps. In 1907 during the money panic when it was "root-hog or die" his father moved the family to Portland at the urging of an old family friend.

Esley recalls his early school days in St. Johns and Woodlawn. The family moved to Gregory Heights in 1909 where his two sisters had bought a lot. There were only 3 homes then in the 80 acre tract. It was some time after they moved to Gregory Heights that there was more than one water faucet at 72nd and Fremont.

He recalls: "I went to the first Rose City Park School at 50th and Alameda, starting in 1909. For a year I walked from 81st and Klickitat to Kerns School at 28th and Davis, then I finished at Rose City when it opened in 1911. Sandy road was not paved until 1912. I remember the first automobiles, the Reo, Premier, Studebaker, Brush-Chalmers, Ford and others. We watched them lay streets and sidewalks with horse and scraper, all manual labor. The land down Cully Road was rich in truck gardens. I saw them build Fairley's Drug store building at 72nd and Sandy in 1912."

The Weatherall's moved into their home at 2934 NE 39th Avenue in 1924 where they raised their son and daughter. Esley began work with the Telephone Company in 1916 (age 18) as a draftsman and retired from their Plant Management in 1961. Many may remember his Trout Farm near the Portland Airport which he built after retirement in 1961.

His philosophy in life--be patient, set your goal and do your best.

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace!
Where there is hatred- let me sow love
Where there is injury- pardon
Where there is doubt- faith
Where there is despair- hope
Where there is darkness- light
Where there is sadness- joy
O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled- as to console
To be understood- as to understand
To be loved- as to love for
It is in giving- that we receive
It is in pardoning- that we are pardoned
It is in dying- that we are born to eternal life

Jerrie was deeply involved in a genealogical study of her branch of the family - and not only furnished the record of No. 23-Joseph Dickson Weatherall, but information on other connecting lines which are included on the following pages.

I shall greatly miss our correspondence about the family which was much too brief and was cut short by her untimely death from cancer at the age of only 60. Jerrie shared her information on the family in such a loving way and I count it a great privilege to have it - and hope that you her cousins will remember her lovingly as you read her records included herein.

SAMUEL TAYLOR, the immigrant, had a sister, Alice Taylor, who came on the "Martha" with him. They arrived in or at the Yorkshire Tenth in Sep/Oct 1677. He was a proprietor of West Jersey, having been given one thirty-second share by his older brother, WILLIAM TAYLOR. Samuel was from Dore, Derbyshire, England. He was a Quaker, as were Taylor's until Abner joined the Lutheran Church. Salt Lake City says his parents were probably not Quakers. William, who stayed in England married SARAH BRADBURY of Buxton Green. Samuel was a weaver and later signs himself as "planter" - he was town clerk of Chesterfield for 15 years, at which time they voted him 5 pounds. The Pennsylvania Historical Society has a description of him, as follows: "A tall, thin man, with prominent nose, clean cut features, light skin and hair." He married Susanna Horseman, at the Chesterfield Monthly meeting in May, 1686. They lived in a log cabin. His 500 acres of land was evenly divided among his 5 sons. SAMUEL TAYLOR, his first son, built a home in 1716, at the time of his marriage, and it is still occupied by his descendants. ROBERT TAYLOR established the historic Brookdale farm and it is still occupied by his descendants. Frank Wallace, who occupies this residence is the present mayor of Crosswicks, New Jersey. Susanna Horseman Taylor was alive when he made his will.

Phifer, Jr., and six grandchildren, Zan Nelson, Craig Phifer, Mark McNeill, Roxanne Nelson King, Lee Nelson and Shannon Francisco, and two sisters, Mrs. Ruth N. Robinson and Mrs. John Bettis.

A WORD OF APPRECIATION—

Would that I had the privilege, as in times past, of standing in your presence and having strength of voice could say to you all that is in my heart. That being denied, let me try to reach you through the Monticello News. And 'though "I can't begin to tell you how much you mean to me" I can't depart without saying "thank you for every expression of interest and concern." From individuals and groups, from black and white, rich and poor, high and low, Christian and non-Christian has come an ever increasing manifestation of love that perfectly humbles one so unworthy. From my whole family comes thanks.

But what I wanted most of all to say to you pertains to our faith, and may answer some questions that have come to your mind. For some time now I have found it necessary to take my own medicine. I have preached to you that the faith we profess is a pratical faith; that it is adequate; that "His grace is sufficient." Well, make no mistake about it, it is one thing to preach that, but will it do when up against the hard realities of life? I have in recent months gone into my files, lifted folder after folder of sermons touching on this question of affliction, suffering, sorrow. Sermons that I have preached to you. And as I read them I said to myself "this is what I preached to my people and I told them to lean upon it and they would find it trustworthy. Now did I tell them the truth? Will it work for me?" I want to say to you "it will." "It has!" So far as I am concerned it is the only thing that will work. The waters have been deep—bottomless so far as I know; the darkness dismal as Egypt; the fires hot as hell. Only one thing has sustained. It was not loved one nor friend; not the confidence and esteem of humans, though these are so important—the only thing that keeps one from sinking is he faith I have preached onto you.

Some time ago a minister was talking with a young paratrooper. "I can't imagine anything more terrible than having to jump from a plane at an altitude of ten thousand feet or more", said the minister. "Oh, it is not so bad", replied the soldier. "Tell me", continued the preacher, "how did you feel the first time you jumped?" "The first time I jumped", said the trooper, "it required all the imps of hell to push me out of that plane. I knew that when I jumped the only thing between me and death would be a cord and a little patch of silk. So I resisted with my whole being. But, you know, after I jumped and trusted that little patch of silk and found it trustworthy, that it would support me, it was the most exuberant feeling I ever had and I didn't want to come down."

I am not, for one minute, suggesting that one would not want to come out of the maze of trouble and affliction, but rather that if one has Christ (more accurately, if Christ has that one) his faith in Christ, though only a small patch, will support him and it is indeed an exhilirating feeling. There is nothing in Heaven and earth so precious as your Christian faith—pull the cord and fall back on it. It will hold you up.

BOYCE NELSON.

172-MARGARET ISABEL NELSON[6] (72-Frances Elizabeth Weatherall Nelson; 24-George Washington Weatherall; 8-James L. Weatherall; 4-Col John Weatherall; 1-John Wetherall). b. 30 Sept 1909 Havana, Ark., d. 1 Nov 1979, Memphis, Tn at 11:20 p.m. at her home. Funeral service was held 3 Nov 1979 at 1:30 p.m. at the Presbyterian Church in Havana, Ark and she was interred in the Nelson Plot in the Havana Cemetery. She moved to Fayetteville, Tn in 1920 where she graduated from High School in 1929. She received her B.A. degree from Maryville College in 1935, taught in Conecut Co Ala 1935-1967. She retired and moved to Memphis in 1967.

Margaret had a disease of the bone...her bones were very brittle and broke easily and so she had health problems all throughout her life. In later years she also suffered from arthritis; and following an automobile accident she was more and more confined to her bed. However, she was one of the most cheerful and pleasant persons to be around and was only physically confined to her bed. She was mentally alert and kept in close contact with friends and relatives by telephone and U. S. Mail.

Margaret was very instrumental in organizing our very 1st Weatherall Reunion in October, 1974. Had she not done this, I wonder whether or not I would have ever become interested in the history of the Weatherall family...SO, SHE IS ALSO RESPONSIBILE TO A GREAT EXTENT FOR THIS BOOK. THANK YOU MARGARET!!!

MARGARET NELSON

SEPTEMBER 30, 1909
November 1, 1979

This service is to the glory and praise of God as we pay respect and honor to the memory of our departed member of our Chapter, Margaret Nelson.

Margaret Nelson was born September 30, 1909 at Havana, Arkansas, the daughter of William Jay and Francis Elizabeth Weatherall Nelson. The family moved to Fayetteville, Tennessee where she graduated from high school. She attended Maryville College, Maryville, Tennessee. She received a DAR Scholarship, majoring in education. Later she did graduate work at Alabama College, Monetevalle, Alabama. For a number of years she taught school in Alabama.

She retired in 1967 and moved to Whitehaven, Tennessee to live with her sister, Mrs. Ruth Robinson, until her death November 1, 1979.

It was a privilege for the Chucalissa Chapter DAR to number Margaret Nelson among its members. Her integrity, beauty of character, gaiety of spirit, winsome personality endeared her to all who knew her. Her bedside telephone kept her in constant contact with family and friends to whom she brought comfort and cheer.

Christianity was not just a way of life to Margaret Nelson, but life itself.

She followed the teaching of the Apostle Paul so closely that his letters might have been written directly to her. The phrase Paul used so often, "In Christ" was very familiar and precious to her.

These words from 2nd Chapter of Philippeans, "So if there is any incentive of love, any participation in the Spirit, any affection and sympathy, complete my joy of being of the same mind, having the same mind, having the same love, being in full accord and of one mind. Do nothing from selfishness or conceit, but in humility count others better than yourself." These words might have been the daily creed of Margaret Nelson.

We light this candle, its light is a symbol of the light Margaret Nelson was to many people.

We place this white flower in memory of the purity of her thoughts and living.

TRIBUTE TO A GREAT LADY

In 1935, a wonderful young lady, Miss Margaret Nelson, joined the Conecuh County School System. Her first three years were spent teaching in schools in the Brooklyn, Arkadelphia, and Holly Grove communities. In 1938, she became affiliated with Conecuh County High School in Castleberry and made her home with Mrs. A.S.J. Nettles. She served not only as a teacher but as a Christian friend and influential counselor to the many students with whom she came in contact. She was considered an "Angel of Mercy" to the needs of her students and she typified what a teacher and leader should be.

Miss Nelson was recognized for her talent and capability in the organization and presentation of an annual Christmas pageant, which was eagerly anticipated by the people of Castleberry and adjoining counties. The outstanding feature of the pageant was a beautiful "live" Christmas tree formed by students.

An honor accorded Miss Nelson was the Woman of the Year for Conecuh County award for her generosity and work with the young people of the county.

Miss Nelson was a member of the Castleberry United Methodist Church, where she gave generously of her time talents, and tithes. One of the tributes to her was the naming of the Margaret Nelson Circle, an active organization of the young women of the church.

Failing health forced Miss Nelson's retirement in 1967, after which she made her home in Memphis, Tenn., with her sister, Mrs. Ruth Robinson, also a former Conecuh County teacher. She continued to maintain close ties with her church, former students, and friends in the area. Even though her physical presence was greatly missed, her spiritual presence was always near and dear to all who loved and respected her.

Miss Nelson will be remembered as a devoted member of her church, communities and schools where she taught for 32 years.

We talked briefly about family and he told me much of the above information. At that time, I also visited with No. 317 and 318 and they told me about their families. PSALM 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

SANTA CLAUSE

Here's to Mrs. Clause who asks after a pause,
What do you do with a man who pleads "Cause"
For a night out...
To take gifts about?

He hooks up the reindeer and climbs in his sleigh,
Gives two whoops and is up and away.
At early dawn, he returns to his nest,
Looking to Mama, far from his best.

Now, Mister, you tell me just where you have been,
You smell of hot chocolate and what was mixed in.
Your coat is bedraggled, and your cap is askew,
Your pants are all black, and now I ask you

Who's to believe when he says with a chuckle,
It was harmless, Mama, you can bet your buckle.
You can trust me, Mama, after all these years,
But I do make house calls, far and near.

To the children I take gifts-to those who believe
In Santa and his reindeer on Christmas Eve.
To the Papas I leave the bills in a drawer,
To be found and frowned over in a month or more.

To the Mamas I leave a smile on their lips,
A twinkle in their eyes and wiggle in their hips.
What harm, Mrs. Clause, is one night a year,
To run about spreading joy and cheer?

Isolated Church Beset By Thieves

By SAMME CHITTUM
SUN Staff Writer

When vandals blasted holes in the front door of the church with a twelve-gauge shotgun, the parishioners of Bethel Congregational turned the other cheek. And they made do when someone stole the Christian and American flags off the front lawn.

But when thieves broke in last week and stole the church piano, the Rev. John Westhof was ready to throw up his hands.

"About the only thing left of value out here was the piano - unless they steal the pews for kindling wood," said Westhof.

The piano, a Baldwin studio model, was chained to the floor and the name of the church was inscribed on a wooden cross beam. But that didn't stop the tenacious thieves who snapped the lock and drove off with the piano in a truck.

The loss was discovered, Westhof said, when workers went to clean the church Saturday.

Last Sunday, parishioners attended church as usual and sang the same hymns - this time to the strains of guitar music.

"Mrs. Rae Brown, our pianist, also plays the guitar, so she accompanied our singing with the guitar," Westof said.

The theft of the piano may be the final indignity, but it certainly wasn't the first, Westhof said.

Built in 1894, the modest white wooden church on Sorghum Mill and Pennsylvania has seen its share of thefts in recent years.

"A couple of years ago they stole the refrigerator out of the Sunday school area. In the last two years, they've also stolen our Christian flag and American flag. They also took the candlestick holders and flatware one time."

"I wish they'd steal a bible and learn from it," he added.

Parishioner Lee Ziegelgruber, who attended Sunday school at the church as a boy, said he is discouraged, but has no intention of changing churches.

"The church has been here since 1894, and we've got the good Lord holding us up because we can't figure what else does," he said.

The pews still show scars from the buckshot which lodged in the wood after a random shotgun blast once ripped through the front doors of the church, he pointed out.

Vandalism and thefts have also taken their toll in insurance rates, which have been "pretty expensive because of our isolated location," said Ziegelgruber.

The Oklahoma County Sheriff's Depatment has been out to check on the theft, but parishioners hold little hope the piano will be returned.

"The sheriff asked me if I knew who did it," he said. "You know if I knew who it was I'd make him carry it back here on his back."

In the meantime, parishioners must content themselves with guitar music.

At least the guitar is safe because, "she can keep that at home and they can't steal it," Ziegelgruber reasoned.

Members don't have money to offer as a reward for the return of the piano, he said, but are willing to make a deal.

"If whoever stole it brings it back, we'll all say a prayer for him."

Mildred's National DAR Number is 613-742. She was a member of the Capt. Basil Gaither Chapter 6-004-AR, Little Rock, Arkansas.

The newspaper articles on the next page paint an exquisite picture of this our lovely talented cousin - a truly dedicated Christian. Mrs. Lois Green, my husband's cousin, once wrote me that she loved to hear Mildred play - and could tell without looking when it was Mildred at the keyboard.

Mildred was president of her college senior class and sang in the Glee Club. She began playing the piano in Sunday School at age 10 and loved playing for church choirs and felt obligated to return to the Lord the talent He had given her.

She was dearly and genuinely loved, admired and respected by many people in all walks of life. One simply stated that "She was a jewel - a real jewel."

THE IMMANUEL RECORD

E. Amon Baker

Dear friends, I'm sure by now that you have heard of the death of our dear, dear friend and former staff member, Mildred Forrest. I am very sad because I have lost another friend. I don't know of anyone who could communicate the love of God to an audience through the keyboard of a piano or organ better than she. I knew her as a very deeply spiritual individual, and her playing as well as her life radiated this spirit. She began playing for Sunday School in this church when she was 12 years of age and except for a few years when they lived in other cities and short periods of illness, she has been organist or pianist since that time. She was organist at all the other cities where they lived. Can very many of you match that service record? There has never been anyone who has loved this church and choir more than she.

Christine is your author.

Christine attended the first 10 grades of school and studied piano with Miss Ziegler and Mr. Murphy in Hobart, Ok. She graduated from Amarillo High School in 1930 and earned some 30 hours in Business subjects at Amarillo College.

I, Christine, can remember playing the piano for Sunday School and BYPU at an early age - and when we moved to Amarillo in 1928, was asked to play for church services at the Tabernacle Baptist Church (now Buchanan Street Ch). This church broadcasted a service each Sunday at 8 a.m. from the studios of Radio Station KGRS, located on the mezanine of the Herring Hotel. Bob and I and a group of other young people provided the music and our pastor, Bro. J. C. Sisemore brought a short message. We were married on that program on Sunday morning 20 July 1930. We moved our membership from the San Jacinto Bapt. Ch. in 1939 to the First Baptist Church where we are still members. Bob was ordained a Deacon in this church. We have both taught classes in Sunday School and Training Union and I have been pianist in most of the departments where we taught. I had accepted Christ at age 12 and joined the Hobart, Okla Baptist Church April 22, 1924, and He has led me all the way - and what a blessing that has been.

No. 193 (Christine Weatherall) continued.

Bob Damon had come to Amarillo from Lubbock, Texas in 1927 and we met at Tabernacle Baptist Church. He was working for Western Union at the time and helped me get a job there in July, 1930. We both quit W. U. and went to work for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in 1942. Bob retired from S. W. Bell in 1974. My last 19 years of employment were with Phillips Petroleum Company where I was a stenographer in the Land and Geological Department. In this work I learned something about County Records, Wills and other instruments recorded there - and this training has helped in researching the Weatherall Family. I also retired in 1974 and we are still enjoying retirement.

I want to share with you the letter my daddy wrote to Bob on the subject of marriage, when he gave his consent to our marriage - I think it is a masterpiece.

DAVID NUTT
OF

The "FAMILY HISTORY OF L. D. NUTT", written by Leonidas Dallas Nutt (McNutt) in Oran, Mo., 10 Jan 1892, states:

"My grandfather on my father's side whose name was DAVID NUTT was of "Scoch decent"- a native of Scotland. My greate grandmother whose name was RACHAL LEE was of Welch decent from Wales...my greate grandfather and mother Alexander McNutt and Rachal Lee came from Scotland to Maryland. Grandfather named David McNutt was born in Maryland and was rased in Penn...went to N. C. a young man and there married RACHEL KATES. They both died at about 70 years old and they had 9 children."

The "HISTORY OF THE NUTT FAMILY (author not known for sure but may have been Martha Eli Nutt as she did extensive research on the family), which was given us by JOE & LU NUTT of Granbury, Texas, states:

"The Nutt family of Granbury and Hood County, Texas, so ably represented in mercantile and social circles by the brothers J. F. and D. L. Nutt are descended on the paternal side from DAVID NUTT who according to the best information possible was a native of England. When but a boy, in company with a brother also in his minority, he left their native land to seek a home and fortune in the western world....tradition asserts that David Nutt was Sheriff... was married in North Carolina to RACHEL CATES by whom he had a large family of children. Four of their sons located in Tennessee, probably Bedford County and one, David, Jr., was the father of the Nutt brothers of Granbury.

NOTE: The above reference to Alexander McNutt who married Rachal Lee is the only record we have found so far in our quite extensive research to the supposed parents of David Nutt (Sr.) of Orange County, N. C. There was an Alexander McNutt who married Rachel Grigsby who turned out to be the wrong one. Another Alexander McNutt who was quite instrumental in resettling Nova Scotia was not married - and so was not the right one. Our extensive research of the Virginia State Archives on the Nutt Family has not shown a connection with this David Nutt, Sr., either...so let us just begin here with David Nutt, Sr., of Orange County, North Carolina:

DAVID NUTT was b. ca 1746 in Maryland (per census record) and died in 1816 in N. C. at age 70. He may have married (1) Rebecca Shipman. He married ca 1797 RACHEL CATE, dau of BENJAMIN CATE (will dtd 2 Dec 1798, Bk C, page 136, Orange County, Texas...and his wife MARY CATE. Letters of Administration were granted to Rachel (dated 30 May 1816,)

David Nutt was listed in the 1790 census for Orange Co., N. C., Hillsboro, St. Mary's, Dist. and was also in the 1810 Census for Orange County, N. C.

After David Nutt, Sr., died Rachel moved to Bedford County, Tn., to near the 3 forks of Duck River (ca 1816.)

Floyd is 5'8" tall, has black hair and dark brown eyes. He served 13 months in WWII as a Tank Mechanic in Armored command in Ft. Knox, Ky. Floyd and Maurie lived in Amarillo, Texas until recently when they moved to East Texas. They now live in the Clear Lakes Addition of Quitman, Texas.

Floyd quit school just short of graduation from Amarillo High School to help mother in the business after dad died. After she went out of business, he worked in the parts department of Amarillo Oldsmobile Company which was owned by our Uncle G. C. Odom. Just to show you what a great guy Floyd is - Uncle G. C. had loaned mother some money to help her in the business (Western Hatters and Cleaners). However, she was not able to make a go of the business and there was the note to be paid off. Floyd paid that note off out of his meager salary - a little each payday. After he left Amarillo Oldsmobile Company, Floyd has been in business for himself - successfully. Lastly, he was in the specialty advertising business from which he retired. He and Maurie enjoy fishing. Floyd sings bass in the church choir and enjoys singing "Barbershop". They are Baptists.

Bill began working for Braniff Airlines in Amarillo and was later transferred to Dallas, Texas. However, as it is with so many Weatherall men, he wasn't happy until he could go into business for himself. He has been successful in the Specialty Advertising business and is now also building homes in the Grand Prairie, Texas area where they now live.

On 16 October 1978, Bill severed three fingers in an accident with a saw. They were reattached - two were completely saved and he only lost half of the index finger on his left hand. We are all so thankful for the medical "know how" in this instance.

Bill and Jean are members of the Catholic Church.

In WW II Bill was stationed on the air craft carrier TICONDEROGA. He was an air plane mechanic - and most of the time he was in an area below decks and near the hanger elevator. One day, when the elevator was open, some kamikazi planes came over - one or more went down that elevator shaft and exploded. Bill just happened to be up on deck at that moment. I believe the good Lord was looking after Bill that day especially.

Bill is one of the blond Weatheralls - blue eyes and 6' tall.

Council OKs smaller homes

By BOB FRANCIS
Staff Writer

Grand Prairie will get 70 smaller, custom single-family homes after City Council approved G.W. Weatherall's plan to build his smaller-sized custom homes in South Grand Prairie at last night's council meeting.

Many of the homes would be smaller than the minimum size allowed in Grand Prairie.

Council passed the measure with eight stipulations which will require some of the homes to be more than 1,300 square feet and calls for fully enclosed garages for the homes.

When the council first heard the zoning case on March 30, a committee was formed with Councilmen Reg Crump, John Logan and Roy Owings. The committee met with Weatherall and worked out the stipulations on the project.

Weatherall, speaking before the council last night, said even if council denied the planned development, he felt he had received a fair hearing on his proposal.

Weatherall has said Grand Prairie needs this type of housing, which is appearing across the nation, to appeal to the needs of young married couples.

Mrs. Brewster, Mrs. Harrison receive honors at hospital

Two locally retired school teachers, who were pressed back into service in the classroom years after they took their official leave from the school system, have received a unique honor. They have an award for "excellence in teaching procedures" named in their honor.

Mrs. Lila K. Brewster and Mrs. Elizabeth B. Harrison were surprised at a Faculty Appreciation Party for the Malone-Hogan Hospital Inc., School of X-Ray Technology Saturday night, with the unveiling of a bronze plaque bearing the inscription, "The Lila Brewster-Elizabeth Harrison Award."

The story behind the award is one of people who understand the meaning of excellence. From the beginning, the school's basic teaching philosophy has been that in requiring the more advanced student to teach the less advanced, a cascading learning process results. In order to facilitate such a program, a course that would teach the fundamentals of teaching in a way that the student could grasp easily, and implement effectively in teaching others, was needed.

Mrs. Brewster and Mrs. Harrison developed and conducted such a course, "The Fundamentals of Teaching," in the Spring of 1975. Measured by the performance of the second-year students, and evaluated by the first-year students in a 50-point questionnaire, the results have been outstanding. So much so, that the School's Advisory Board recommended that a special award in the name of Mrs. Brewster and Mrs. Harrison be created to honor each year the Outstanding Student Teacher enrolled in the program.

The award, created by Dr. Buerk Williams, M.D., Chief Radiologist of M-HH, and Program Director of the school, was presented for the first time to Mrs. Rosemary Hansen, M-HH School of X-Ray Technology's Outstanding Student Teacher for 1976.

The recruiting and selection of students for next fall's first-year class is now in progress. An accredited school, graduates of the two-year program are eligible to take the National Registry exams for Registered X-Ray Technologists, the certificate being recognized anywhere in the world as a documented evidence of their proficiency in X-Ray Technology.

Interested persons should contact Mr. Sam Subia, R.T., Educational Coordinator, Radiology Department, Malone-Hogan Hospital, Inc. (263-1211, ext. 190).

Surprise Party Honors Miss Elizabeth Badgett

Miss Badgett's very brief absence from home on Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 16, gave her neighbors and friends just the needed opportunity for the completion of hurried arrangements for a surprise party in her honor, occasioned by the departure of Miss Badgett, popular teacher of South Marshall School, Marshall, Texas for the past seven years; and a favorite of her many Jefferson friends, who has accepted a teaching position in the Austin Public School System.

The guests, upon arrival, were invited by Mrs. Edward Taylor, to sign their names in an autograph album.

Seated at tables arranged upon the spacious lawn of the Badget family home, in a setting of lovely shade trees, evergreens, and late summer blossoms; the guests heartily greeted Miss Badgett on her sudden arrival.

"We love you," were words tenderly said by charming little Miss Stella McDonald, daughter or Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. McDonald, as she requested Miss Badgett to open a large piece of luggage containing gifts from friends.

Assisting Miss Trudie Segler and Mrs. Perry Woods, hostesses, in the social courtesies of the afternoon were Mrs. Dixie Johnson, Mrs. Sadie Faviell, Mrs. Edward Taylor, Mrs. Roy Sanders, Karen Sanders and Judy Perdue. Approximately thirty-five or forty guests enjoyed the occasion..

I had looked through a number of records and found nothing familiar with the family and decided to ask one of the ladies in the office - and she said (in answer to my question whether or not she knew anyone in the family) "Yes, Mr. Carl E. Edwards is our Tax Assessor-Collector and his office is just up stairs." He told us about his sister, Maude, and we were off to unraveling another record of the WEATHERALL FAMILY.

He was educated in rural schools and remained at home to assist his father in farming until he was 25 years old and then he farmed for himself.

In 1901 he and Addie moved to Cunningham, Kansas where he bought the general merchandise store of ELDER AND SIMONSON. His brother, MASON WETHERALL joined him in the business which was known as "WETHERALL BROS." They started an electric plant for the store and then built a larger one for the City of Cunningham...also originated the first ice plant there. He was well educated, but his knowledge was derived from reading books - not from formal education.

Politically he was an Independent Democrat. He served as a member of the City Council and was Past Noble Grand of Cunningham Lodge No. 431 Independent Order of Oddfellows.

As shown above, Addie Jenkins was sister of Carrie Jenkins who was the mother of Mrs. Lois Blotner of Amarillo, and it was through Lois that I found this branch of the family.

Marvin was my beauty operator off and on from about 1953 on...in 1953 he worked in a shop that was located in a building that was owned by my employer at that time - and one day I happened to have Marvin assigned to me as my operator. In a conversation the name "Weatherall" came up and when he mentioned that his mother was a "Weatherall" I just broke out in goose bumps with excitement. I had not started thinking of researching the family then - but believe that might have started me thinking. Through the years we have had many conversations about his branch of the family and he has given me much information on them.

225-MARVIN NEOMA HODGES

God hath not promised skies always blue, Flower-strewn pathways
all our lives through.
God hath not promised
sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
peace without pain.
God hath not promised
we shall not know
Toil and temptation, trouble and woe.
He hath not told us
we shall not bear
Many a burden,
many a care.
But God hath promised strength for the day,
Rest for the laborer,
light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
undying love.

July 18, 1985

I was born in Douglas, Arizona Sept. 25, 1917. I am of the Methodist faith. My two older sisters, Louise and Sammie were born in Pt. Arthur, Texas.(Anna)Louise was born Sept. 12, 1912. She died in June, 1968. (Martha) Sammie was born April 30, 1915 and died May 6, 1952. Maud Hall was the mother of Louise, Sammie and myself. Sammie never married. Louise was married to Russell Hargrave and has a son Jessie Stephen(Steve) Hargrave.

Due to our mother's health, we moved to Arizona. When I was about 4 years of age, we moved to Paducah, Texas. At the age of 8 we moved to Roaring Springs, Texas and I graduated from Roaring Springs High School in June of 1935.

I enjoyed living in Roaring Springs as there were a lot of things for a boy to do. There was a river on each side of town and on the South Pease river, some springs and a water fall. This was on the Matador Ranch and the public was allowed to picnic and swim. About a year after moving there, the Matador ranch built a large swimming pool below the falls, which was enjoyed by people from all over the area. For a while I had a pony and enjoyed riding on the ranch and along the rivers.

In the fall of 1935, I came to Pt. Arthur and lived with my Uncle Bill Weatherall (W.L.) and attended Pt. Arthur College. Later I was employed by the Gulf Oil Corp. in Pt. Arthur and worked in the Laboratory. In Oct. of 1941 I went into the Army - had basic training near San Diego, in the Mojave Desert in California. In May of 1942 I went to Oahu in the Hawaiian Islands in the anti-aircraft. Left Hawaii in May of 1944 as part of the invasion of the Island Saipan. I returned to the United States and discharged in November of 1945. After discharge, I returned to Pt. Arthur to my job with the Gulf Oil Corporation.

On March 22, 1952, I married Emilie Marie Holub of El Campo, Texas. I met Emilie while she was a secretary in Houston. We made our home in Pt. Arthur, Texas and raised four children: Barbara, Janice, Susan and Samuel (Sam). Our first child, a boy named Paul, died shortly after birth. He is buried in Calvery Cemetary in Pt. Arthur, Texas.

Sincerely

Jed Weatherall

Miss Cynthia Hardin Becomes Bride of Mr. Fletcher Powell in March Ceremony

Cascading boughs of imported peach blossoms, dendrobium orchids from Hawaii and rubrium lillies from Holland lined the aisles of the First Baptist Church in Pontotoc at six o'clock in the evening March twelve, as Cynthia Marie Hardin became the bride of Fletcher Veazey Powell. Miss Hardin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jenkins Hardin, Jr., of Pontotoc. Mr. Powell is the son of Mrs. John Canada Powell, Sr., of Senatobia and the late Dr. Powell.

Dr. John Flowers of Senatobia officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Willie Kenneth Hardin, aunt of the bride of Memphis, and Miss Evelyn Weatherford Young of Wynne, Arkansas, provided a concert of organ and harp music. Miss Susan Frances Dotson of Jackson was soloist.

The altar featured clusters of cathedral ivory tapers with massive arrangements of peach blossoms, pink rubrium lillies, white orchids, and lilac. The European design graced the base of the candles forming a beautiful setting for the vows. Graceful boughs of flowers enhanced the base of clustered ivory candles on the choir rail.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore an antique lace gown by Pat Kerr made of a combination of 18th and 19th century laces from Europe in an empire design. The full length train also featured a combination of centuries of lace. The flowing tulle veil was edged with ecru satin ribbons. The bride wore an antique cameo worn by her grandmother. Miss Hardin carried an arm bouquet in European design. The peach blossoms, lilac, dendrobium orchids, and rubrium lillies complimented her designer dress.

Mrs. Ronald Alan Bernstein, sister of the bride of Chicago, was matron of honor. Her outfit was an original design of Pat Kerr. The antique lace blouse featured a bodice of fine 19th century tambour lace and leg of mutton sleeves with satin ribbons. The ecru moire skirt had lace bands at the hemline.

Miss Candace Elizabeth Bevill and Miss Lisa Michelle Bevill, cousins of the bride of Birmingham, were double flower girls. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lee Bevill. The flower girls wore ballerina length dresses of ecru moire which were belted with satin ribbons. The dresses featured smocked collars edged with lace. They wore circlets of babies breath with narrow ecru satin ribbons entertwined with a bow and streamers in the back. They dropped fresh lilac clusters for Miss Hardin as she entered the church.

Mr. John Veazey Powell and Mr. Fletcher Veazey Powell, Jr. sons of the groom of Oxford, served as best men. Ushers were Mr. John Canada Powell, Jr., brother of the groom of Franklin, Tennessee; Mr. Hal Stith Spragins, III, brother-in-law, of the groom of Germantown; Mr. Donald Henry Bevill, cousin of the bride of Chattanooga; Mr. John Garrett Veazey, Jr., cousin of the groom, Mr. David Edward Adams, and Mr. Milton Johnson Cushman of Senatobia.

Mr. Bart Marshall Adams and Mr. Matthew Perry Cushman of Senatobia served as double ring bearers. Mr. Adams is the son of Mrs. Gail Marshall Adams and Mr. David Edward Adams. Mr. Cushman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Johnson Cushman. The ring bearers wore outfits of ecru moire. Their shirts featured smocked collars. The ring bearers carried pillows of ecru moire and antique lace designed by Pat Kerr.

Mrs. Hardin's gown, designed by Pat Kerr, featured a lace blouse of varying shades of lavendar with puffed sleeves of lace insertions. The lavendar moire skirt had lace bands of insertion at the hemline. She carried a large purple catalaya orchid.

Mrs. Powell's gown of peach silk featured a beaded neckline. Beading was used to accent the sleeves' cuffs. She chose to wear a white catalaya orchid at the waist.

THE VOICE OF THE BUREAUCRAT

A Special Advisory to Members Of the Senior Executive Service

Those officials of the Carter Administration who read and adopted the philosophical basis of Boren's Personnel Evaluation Report (BoPER) presented in the March, 1979 issue of mumblepeg are probably among the survivors of The Washington Shuffle. BoPER stressed the importance of team play in its weighting of rating items. Team play, of course, is the key element in the White House Report Card. Though mumblepeg is sent to key members of the White House staff, it is not known the degree to which BoPER may have influenced the composition of the report card.

For those who did not read and heed, and for those who have not yet rolled, the six-point program may still be of help.

Boren's Six-Point Program For Crisis Survival

Point One: During a crisis, residuate! To residuate (a Borenverb) is to burrow into a fixed immovable position, and maintain a very low profile. Minimize your mumbles, muffle your shuffling, and appear to be busy. After the dust begins to settle, you can peepistically look for a safe place to land. Though residuation does not necessarily involve cowardice, cowardice aimed at survival is acceptable in our remissive society. Purposeful cowardice is honorable in a bureaucracy.

Point Two: All policies serve as guides by which you can prove your loyalty. It doesn't matter that you can't

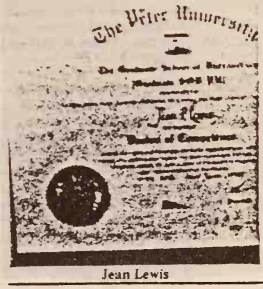
Peter University Awards Degrees To Van Andel And Lewis

In ceremonies in Washington, D.C., the Graduate School of Bureaucracy, Peter University, awarded the Doctor of Competence degree to Jay Van Andel and Jean Lewis.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the United States Chamber of Commerce, Dean James H. Boren (Graduate SOB/PU) conferred the doctor's degree on Jay Van Andel. Among his many activities, Dr. Van Andel serves as Chairman of the Board of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and as Chairman of the Amway Corporation. "Dr. Van Andel has consistently performed in a competent manner in spite of the economic orbitalities that have interfaced with marginal thought patterns in Washington, D.C.," Boren said. "He has demonstrated effective thrustifications, and he has maximized bottom line configurations while retaining sensitivity to public responsibility."

In conferring the degree upon Jean Lewis, Dean Boren said, "Dr. Lewis has jumped agency boundaries with unmatched agility and optimal competence. As the chief architect of legislative harmonics (lobbying) for the Agency for International Development for years, and as the Assistant Administrator of the Small Business Administration for legislative affairs (lobbying), Dr. Lewis has been particularly effective in appropriational extractions."



Jean Lewis

"Dr. Lewis," Boren said, "is one of the Carter Administration's most competent brush-fire-dousers, and the degree is proper recognition of her record of performance."

Dr. Laurence J. Peter, Founder-President of Peter University, a subsidiary of the Peter University Press, said, "In honoring Doctors Van Andel and Lewis, Peter University honors itself."

An Editorial

Bureaucrats Must Accept the President's Challenge

We, the bureaucrats of the nation, must recognize that fuzzifications and wordational inundations may have contributed to the nation's Crisis of Confidence. For years, we have profundified our forms, fuzzified our regulations, and orbitated our reports in order to keep the people from finding out what we have not been doing. This wordational fluff has served as our protective screen and our security blanket. The time has come for us to lift the blanket, and let the people have a brief peek into their own government.

We must answer the President's challenge — his call to duty, and we must do all we can to save the goose that lays the golden egg. As a contribution to restoring confidence in government, mumblepeg offers the Boren Plan for Confidence.

Point One: The International Association of Professional Bureaucrats and mumblepeg would serve as a joint clearinghouse to interpret Washington's fuzzifications to the public. For regulations weighing less than a pound, INATAPROBU would deprofundify the wordational thrusts for a cost-of-living fee of $0.004 per word (one and two-words free). For regulations weighing more than one pound, cost-of-living bids would be made on a poundage basis. By clarifying our marginal thoughts we can give the people of the country a glimpse inside the government and thus retranquilize them for future generations.

Point Two: The government should be reorganized into a system of Cottage Government. In years past, there existed a system of cottage industries in which people worked in their homes to produce parts that were subsequently assembled in a central place. The Boren Plan for Cottage Government would keep the bureaucrats at home except for a monthly trip to their offices to pick up their pay checks, turn in their memos, and exchange their forms and other paper needed to meet their shufflistic responsibilities. This would provide gasoline that would enable the taxpayers who work to get to their work in order to work to support those of us who are on the public till.

By implementing the Boren Plan, we can restore confidence in our government, restore confidence in our nation, restore confidence in ourselves, and restore confidence as the bureaucratic game of life.

understand the policy. Embrace it; accept it as your own. Acceptance is more important than comprehension. Adopt the buzz words, appear thoughtful and sincere, and express your concurrence in full and resonant tones.

Point Three: Never ask why, only how high. When given an opportunity to demonstrate your loyalty, hop to it! If you are asked for a ten-page "think piece" on some problem, give them fifty pages. Trashify (Borenverb) your document with irrelevant data, footnotes, maps, charts, graphs, and other paperistic materials. Reports are evaluated not by the weight of logic but by the weight of the report itself. Never question the purpose, only the slant. If you don't know the slant, of course, you won't know what data to develop to support the predetermined conclusion.

Point Four: Accept stupidity without question. Regardless of the far-fetched decisions that may be made, be a good team player. Simply stay up to date on which marginal activity is the "in" activity at the time, and go along with it in a pleasant way. Never ask questions in pursuit of facts. Ask only questions of opinion, because all superiors will have opinions when they may not have facts. Questions should be easy to answer but should seem profound in order that the answer can enhance the image of the one being questioned.

Point Five: Meet all deadlines. Hand in all your assignments on time. If you can't find the statistics for a report, guess. After all, your guess is as good as anyone's, and you have the official letterhead to give it authority. If you can't develop a budget for a program, budget it in phases. Give the first phase a surplus-oriented budget, and you can run the spending program at the rate appropriate to meet the required expenditures. Regardless of the zilch-to-competent work level at which you perform, meet the deadline. If you don't know what to do, do it anyway. Remember the Principle of Dynamic Inaction: When you do nothing, do it with style.

Point Six: Follow the Boren Guidelines for Success:
When in charge, ponder.
When in trouble, delegate.
When in doubt, mumble.

Borenverb of the Month

To hunkerfy: To prepare to spring in any direction. Physical hunkerfication is to be "at the ready" in a crouched position. Bureaucratic hunkerfication is to be mentally prepared and alert to spring in whatever direction a superior may begin to wander. Hunkerfication is a step above residuation (Fixed, immovable position with a low profile. See the March issue of mumblepeg), and is practiced at middle and senior management levels in governmental, business, and academic bureaucracies.

He was Governor of the State of Oklahoma 1974-1979, and elected Senator from the State of Oklahoma in 1979 in which capacity he is still serving at this writing.

Boren way

Service is family tradition

David Boren was following a family tradition when he decided to enter the 1974 governor's race. Boren's father, Lyle, was a former 4th district congresman. Congressman Boren was elected to the Congress when he was 26 years old in 1936 and was the youngest member at that time. He went on to serve 10 more years in the Congress.

Boren's grandfather, the late M.L. Boren, a farmer and businessman, brought his family to Oklahoma in a covered wagon soon after statehood.

The family spent their first night in the new state at a wagon yard in Waurika. Boren's mother, the former Christine McKown, a schoolteacher before she married, also came from a pioneer Oklahoma family. Her parents helped found the city of Maud and operated businesses in Eufaula and Ada.

CARRIE BOREN is asking for your vote her father, David Boren. You can help by joining the Boren Broom Birgade. If you can and will help, write BOREN, P.O. Box 26101, Okla. City, OK 73126.

In almost every area of Oklahoma life one is likely to find members of the Boren family. Borens have especially been involved in education. David Boren's uncle, James, was one of the early presidents of Southwestern State College at Weatherford. Boren himself is a professor of government at Oklahoma Baptist University. His late uncle Dale Boren was a school teacher, and owned a chain of school supply stores in central Oklahoma. His late uncle Preston was a former superintendent of schools at Heavener.

Two of his uncles, Dallas and J.D., held ministerial positions in the Church of Christ at many Oklahoma churches. Another uncle, Damas, is a retired barber in Ada.

The Borens have also been involved in the creative arts. Boren's cousin James is a western artist and was art director of the Cowboy Hall of Fame. Mae Boren Axton of Idabel is a noted songwriter and has written several gold record sellers. His cousin, Jim Boren, is the author of 'When in Doubt, Mumble', a bestselling book poking fun at bureaucratic red tape. Jim, an Oklahoman now based in Wasnington, D.C, is known nationally as a humorous speaker with a serious message about the need to reform the bureacracy. His sister, Susan, is a former member of Speaker Carl Albert's staff and now is a speechwriter with the Library of Congress.

Boren's wife, Janna, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuel Little of Madill. She has taught French in the Seminole schools after receiving her degree from Boston University in communciations and doing graduate work at Oklahoma University. She has also worked in the Oklahoma television stations before marrying Boren in 1968.

The Little family came to Oklahoma in 1888. Janna's father and her uncle, Quintin, are both well-known in Southern Oklahoma. Reuel, a businessman and attorney, was the inventor of the tree injector, which was used extensively to reclaim many acres of land for farm use in Oklahoma. He and wife, Oteka, have been active in Oklahoma politics, serving as delegates to the Democratic National Convention twice.

Little also set up a foundation to provide free operations for persons with cleft palates who could not afford to pay.

Quintin Little of Ardmore was a member of the Oklahoma University board of regents for many years.

Boren says, "My wife and I both have grown up in families where we have heard a lot about history first hand. My candidacy for governor is just one way in which we want to help do our part for the future."

Oklahoma governor, former judge wed

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Gov. David Boren and former Special District Judge Molly Shi of Ada were married Sunday afternoon at the governor's mansion in a private ceremony attended only by the members of their immediate families.

Following the 2 p.m. ceremony, the couple departed for a week-long honeymoon trip to an undisclosed location.

The new first lady, who had been a special district judge since 1974, resigned her judgeship last Friday.

This was the second marriage for both. Boren and his first wife, Janna, were divorced in 1975 after eight years of marriage. They had two children, a daughter, Carrie, and a son, Dan. She married a Longview, Tex., oilman last year and now resides in Texas.

The marriage Sunday was performed by Boren's hometown minister, the Rev. Robert Cocke, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Seminole.

The governor, 36, and his new bride, 34, exchanged plain, gold bands as wedding rings.

Family members attending the ceremony included Boren's parents, former Congressman and Mrs. Lyle Boren; the governor's children, Carrie and Dan; his sister, Susan Boren of Washington, D.C.; the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shi of Stratford, and the bride's five sisters and one brother.

Boren and his new wife had been dating for several months and had appeared together at numerous public functions, but he had declined comment on rumors they planned to marry and she had flatly denied them.

"I plan to live and die in Ada, Oklahoma," she said in an interview earlier this month. "This is home. I am where I want to be, doing what I want to do."

MOLLY BOREN. . .governor's bride

Asked then if she would leave Ada under any circumstances, such as a marriage to the governor, she asked, "What do I have to do? Write it in blood? Carve it in marble? They're going to have to run me out of town on a rail."

At that time, she said her relationship with Boren was "no big deal," adding, "There's nothing to it."

The governor and the new Mrs. Boren will attend a meeting of the Education Commission of the States in Arizona and the Interstate Oil Compact Commission in Santa Fe before returning to the governor's mansion on Dec. 6 or Dec. 7.

The new first lady was born in Ada and attended public schools in Stratford. She received a bachelor's degree from East Central State University in Ada and a master's degree and law degree from the University of Oklahoma.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Miss Brewer wed in church rites

RUSSELLVILLE, ARKANSAS DAILY - 19 Oct 1980

Mrs. Daniel Brice Morrison

Rebecca Ann Brewer and Daniel Brice Morrison of Mountain Home were married in a recent afternoon ceremony in the First United Methodist Church at Russellville, with Dr. Ralph Hillis officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ann Forrest Brewer of Russellville and Pete Brewer of Atlanta, Ga. She is the granddaughter of Euel F. Forrest of Little Rock and the late Mildred Forrest, and Mrs. Ray R. Rankin of Edmond, Okla., and the late Clyde C. Brewer.

The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Nolen B. Morrison of St. Joseph, Mo. He is the grandson of Mrs. John Roberts of West Plains, Mo., and the late Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison of Gainesville, Mo.

Music was provided by Millie Forrest of Nashville, Tenn., cousin of the bride, vocalist, Carolyn McVey, organist, and Greg Moore, reception pianist, of Russellville.

The bride wore her mother's floor-length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The scooped neckline of the fitted bodice was outlined with lace and a tulle ruffle. The bouffant was fashioned with alternating panels of lace and tulle. The fingertip veil of illusion was secured by an appliqued Juliet camp. She carried a cascade bouquet of phalenopsis orchids with stephanotis and English ivy.

Melissa Brewer of Russellville was her sister's maid of honor. Lisa Lunney of Fort Smith and Mrs. Tommy Lewis of Fayetteville were bridesmaids. The three wore floor-length gowns of copper-colored Qiana with chiffon overblouses. They wore rust colored silk flowers in their hair and carried colonial bouquets of bronze chyrsanthemums, ivy and silk autumn leaves.

Brad Morrison of St. Joseph was his brother's best man. Doug Brewer of Springdale, brother of the bride, and Keith Hayes of Russellville were groomsmen.

Kimberly Forrest and Edward Forrest of Murfreesboro, Tenn., cousins of the bride, lighted the candles.

Michael Forrest and Stephen Forrest of Nashville, cousins of the bride, seated the guests.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Russellville Country Club. Assisting were Mrs. Mike McCoy of Russellville, Sarah Brewer of Morrilton and Linda Yancey of Joplin, Mo.

Carmen Jones of Russellville presided at the bride's book.

The couple will make their home at Mountain Home, where the bride is employed at the First Bank and Trust Co. and the groom at First State Building and Loan
